When the Baby Came.

BY JOSEPHINE POLLARD.

Always in the house there was trouble and contention,
Little sparks of feeling flashing into flame;
Slight of irritation,
So easy to make occasion
For strife and tribulation—till the baby came.

All the evil sounds full of cruel hate and malice,
All the angry transit—nobody to blame!
All were hushed as secrets,
Disappearing fleetly,
Or quieted completely, when the baby came.

Faces that had worn a gloomy wall of sadness,
Hearts intent on seeking for fortune or for fame,
Once again were lightened,
Once again were brightened,
And their rapture heightened when the baby came.

All affection's windows opened to receive it
Pure and fresh from heaven, and give it earthly name;
Clasping and caressing
In arms of love, confessing
That life had missed a blessing till the baby came.

Homes that were in shadow felt the gentle sunshine,
Nestling as if anxious their secret to proclaim;
Grateful songs were swelling,
Of mirth and gladness telling,
And Love ruled all the dwelling when the baby came.

Hearts that had been sundered by a tide of passion
Were again united to purpose and to aim;
In the haunt secluded
Peace diffusely brooded,
Where discord had intruded till the baby came.

Little chore-dispeller! little comfort-bringer!
Baby-girl, or baby-boy, welcome all the same!
Keep o'er the embers
Of black and cold Decembers
Some fond heart remembers when the baby came.

Miscellaneous.

Niagara Falls.—Well; you wouldn't expect it to run up hill, would you?

There are three chandeliers in the White House that cost $5,000 apiece.

St. Louis has one Mexican Consul, two Mexican Exchanges, three Mexican papers and no Mexican trade.

The London Lancet says that artificial mineral waters are better than the natural water.

Never forget that fowls eat a great deal of grass in the course of a year if they can get it. They must have something green.

Street lamps in Berlin are extinguished at midnight, and the police carry lanterns.

A Mormon elder has taken an annual bridal trip for the past five years, each time with a separate bride.

Just sixteen years ago the interest on the national debt was $143,000,000 a year. It is now $56,000,000.

The Methodist Episcopal Church has 97 conferences, and includes 25,000 clergy and 1,820,000 members.

"Lo! I am with you," is the text from which missionaries to the Indians are discoursing this winter.

In France wood costs about as much as corn in Kansas. It sells at the rate of one-third of a cent a pound.

Sandwiches are a great staple in London. Forty thousand men are said to be daily engaged vending them.

Thirteen States have labor bureaus. Massachusetts set the example in 1869, Pennsylvania followed in '72, and Ohio in '77. Illinois and Missouri came in two years later.

Cryolite, a mineral which is of great value in the potash manufacture, has been discovered in the Yellowstone Park. Heretofore it has been obtained only in Greenland.

Pittsburg policemen must keep continually on the move, sitting and lounging being on duty being prohibited under a reprimand and five day suspension for the first offence, and dismissal or the second.

Strychnine and nicotine must be among the very slow poisons, since an old fellow in North Carolina, 114 years old, has been a slave to whiskey and tobacco for the last ninety-four years.

The wealthiest man in the world is the Chinese banker Han-Qua of Canton. He pays taxes upon an estate of $150,000,000, and is estimated to be worth a billion taels, which, in our money, would be about fourteen hundred million dollars.

The London Times says that there are in England over 300,000 cyclists, and that the capital invested in the manufacture of bicycles and tricycles is about $15,000,000, employing from 6,000 to 10,000 men.

"I wonder if the time will ever come when water will stop running down hill!" exclaimed an old gentleman. "Yes, uncle," responded a little girl, "the water'll always stop when it gets to the bottom of the hill."

There is a great dearth of Protestant theologians in Germany. Very few young men choose the church as a profession, and, according to a recent account, several country parishes are vacant, literally for want of a pastor.

In the East and West Riding of Yorkshire over 4,500 females are employed in colliery labor; and more than 3,700 boys from ten to thirteen years of age work underground, while the boys whose ages are between thirteen and sixteen number 37,353.

A man was received into the Dalbriniere Hospital, Paris, lately with a yard of rope hanging from his mouth. Traction upon the cord revealed a section of clothes line measuring eight feet. He had been surprised in an attempt at suicide and had tried to conceal his design by swallowing the cord.

An uncouth looking young man from the Sandwich Islands, the son of a missionary, was once requested to address a mission Sunday School in New York. He began by asking, "Where do you suppose I am from, children?" "From the country, sir," blurted out a rough boy in the corner.

"Hot mince pies!" cried a boy on the streets of Boston one cold winter morning. A toaster just in from the country, hearing the appetizing sound, bought a pie, but on setting his teeth into it he found it cold as ice. "Boy, what do you mean by calling these hot mince pies?" "Why, don't you know? That's the name on 'em."

A varnish compound of 120 parts of mercury, 10 parts tin, 20 parts green vitriol, 120 parts water and 15 parts hydrochloric acid of 1.2 specific gravity, furnishes a good coating for iron exposed to the wet.

The substitution of hemp rope for belting is becoming common in England. Large grooved pulleys and rope two to two and a quarter inches in diameter are used. There is said to be a vast difference in cost in favor of rope.

The following is said to be a good lubricant for heavy bearing: Dissolve the best of white lead in good machine oil, make it pretty thick, take all the clotty substance away, then add the remainder, and you will find a good lubricant.

A German paper says that a roof can be made fire-proof by covering it with a mixture of lime, salt and wood ashes, adding a little lamp black to give a dark color. This not only guards against fire, it is claimed, but also in a measure prevents decay.

Mrs. Farragut, the widow of Admiral Farragut, receives in pension money $5000 a year. There are 29 cases where the widows of Generals receive $50 a month, and 20 widows of naval officers are so rewarded also. Some of the widows receive as high as $100 a month, while others are given $30 only. The rate allowed by the general law is $30, and the 100 cases where pensioners are paid more are covered by special legislation.

"Wordsworth," said Charles Lamb, "one day told me he considered Shakespeare greatly over-rated. 'There is an immensity of trick in all Shakespeare wrote,' he said, 'and the people are taken by it. Now, if I had a mind, I could write exactly like Shakespeare.' "Do you see," proceeded Charles Lamb, quietly "it was only the mind that was wanting."

It has been decided by trustees of the British Museum to make an important accession to the treasures of the coin department of that establishment by the purchase of about 2,500 Chinese coins selected from the Tamba collection. The coins represent the mintage of various ages, going back as far as the fourth or fifth century of the Christian era.

Illinois, it is said, still leads all other States in miles of railway, having 12,882 miles. Ohio is second, with 9,000 miles; New York third, with 7,230 miles; Pennsylvania fourth, Indiana fifth, Missouri sixth, Wisconsin seventh, Texas eighth, Minnesota ninth.

"My dear fellow," said a critic, after examining a painting by his artist friend," do you not see that you have pinned that angel's robes together with a gold brooch! Was ever saw an angel with a brooch?" Artist, after a moment's reflection: "True; but who ever saw an angel without a brooch?" Critic silenced, but feeling that he had not stated his case properly.

Three gentlemen stopping at a tavern bore the names of More, Strange and Wright. Said the last: "There is but one rascal in this company, and that is Strange." "Yes," answered Strange, "there is one More." "Ay," said More, "that's Wright."

At Bombay there will soon be built, through the munificence of Cassoom Suleiman, a wealthy citizen of that place, a dispensary where medical relief will be dispensed to women by doctors of their own sex. The Government has promised to give a site for the building, and the Bombay Town Council has recommended the corporation to contribute 6,000 rupees annually for three years to meet current expenses.
