COMMERCIAL.

HONOLULU, JUNE 21, 1884.

Business does not writing has revived to the same extent as prevailed some weeks ago, when there was for a better movement to look into cotton in other fibrous. The action of the committee relative to the budget of accounts and proceedings in Congress, which has been published in full in the Hawaiian Gazette, concerning their interest, and trade in no solution of power financial trouble to hope for the future. Consequently, trade has remained quiet and stagnant for some past. The result of this prevailing dullness in both mercantile and commercial circles will be more publicly exhibited at the commencement of the upward financial. In real estate there has been no change to speculate though would be purchasers are not as numerous as the influx of strangers, possessed of money, would warrant.

The arrivals for the week consist of the brig Kalakaua, Miller, from Sydney, the schooner Rosario, from San Francisco with assorted cargoes, the Bark Willard Walker, from Newcastle, N. S. W., with fire from the Island, the Barque with a cargo of rice, and the schooner Allanwold, from the Sandwich Islands. Vessels from Table.

The departures consist of the Barque Emerald and C. G. Whitmore, with Sandwich Island cargoes, Amelia for Eureka, and bark Opua with Hawaiian products, also, H. B. R. S. Swallow and Wailer for Kaupulehu, B.C.

The next departure from San Francisco for Honolulu, the barque Ema, on Monday next, the 23d inst., and the schooner Marjorie will be due from there on July 7th.
