Boyd, Esq., after an able and eloquent exposition of the duty of the Democracy to achieve a signal victory in this State, preparatory to the great national redemption in 1872, offered the following resolutions, which, being put to vote, were adopted by a large majority:—
Whereas, Two Democratic city and county tickets are already in the field, one nominated by the organization meeting at Tammany Hall, and the other by an association commonly known as the "Young Democracy;" and
Whereas, The Tribune, the principal organ of the republican party in this city and State, urges the support of the ticket of the "young democracy" by the republicans, for the following reason:—
"Our own conviction is clear and strong that General Woodford's election would be all but assured by the adoption of the anti-ring democratic ticket—that Woodford could not be beaten twenty thousand in our city if this were done."
And the Standard, another republican organ, states the reason for the support by the republicans of the candidates of the "young democracy" in the following broader and more explicit language:—
"To Mr. Hall, personally, we have no objection to make that would not apply to any leader in his party. But Mr. Hall represents an organization which must be overthrown to clear the way for the re-nomination and re-election of Grant. The election of Mr. Ledwith would secure that result, and we hold the endorsement of this nomination to be the clear duty of the party." And
Whereas, The Republican State Committee, especially charged with the duty of attempting to elect the republican State ticket, has so far intermeddled with local matters as to volunteer an assurance to the republicans of this city that they will "best subserve the interests of their party" by supporting the candidates of the "young democracy;" therefore, on behalf of the Democratic Union organization, it is hereby
Resolved, That this General Committee will not add to existing political combinations by the nomination of a third democratic city and county ticket; but that, in view of the danger indicated by the above extracts from the republican organs in this city, and the unprecedented action of the republican State Committee, of an attempt to obtain support for local nominees by betraying the democracy of the State and nation, this General Committee earnestly invokes every true hearted democrat, whatever may be his views or feelings in regard to personal or local matters, to be vigilant and watchful in his efforts to secure a faithful and united support of democrats, and democrats only, as candidates for State officers, for Congress and for the Assembly, and of only those candidates for any office who are true to the principles and who seek the success of the democratic party. And this Committee also appeals to the wise democracy of this city to expose and denounce any and every person professing to be a democrat found guilty of supporting republican nominees for any of those offices, and to oppose and labor to defeat every candidate whose friends and supporters shall be guilty of such base treachery to the democratic party.
Resolved, That the several ward associations are hereby requested to take active and efficient measures to accomplish the objects of the foregoing resolution.
