COMMERCIAL.

HONOLULU, AUGUST 5, 1882.

Since our issue, mails to July 26th have been in hand, and the arrivals at San Francisco are given in detail in Money Matters, General & City News, particular lights.

In local affairs, the great issue of the week has been a board rebellion which ended in an Sunday, and lasted the greater part of Monday. The long drawn out affair has caused considerable trouble with the new magistrate and board members.

The Legislature was prorogued on Monday, and was under another heading will be found a list of the bills that have been approved by His Majesty—not the most important of which are the act to regulate the sale of spirituous liquors, and the licensing of commercial traveling agents.

An extensive Credit Auction Sale, to order of Messrs. Hackfeld & Co., will occupy their store all next week, commencing on Wednesday, Aug 9th.

The arrivals for the week have been the Kinau from Kauai, Ella and Mikahala from San Francisco, Mikahala from Kona, Kinau from Honolulu, H B M's vessels, Sand Island, Kinau from Kauai, Ella from San Francisco, Mikahala from Kona
