The Hawaiian Legislature
Session 1884.

Sixty-Second Day. July 22d. 1884.

The Assembly met at the usual hour, and after prayer by the Chaplain, the minutes of the preceding day were read by the Secretary and approved.

Representative Abolo from the Select Committee to whom was referred the bill to amend Section 33 of Chapter XLIV of Session Laws of 1882, relating to the sale of liquors, submitted a new bill which was read and then tabled.

Representative Abolo also presented the report of the Select Committee to whom was referred the bill granting a license to Henry J. Nolte to sell light beers in Kapiolani Park, recommending the indefinite postponement of the bill. Report adopted.

Also the report of the Select Committee on a bill to amend Chapter Session Laws of 1882, respecting the sale of intoxicating liquors, and submitted a new bill. On motion the bill was read a second time by title, ordered to print and made the order of the day in Committee of the Whole Tuesday next.

The Minister of Interior read his answer to a resolution asking for information regarding the sale of Government land at the corner of Queen and Fort streets, showing that the parcel of land was sold to Messrs. Hackfeld & Co. during the administration of Hon. S. G. Wilder as Minister of Interior.

Hon. S. G. Wilder gave explanation of the transaction, stating that his motive was to prevent a wrong to the firm in question.

Representative Dole did not endorse Mr. Wilder's action, which he said was contrary to law. He felt sure the land would have brought more at auction than it did at private sale.

The Minister of Interior also presented an answer to a resolution of Representative Smith (asking for statement of leases of public lands since April 1st, 1882, to date) and submitting a statement. On motion the report was received and ordered to print.

Representative Hitchcock presented the report of the Select Committee on public buildings, recommending the following appropriations:

Court House on Hawaii	$ 6,300
Court House on Maui	300
Court House on Lanai	100
Court House on Kauai	100
	$ 7,000

Representative Kalua, under suspension of the rules, read a petition from the Secretary of the Board of Genealogy, asking that his salary, due for the the three months from January 1st to March 31st, 1884, and refused payment by the Minister of the Interior, be paid by appropriation of the House.

The petition was tabled until the report of the Board of Genealogy is received.

Representative Kalua presented a resolution that the Attorney-General be requested to state to the Assembly if the lease of certain water rights to Claus Spreckels for thirty years at $500 per annum, is a good and binding lease according to law, or not. Approved.

Representative Hitchcock presented a petition from residents of Hamakua, Hawaii, asking the passage of a bill to appoint District Boards of Road Commissioners of five members each, to have full powers over the roads and bridges in their respective districts throughout the Islands. Referred to Committee on Commerce.

Representative Abolo presented the petition of Niagara, public dispenser of medicines at Lahaina, asking for an increase of salary. Laid on the table.

Hon. P. Isenberg, by special leave, gave notice of an act to repeal the act relating to the Auditor General.

At noon the Assembly adjourned until 2 o'clock p.m.

AFTERNOON.

At 2 p.m. the Assembly reconvened.

On motion the bill to amend Sections 1419 and 1420 of the Civil Code, relating to persons serving under contract, was taken from the table and placed on the order of the day for Thursday.

Representative Amara offered a resolution that the bills to amend Sections 1477, relating to tenants of lands, and 386 relating to fisheries, of the Civil Code, be placed on the order of the day. Carried.

The order of the day being moved, the following bills came up for consideration: The bill to allow defendants two peremptory challenges in jury trials in both criminal and civil cases, was read a third time and passed.

Bill to amend Section 1 of Chapter XXIII of Session Laws of 1872, relating to marriage contracts.

A motion to indefinitely postpone was lost and a motion to re-commit to a select committee was carried. Representatives Kaunamano, Nakaleka, Kaulukou and Palohau were appointed to serve.

The Assembly then resolved into Committee of the Whole, J. S. Walker in the chair, and proceeded to consider the bill to provide for the payment of salaries and other expenses of the Government. The bill authorizes the Minister of the Interior to pay all salaries, etc., due from the commencement of the present biennial period until such time as the new Appropriation Bill shall go into effect.

After some little discussion the Committee finally agreed on recommending that the bill be referred to the Finance Committee.

The Committee then rose and action was reported back by the chairman to the Assembly, being duly approved.

Third reading of a bill to authorize the disposing of Government lands in small holdings.

Representative Hitchcock moved to consider Representative Dole's bill relating to homesteads at the same time, and also that that bill be the foundation because it contained forms for the blanks required to be used. Carried.

A discussion ensued on the provisions of the bill, during which it was discovered that there was no quorum present, the Assembly adjourned at 3:55 p.m. until 10 a.m. on Wednesday.

Cholera.

M. Pasteur, the eminent scientist, says: "There is surely a microbe of cholera. Cholera comes from India, where it is epidemic. We know that cholera is both infectious and epidemic." M. Pasteur added that the best preventive is good hygiene, and above all, the avoidance of water from wells in infected towns. The statement telegraphed that breathing excess of oxygen is found to be a cure for cholera may have some basis of truth in it. The increased circulation and the augmenting of animal heat as a result may have the effect ascribed. But what concerns the people of the French towns most at this time is a preventive, and that unquestionably is a correct state of the system. Cholera fastens soonest upon the human being whose stomachic condition invites it most. Mere medicines, it is not reasonable to believe, will prevent; all they can do is to aid a correction of the system where artificial aids are needed. But disinfectants and cleanliness are aids to a proper atmospheric condition for the resistance of the plague. M. Vulpian, distinguished medical authority, is reported by a Paris paper as saying that corrosive sublimate is the best disinfectant in drains and closets for apartments. He recommended phenic and he advised everybody suffering from diarrhoea to take immediately ten drops of laudanum in a glass of water. When the cholera has once declared it self, it should be treated with opium. Since absorption is difficult and sometimes impossible to cholera patients, alkaloids should be employed, of which morphine is the most powerful. Vulpain continued by repeating that morphine will be the great remedy should unfortunately an epidemic break forth.

Since the foregoing was written, it has been ascertained that Surgeon-General Hamilton's advice to the State Department to adopt regulations to prevent the introduction of the disease into the United States from France, will be followed, if it is found that the cholera in France extends beyond the control of the French health officers. The Surgeon-General says that cholera is, of all diseases, perhaps the most difficult to quarantine against, and localities threatened by it should adopt every precaution in the way of perfect cleanliness and attention to hygienic conditions. This advice comes to us of the Pacific coast with especial force since the reception of the news of the breaking out of the cholera in the neighborhood of Pekin and at Tokio.

A story, which is worth the attention of the Library Committee of Congress, comes from Washington. It is apropos of Brumidi's historical allegory of the "Goddess of Liberty Dispersing Tyrants," which is in the top of the Capitol dome. The story goes that Brumidi was indiscriminate in his association with the opposite sex, to several of whom he promised in return for favors received that he would preserve their faces where they could be seen by the nation. He kept his word, and all the faces of females in the allegory are portraits of his "mashes," the Goddess of Liberty being an exact likeness of his favorite board. Another point about the picture is that the tyrants who are fleeing from the wrath of Brumidi's favorite are Jeff Davis, Robert E. Lee, Alexander H. Stephens, "Stonewall" Jackson, Judah P. Benjamin and Bob Toombs. As the narrator of the story said: "Take away the frightened expression from their faces, and they would make good family portraits. Just think of such a collection in the top of the Capitol dome. Brumidi and he was going to do it, and he did. It is a fine scene for the Southern chivalry to look at. Their old warhorses being driven and lashed by such a woman as—Well, good day."
