Miscellaneous.

By taking revenge a man is but even with his enemy; but in passing it over he is superior.

A Parisian photographer has made a hit by photographing children apparently on the edge of a precipice.

It must be rather an effective sight in the town of Archena, to Spain to see the congregation of the church celebrating mass in the fields because the earthquakes have made it dangerous to occupy the usual building.

Sea fern makes a particularly effective design for any purpose where a continuous scroll is necessary. It is easy to work, and, if carried out in the pale green tints of the natural weed, will harmonize with anything.

Douglass Astin, of Norwich, fell under a moving train he was attempting to board. When the train passed Douglass came uninjured, with a cigar in his mouth. And yet there are people who claim gambling to be injurious.

The largest man in the British army is Lieutenant Sutherland of the Fifty-ninth Regiment. He is six feet four inches high, and weighs twenty-six stones, so that he is compelled to have a special chair built for him and lack especially tall when walking alone.

Paris has for 2,225,000 inhabitants twenty-three theatres, three circuses, six music halls; Vienna, for 1,264,000 inhabitants, has seven theatres, one circus, six music halls; Berlin, with 1,300,000 inhabitants, has thirteen theatres, one circus and five music halls.

An Englishman shooting small game in Germany said to the host that there was a spot of danger in shooting in America. All! said the host, "you like danger, mit your eyes. Then you go out shooting mit me. The last time I shot my brother-in-law in the ankle-joint."

Paul Kruger, a poor German peasant living at Pasain, near Berlin, sold his small farm in order to raise money enough to bring his family to America. The new proprietor, while digging a trench for a well a few days after the purchase, discovered a pot containing 5,145 thaler pieces, all bearing dates in the early part of the century.

A Chinaman time describes his experience at draw poker: "I draw three cards, get five aces, bet five dolls, nobody quit. Next time I draw two cards, get flu kings, bet ten dolls, nobody chase in. Next time I draw one cards, get six flushes, bet fifteen dolls, everybody chase in. Chinaman bankrupt."

Leo XIII has just given an audience at the Vatican to 1,000 children from 3 years of age and upward, of the elementary schools established and supported by him. The children, who sang hymns in chorus and recited pieces of poetry, were accompanied by their teachers and at the conclusion of the audience, His Holiness gave the Parochial Almoner 2,000 francs to be distributed among the poorer scholars.

The Empress of Austria is the principal godmother of the infant daughter of the King and Queen of Spain. The Pope's gift consists of relics of saints mounted with the Royal House of Spain, enclosed in a splendid gold case. Queen Isabella has given a cradle of silver filagree, lined with quilted rose-colored satin, with curtains of Barcelona lace over satin. The Empress of Austria's gift is a baby service of versailles Dresden china.

Hyde Park contains 380 acres, Kensington Gardens, 290; St. James' and the Green Park together, 164; Regent's Park, 463; Victoria Park, 290; Battersea Park, 320; Greenwich Park, 174; Crystal Palace, 1 4; Alexandra Park, 192; Clapham Common, 106; Epping Forest, over 5,000; Kennington Park, 12; Camberwell, 1—7,201 acres all told, a very respectable area of pleasure ground even for so large a city as London.

According to Dr. Tait, the English hypocrisy, idleness and ignorance are much more prolific causes of disease among women than over-work. The sin the main causes of hysteria, and of many other evils, including insanity and insomnia. The result lows from over-exertion does occasionally take place, and the first important symptom is sleeplessness; when that sets in there is cause for alarm.

A teacher in a suburban school was giving her class an object lesson a few days ago, and drew a cat upon the black-board for its inspection. She then asked what there was in the cat, and the unanimous reply was "Hair." "What else?" she queried. There was a long pause of consideration, but finally the hand of a bright-eyed little five-year old shot up, and almost simultaneously came the triumphant answer "Ears!"

Ornithological folkties are the latest novelties of the Parisian winter season—dresses smothered in feathers in different kinds to suit all complexions. There is the "canary" costume for pigeonly brunettes; the "humming bird" of ruby brocade covered with fluffy red feathers sown with jewels, the "blue swan" in pale of turquoise plumes, enjoyed by blondes; the "wood-pigeon" of soft gray, for those no longer in their first youth; and the "white dove," for bashful debutantes.

The anniversary of the foundation of the Colony of New Zealand was celebrated there on the 29th of January. On the 29th January, 1840, Capt. Hobson landed at Bay of Islands. Next day proclamations were read extending the limits of the Colony of New South Wales to include the Islands of New Zealand, and creating Captain Hobson Lieutenant Governor thereof. On the 16th November, 1840, letters patent were issued creating New Zealand a separate colony, so that its connection with New South Wales did not continue for twelve months.

The average weight of 20,000 men and women weighed at Boston in 1861 was men, 141½ pounds; women, 124½ pounds. Thinking a belief that these weights did not represent Western people, at the recent Cincinnati Industrial Exposition the department of scientific and educational appliances detailed a clerk to record the weights of men and women on scales in the exhibit of the Home Scale Company. The number weighed was 22,135, and the total weight was 3,472,366 pounds. The men weighed numbered 7,467, weighing 1,156,196 pounds. The women weighed numbered 14,668, weighing 1,921,168 pounds. The average weight of each man was 154.82. The average weight of each woman was 130.97. The average weight of 141 men from Ohio was 157.16; the average weight of 171 women was 132.36. The average weight of 124 men from Southern Indiana and Illinois was 154.42 pounds; the average weight of 139 women was 131.31. The average weight of 114 men from Kentucky was 156.82 pounds; the average weight of 188 women was 133.76.
