Twenty-Fourth Day, May 27th, 1884.

Assembly convened at 1 p.m. pursuant to adjournment from the 26th inst. President Rhodes in the chair. After prayer by the chaplain and reading of the minutes of the previous meeting by the secretary had been concluded, the following petitions were presented and referred:

Representative Kamakele from residents of the district of Makawao, Maui, that Crown Lands be leased to Hawaiian subjects only. To Judiciary Committee.

Representative Pilipo presented several petitions from residents of the district of North Kona, Hawaii, as follows: 1. That the Assembly examine the contracts made with parties relative to the Hawaiian cottages. To Finance Committee. 2. That all claims made against the Government be carefully examined before being paid. To Judiciary Committee. 3. That $5,000 be appropriated for the improvement of roads in the district, and 4, that the road taxes be expended in districts where collected. To Committee on Public Lands.

Representative Paloahu, from residents of Hanalei, Kauai, that no lepers be arrested until after the ending of the present Legislative Session. To Sanitary Committee.

Representative Kaniamanu, from the district of Hamakua, that $75,000 be inserted in the Appropriation Bill for the purpose of supplying water to the district. To Committee on Public Lands.

Representative Pilipo, from residents of North Kona that the salaries paid to all officials be reduced; also that no more Crown Lands be sold or given away and that any Government Lands sold be so only to Hawaiian subjects. All laid on table for consideration with bills to be produced.

Representative Nahinu, from S. Kona that, also that all native doctors be permitted to practice without requiring license. To Sanitary Committee.

The only report from a Standing Committee was that made by the Committee on Printing, the chairman presenting the bill relating to the establishment of a horse railroad in Honolulu, in printed form. Received and destroyed.

Representative Pomaikai Brown presented a resolution that the Minister of the Interior be requested to furnish the report of his department for the past biennial period. After a short debate the motion was defeated.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs in answer to a resolution passed by the Assembly, requesting the production of papers bearing on the late coinage, presented a list of expenses connected therewith.

Representative Dole was of the opinion that there was an incompleteness in the list furnished, he would like to know the amount paid to Mr. Claus Spreckels for the time and attention given by him to the production of the new coinage.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs stated that Mr. Spreckels had not received any money from the Government yet; he had not presented any bill, but (the speaker) understood that Mr. Spreckels had an account against the Government in the matter, for interest, seigneurage, freight and insurance. He hoped to be able to present the account to the Assembly at an early date.

Representative Kaulukou, gave notice and by permission read for the first time a bill, granting permission to Henry J. Nolte to sell light beers at the "Casino," near Kapiolani Park. After a short discussion the bill was referred to the special Committee on Liquor Bills.

Hon. J. H. S. Martin gave notice of intention to introduce a bill to amend Chapter XIV of the Session Laws of 1878 relating to preventing married people from leaving one another.

Representative Cecil Brown, read, by permission, for the first time, a bill to amend Chapter XXXII, Session Laws 1882, regulating the carrying of passengers and freight and the letting for hire, of carriages. The bill provides that licenses to drivers terminate on leaving place of employment. Ordered to second reading.

Hon. J. S. Walker addressed the President and stated that he rose to a question of privilege. He referred to the statements made by him on the previous day, relative to his not having been engaged in other business since his appointment as Auditor-General, and then quoted from a printed paper a remark made by Representative Godfrey Brown that, the Finance Committee was in possession of documents that would prove that the Auditor General had been engaged in other business. He (the speaker) did not desire to introduce a resolution for the production of the documents spoken of as he judged they would be produced on the simple request of the President, a request he desired to be made at the matter should be investigated.

Representative Godfrey Brown said that the statement made by him, and referred to by the Auditor-General, could be substantiated by documents in the possession of the Committee on Finance.

President Rhodes said that the committee might bring in the papers at their convenience; if it was desired to produce the documents at that moment it would be in order.

The Attorney-General said the controversy was well worthy of being settled immediately. The chairman of the Finance Committee said one thing, the Auditor-General made a statement diametrically opposite to it. If the committee was in possession of documents that would make the showing alleged, the papers should be produced then and there, not "by-and-by." If the statements made by Representative Brown were substantiated, then the Auditor-General should be disqualified. He made a motion that the Finance Committee be requested to produce the papers at once. Motion carried.

The members of the Finance Committee present, Representatives G. Brown, W. O. Smith and F. Brown retired to obtain the desired documents.

Representative Pilipo introduced a resolution that the Minister of Finance be requested to state whether the collection of certain taxes by police officers was made on authority conferred by the Tax Assessor. Laid on the table.

The Finance Committee having returned, Representative Godfrey Brown, the chairman, stated that he was provided with documents which, he thought, would prove his statements relative to the employment in other business of the Auditor General, and he read a number of bills of the estate of James G. Hayselden, deceased, a furnace Government contractor, the bills showing that they had been audited by the Auditor General and then paid to him as executor of the estate. Representative Brown thought that the evidence was ample.

The Attorney General was of a different opinion. The Auditor-General stated that the position of executor had been fulfilled by him at the request of the deceased, who was a very dear friend. Before accepting he had received legal advice that there could not be any conflict with his position as Auditor-General. He had not received one dollar for his services in the matter. He had had nothing to do with making the contracts, that having been the private business of Mr. Hayselden. He had collected moneys for the widow and children of the deceased, but without thought of remuneration for his services.

Representative Smith thought that there was an attempt at subterfuge, there was an evident desire to touch a chord of sympathy; the deceased had two brothers who were residents of the city and either of whom was competent to fill the position of executor as well as the Auditor General. The Auditor-General was acting as agent during the life-time of the deceased, and had, in the capacity of auditor, audited over $20,000 paid to the government to Mr. Hayselden. The speaker also charged the Auditor-General with having transacted business for a certain livery stable and had been engaged in a shipment of goods to San Francisco.

The Attorney General moved that the explanation offered by the Auditor General be deemed satisfactory by the Assembly. In support of his motion he argued that in the eyes of the law the mere filling of the position of executor to an estate, could not be construed as inimical to the position of Auditor General. The statements made by Representative Godfrey Brown were, if proven, sufficient to have caused the impeachment of Hon. Mr. Walker. If the charges were capable of being proved a different course of action should have been taken and the offender officer should have been arraigned before the House of Nobles. He considered that the course taken by the Committee in giving publicity to the case was unfair to the Assembly and unjust to the Auditor General.

Representative Cecil Brown stated, he was opposed to the motion as he knew of his own knowledge that the Auditor General had transacted business outside of his official duties. In fact the Hon Nole had had business dealings with him. He considered that the spirit of the law had been violated, although he did not know that the Auditor General had received any compensation for outside business transactions.

Representative S. H. Dole stated that, the Committee on Finance had acted in a proper manner in the matter; an open chance was given by the Chairman, to the Auditor General, to explain certain matters which the committee themselves were unable to explain. He did not consider that the Auditor General should be allowed to audit accounts when he (the A. G.) had an interest in them. There had been considerable complaint about the audit not being accomplished what was hoped for. The state of things was not to be considered at when the curtain was lifted and a look obtained behind the scenes. He considered believed that in the case mentioned the positions of Auditor General and executor were hostile to each other.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs spoke in favor of the motion of the Attorney General saying that he considered the statement made by the Auditor General was honest, straightforward and entirely worthy of confidence. To close further debate, he moved the previous question.

The Attorney General being the maker of the motion closed with further arguments in support of the same.

The question was then put and the explanation offered by the Auditor General was approved, by a vote of 27 to 16.

The Assembly adjourned at 4:45 until 1 p.m. on the 28th.
