COMMERCIAL.

HONOLULU, JUNE 18, 1884.

Business, what little there has been, during the past holiday week has not succeeded in creating a buoyant feeling amongst merchants or dealers in general trade, the only upward tendency of exchange continued with rather losses, causing a tolerably fair trade circles which is not generally to business men. The arrival of a large number of Portuguese Immigrants per steamer City of Paris has added to planters a resource of no end from the business view are, at present, bearing the bulk of wages, being lower rates than of whatever price, quite important.

The arrivals since last writing consist of the City of Paris from London and the Azores with merchandise and immigrants; the Mary Turner from Boston with a well assorted miscellaneous cargo; the Australia from San Francisco and the schooner Kalulu from Tahiti.

The departures comprise the Discovery, Kila and Mariposa for San Francisco, the Australia for the Colonies, the Ula Wai Ho for Port Townsend and the Abbie Carter for Hongkong.

The steamer Australia is due from San Francisco on the 27 inst., with news dates to the 17th inst.
