SALES AT AUCTION.

A.—
IMPORTANT
ART NOTICE.
MR. BEAUMONT'S
Collection of Paintings
now on free exhibition day and evening, at the Leavitt Art Rooms, 817 Broadway.
This (Tuesday) is the last day and evening on which these paintings can be seen intact.
[From the Commercial Advertiser.]
Of the 181 pictures which form the collection there is scarcely an example which does not exemplify some high motive in its composition, and what is more to the point, there is not a picture which would not form a welcome addition to any private collection in the city.
[From the Tribune].
The collection is a good one, consisting of well-selected pictures, and of suitable size for cabinets and boudoirs.
[From the Express.]
Mr. J. P. Beaumont, the veteran and well known art collector, astonishes the connoisseurs of this city with an exhibition of pictures, before which all others of former renown assume a place of secondary importance.
[From the Home Journal.]
Besides the names on the list, which are scarcely represented in this country, the old favorites are present with such superior specimens as to be almost a new revelation.
TIME OF SALE.
The sale of these paintings will take place at the Clinton Hall Salesrooms, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, March 19 and 20, without any reserve or limitation.
The Messrs. LEAVITT, Auctioneers.

THE MOZIER STATUARY.
EXECUTOR'S SALE OF FINE MARBLE STATUES, belonging to the estate of the late Joseph Mozier. The works of Mr. Mozier are too familiarly known by all Americans who have visited Rome to need any comment.
The subjects now on sale are:—"Rebecca," "Rizpah," "The Peri," "Undine," "L'Allegro," all of the large size; and, of the smaller size, there are six Statues—viz.:—"The White Lady of Avenel," "Il Penseroso," "Silence," "Undine," "Jephthah's Daughter," "Wept of the Wish-Ton-Wish," colored.
Now on free exhibition at the Clinton Hall Salesrooms, and to be sold by auction on Saturday evening, March 22.
The Messrs. LEAVITT, Auctioneers.
