This entertainment was not gotten up for purposes of

SPECULATION,

neither was it gotten up to enhance the private gains of any individual or set of individuals. It was organized simply and solely in the interest of education, and in this interest alone will this concert be given. The Association has secured the services of Mr. Charles R. Peters, principal business manager of the late very successful Mercantile Library Gift Concert at San Francisco, in the management of this enterprise, and it can confidently assure the public that all of its affairs will be so conducted as to merit for it the same degree of confidence and trust which has been so justly accorded to that scheme all over this country. Gifts will be cashed at the office of the Association, in Louisville, on the second day after the drawing, or on any business day within six months thereafter. Tickets drawing gifts may be sent to the undersigned direct, or through any bank or express company, for collection. All orders accompanied by drafts, post office money orders, or currency, will receive due attention, and tickets be promptly returned therefor by express or mail, registered or otherwise, as desired.

Tickets are like greenbacks; purchasers' names not being recorded they are good only to the holder.

MANNER OF DRAWING.

There will be two glass and iron wheels. One will contain 100,000 numbers, plainly printed on leather tags. The other will contain 721 sealed boxes, each containing an amount, neatly and plainly printed on parchment, which will represent some one of the above gifts. A tag will then be drawn by a blind child from the wheel containing the 100,000 numbers, and simultaneously a box will be drawn by another blind child from the wheel containing the 721 sealed boxes. The box will then be opened before the audience, and the enclosed gift, whatever it may be, whether $100, $1,000 or $100,000, or any other amount, will be the gift belonging to that tag or number. By this method it will be seen that collusion is an utter impossibility, and that the chances of all must be exactly alike. This drawing will take place in public before the entire audience, and the association is determined that nothing shall be left undone to satisfy purchasers of tickets, whether absent or present, that their interests will be as carefully protected in every particular as though they should personally superintend the affair. The drawing will be extensively published, and parties requesting it will have official lists sent to them. The Library Association will in no way participate in any unsold tickets. Should there remain any tickets unsold on the day of the drawing, they will be cancelled and burned, and only those numbers which may have been sold will go into the large wheel. In the small wheel will be placed the 721 gifts, but diminished proportionately. That is to say, if 75,000 tickets only are sold, 75,000 numbers only will go into the large wheel, and into the small wheel 721 gifts diminished in value twenty-five per cent, and so of any other quantity, thus increasing the ticket holders' chances of drawing in the exact ratio to such diminution, should any be made. Should 85,000 tickets, however, be sold, and that number only, the Library will pay the gifts in full, with no diminution, the same as though the full number (100,000) had been sold.

R. T. DURRETT, President.
W. N. HALDEMANN, Vice President.
M. CLUSKEY, Secretary.
CITIZENS' BANK, Treasurer.

Parties desirous of forming clubs or of acting as agents for the sale of tickets address
