COMMERCIAL.

HONOLULU, FEBRUARY 13, 1884.

[illegible]

PORT OF HONOLULU.

Arrived.

[illegible]

Sailed.

[illegible]

Vessels in Port.

[illegible]

EXPORTS.

[illegible]

PASSENGERS.

[illegible]

BORN.

[illegible]

DIED.

[illegible]

ISLAND LOCALS.

[illegible]

"To-morrow is St. Valentine's Day."

The Atlantic Association meets to-night (Thursday) evening at the city hall.

The Board of Engineers of the city fire department will meet at their rooms on the 7th inst.

Three outgoing jobs, some of them eight feet deep, still remain uncovered in Nuuanu street.

The schooner Jane Lathrop left for San Francisco on the 9th inst., with 1,000 sacks of rice.

There is a rumor current that the sidewalk of the Hawaiian House will be changed so as to suit the convenience of the proprietors.

The schooner Joseph Winter brought a cargo of sugar to Honolulu on the 9th inst., and has since been the guest of Captain Fleming's hospitality.

The Saxon makes a good point on the most popular subject after the decease of a prominent Honolulu[illegible] "Who'll get his billet?"

The W. J. Dennis arrived in San Francisco on the 11th ult., and the captain reports unseasonably very balmy weather during the winter season.

The Regent has returned to her "old berth" of Sunday water contractor, taking on the 11th inst. another passenger trip to the outside of Kalihi.

The Observer hopes that the actors per the Mariposa are non-paretics, and the probable death of their arrival in quarantine has of consequence.

Work is progressing on the new wharf to be built for Walker's Seacoaling Company, the pile driver being busy in putting the foundation in place.

A lecture at the Hall some very good reading for partially exhausted on the afternoon of the 20th inst. from the office of all members of Mission Institute.

Original Relief in "minors" have not been, we understand, the Honolulu correspondent, is very positive that there would be a small audience probably present.

Rev. Father Scouland returned to the city from Hawaii, on the 9th inst. and proceeded for Kawaiahao to the Roman Catholic Cathedral on the 10th inst.

The government cutter, a white hull, made run to over the Drive Browse. What does it think of the Drive Browse now? Rather a safe position to meet in the house.

The rain storm prevailing in the city on Monday, with accompanying high wind, prognosticated the sailing from port of several vessels which had intended to take departure.

Notwithstanding the damp weather on the Saturday afternoon, Rev. Berger waved his baton and his band played the entire programme of concert set forth for the occasion.

The secretary of the Hawaii Telephone Company, has issued a call to subscribers to meet at the company's office forward and deposit the third assessment, at the rate of $[illegible] per share.

Governor Dominis returned to city from Kona on the 9th inst., and resumed his official duties as Governor of Oahu. He Excellency is not in good health, however, necessitating again visiting the [illegible].

"Big Bob," a negro waterboy, shot and killed a Portuguese, at Honolulu, on the 9th inst. The murderer then attempted to end his own life by taking poison. The issue for the murder was not stated.

Statements are made in San Francisco newspapers, that the Occidental S. S. Co. and the Pacific Inc are each to have two new steamers, presumably to run in the China trade, with Honolulu as a port of call.

Col. Spreckels is making many propositions at present to land owners in the lands formerly in Fort, Queen, Kaahumanu, Queen, and Alakea streets, looking toward the improvement of property in that vicinity.

A new list of the subscribers to the Hawaiian Bell Telephone will soon be issued by the company and will contain a large number of names which have been added to subscribers since the issuance of the previous list.

The monthly meeting of the Kawaiahao Children's Society was held at the residence of Rev. Dr. Pinkham, on the 9th instant. The usual attendance of interesting events were thoroughly appreciated by the audience present.

Major A. S. Hardy, reported to be an enthusiastic engineer of excellent military ability, is expected to arrive on the 20th inst. Mr. C. Mangels, brother-in-law to Col. Spreckels, also arrived by the same vessel.

The ladies attended by Judge Robertson, on the afternoon last Wednesday, were present, not the writings containing the one note, having stolen straight Government letters addressed thereon. No wonder the independents get "left."

The same supply in petitions of the Kaupulehu valley was either misunderstanding and of no Feather, to those being assigned, nor any starting given to petitioners. The variety of a tissue bodice is not safe to such unknown for occasions.

By the immortal Kaiser, Honolulu people were given the opportunity to entertain Lieut. Kiss, J. P. Cleaver and family, Rev. Lorenzo and family, Mrs. F. Bertram and family, Messrs. J. H. Kiss, H. C. Cornelius, A. S. Ellis the ever popular Jane Berger.

Private letters from Collins state that H. R. R. Cornbrook was to leave that port for Honolulu on the last day of January. She may therefore be expected here early in March. H. M. S. Pinafore was to sail in February from Lagunmoch, for this port.

The Board of Management of the Royal Hawaiian Agricultural Society have decided to have the usual annual show at Kapiolani Park. Every encouragement will be made to make the event a success. The Gazette publishes the official programme.

Quite a number of young men gathered together on last Sunday afternoon in the meeting room of the I. B. C. S. hall and took part in the usual Sunday exercises. The interest of present meetings is in the "new departure," prospects continue bright.

Captain [illegible] of the dynamite [illegible] went to the vicinity of projecting [illegible] of the river [illegible] from Kawai and Maui, and therefore on the same to the Government Engineer of this city. The Gazette acknowledges the same and returns thanks.

The Sewage proposition meeting held in the Antlers valley room on the evening of the 9th inst. was well attended and for continued more of a very interesting character. Mr. J. E. Atherton, Past Worthy Chief Templar of Alpheus Lodge I. O. G. T., officiated as Moderator.

The merry wind blows on the early morning of the 13th inst., prognosticating the elaborate [illegible] concerning Diamond Head station will take place, the prevailing northeast weather permitted. Spectators being made full use in the afternoon of the date when perfect accommodation was required.

Major A. S. Hardy, reported to be an enthusiastic engineer of excellent military ability, arrived in this city on the 9