COMMERCIAL.

HONOLULU, OCTOBER 11, 1882.

There are been a considerable amount of important business transacted during the past week, considering the unfavorable state of the money market. The promptitude with which the notes of our merchants in the city show a healthy condition of affairs. The business community, generally speaking, of course of Hawaii with which to build the national edifice it has pretended to accomplish, but of the materialists do their work there ought to be the foundation for any such edifice.

Preparations for the Honolulu Sugar Company are pushed forward and the International steamers and schooners are hastened to and from San Francisco to procure frame from the new crop machinery to hand, and there will be ample freight offering for the several days coming. We are now free from Europe and the Eastern States.

The schooner Clara Sprockels, formerly a regular trader between here and the Coast, arrives last week in Kahului, while on a voyage to Chignitoo, Cal., she will discharge her cargo, lumber, freight, which had proceeded to her original destination.

The homestead of Mr. P. C. Jones, Jr., has been purchased by Judge Austin for $3000, and on Wednesday Mr. R. F. Johnson will dispose of the remainder of his effects conducive to that dwelling.

The arrivals for the week have been Sunday, Clara Sprockels, Jeff, for repairs; Bill Kaeaea and Cleveland from San Francisco, Kaulana from Port Townsend, Dakota from Newcastle and Polly from Kingsburg.

The departures were—the Amy for the Pacific Ocean, and the Kitchen for Port Townsend.

By the courtesy of the Minister of Finance we procured the third quarterly report of domestic exports, and also a summary for the first nine months of the current year, and also for the corresponding term of the year 1881.

The new report of exports for the nine months ending Sept. 30th, 1882, shows an increase of $9,905.22 for the third quarter of the present year over the same period last year, and an increase of $1,000,000 for the nine months, 1,000 barrels, 1,000 barrels, 1,000 barrels
