M. Carroll, b. g. Ben Starr.
R. Mace, wh. g. Medoc.
N. Roden, br. g. James H. Coleman.
A. Patterson, ch. g. Dreadnaught.
The following is the decision of the Court of Appeals:—"We hold, therefore, that the original race has not been finished; and we order that said race be resumed at said Fleetwood Park, at 3 o'clock P. M., on the first good day and track after the 15th day of May next ensuing, and that said race be trotted out between the horses which were entitled to start in said fourth heat, or between such of said horses as shall be present to start again; and when said race shall be resumed that the record of said association shall stand and apply as to said first three heats already trotted, and that the other heats assumed to belong to this class and put down in said record be excluded from consideration in deciding said race; and that said record be corrected by putting down said fourth heat and counting the same as a heat won by James H. Coleman, with Charlie Green second therein, and by placing the other horses therein in such subordinate positions as shall be determined by drawing and allotment to be made by the judges who shall be appointed by the Fleetwood Association to preside over the conclusion of the race.
We further hold:—That, for the determination of pools and bets which may be pending, said original race stands on the footing of a race postponed, which is provided for in betting rule No. 2. And if any of the parties to the original race have received any part of the original purse, they must restore the same at once to the Fleetwood Association."
WM. H. VAN COTT, Superintendent.
