An Old Proverb

Frowning, my darling, because it rains,
And flowers drooping and the earth in failing,
And moans are sounding, the whole year through,
And a mourning wind through the lone pine sighing!
Crying and wishing the sky was clear—
And yet, my darling, in the midst of your sorrow,
All will remember, my foolish dear,
"The way to laugh when the rain is falling!"

When the world is bright and the sky is gay,
And glad birds sing in the fair June weather,
And, always in gathering, night and day,
The golden charges of sunshine together,
Why, then, we answer the sky above,
And laughing view follow the day's delicious,
Why then, 'tis meet to smile, my love,
"The way to laugh when the sun is shining!"

But this is the time the heart to test,
When winter is near and clouds are lowering,
And the earth from under her frozen vest
Looks up at the sky with a sad and mourning!
Then, if we have learned the lesson of life,
The season's gloom and the days repining,
And this is the time to be glad, for, even,
"The way to laugh when the sun is shining!"

—Wide Awake.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

For Stmr. Alameda. Dates to April 15.

EUROPEAN.

PARIS, April 14.—The French Cabinet, at its session to-day, discussed the Afghan trouble between Russia and England. Dispatches from the French Ministers at St. Petersburg, London and Berlin stated the situation was improved.

VIENNA, April 14.—The Russian Grand Duke Vladimir has been ordered to Archangel to review the troops and fleet congregated in that port.

LONDON, April 14.—Lord Dufferin has informed the Government that the Ameer consents to the passage of the British troops through Afghanistan.

CRACOW, April 14.—A large draft of reserves have been ordered to join the Halic fleet at Dwenport, to-morrow.

TEHERAN, April 14.—The Teheran Gazette says that the Shah has consented to the marching of Russian Troops across the Persian territory to reinforce the Army now operating on the Afghan frontier.

LONDON, April 14.—The Cabinet was in session to-day one hour and twenty minutes. Immediately after its adjournment Earl Granville had a prolonged interview with Mussurus Pasha Turkish Ambassador, and Fehmi Pasha, special envoy from Turkey. Fehmi Pasha said the Porte was unwilling to enter into active alliance with either England or Russia. It is reported that Earl Granville protested against the adoption of a neutral policy, implying the closing of the Bosphorus to England's men-of-war.

LONDON, April 14.—Lloyd's Insurance premiums on bottoms for the Black Sea, Sea of Azof and Baltic Sea have been doubled.

The harbor of Bombay has been lined with torpedoes so as to prevent the Russian fleet from entering it, pending the event of war, and 4,000,000 cartridges have been landed at Bombay.

DUBLIN, April 14.—The Prince and Princess of Wales on their way to Cork to-day received an enthusiastic reception. At Limerick, in the Counties of Cork and Waterford, 300 laborers presented an address of welcoming. At Dungarvan, when the train bearing the royal party passed, all the vessels in the bay lowered their flags. At Kilmalhenna, when the royal party went by, a black flag was hoisted over Temperance hill, but the loyalists made good demonstrations. The Prince and Princess then went to Carraglinone. In Cork most of the streets were spanned by triumphal arches and a majority of the houses were adorned with flags in honor of the advent of the royal visitors.

LONDON, April 14.—Consul-General Merritt, at London, and Consul Packard at Liverpool, will reappoint the sanitary inspectors chosen during the cholera alarm last summer to examine all vessels sailing from London and Liverpool to the United States.

LONDON, April 14.—The correspondence between the House Governments and the Governments of the British colonies on the subject of an imperial federation has come to a satisfactory conclusion. Earl Derby, Secretary of State for the colonies, will soon introduce a federation bill in Parliament.

BERLIN, April 13.—Emperor William, today gave an audience to Prince Dolgorouki, the personal and military representative of the Czar.

Sir George Sartorie, a British Admiral, is dead.

PARIS, April 13.—The reply of the Egyptian Government to France's demand for an explanation of the forcible suppression of the French newspaper Bonphore Egyptien at Cairo last Wednesday, is pronounced unsatisfactory. Le Paris asserts that the French Government has sent another note to Egypt demanding reparation for the act of suppression, and the punishment of every one of the Egyptian officials connected with it.

DUBLIN, April 13.—A scene of great excitement attended the departure of the Prince and Princess of Wales to-day for the South of Ireland. On their route to King's Bridge Railway station, their Royal Highnesses passed Dublin City Hall, where an immense crowd had assembled about the building to witness the departure of the royal visitors. Lord Mayor John O'Connor happened to drive past the City Hall a few minutes before the royal carriage appeared, when the crowd recognized him and hissed him savagely. Mr. O'Connor at this flew into a violent passion. His display of ire only made his reception more demonstrative in their derisive greetings. The Lord Mayor, unable to withstand the storm any longer, stopped his carriage, and, mounting the City Hall steps, called for cheers for Parnell. The response was not great and did not indicate that O'Connor had any great number of sympathizers in the assemblage. He then addressed the gathering and told them that they would be sorry for having hissed him. He said he would telegraph Parnell at Cork an account of what had occurred in Dublin, and they would see what the result would be. Soon after this the Prince and Princess of Wales were driven past the City Hall. On their way to the railway station they were greeted with tumultuous and prolonged cheering.

NEW YORK, April 12.—A cable special from London to the Sun says: An enormous emigration from Italy to America is expected this season. As the result of last year's cholera epidemic, Italy is suffering from almost unprecedented commercial depression, and all branches of industry show lassitude, which amounts in some trades to stagnation. In the rural districts the depression has caused an almost total failure of the production of wine and oil, and other crops have suffered a severe check. The strike among the rural laborers of Mantria is growing into larger proportions daily, and the authorities restrain the strikers from acts of violence and bloodshed with difficulty. Thus far 170 strikers have been imprisoned.

NEW YORK, April 12.—A cable special from London says: The Spanish Government is at last forced to admit that it is threatened by another national calamity of the gravest kind. It has tardily admitted that the mysterious disease which made its appearance some weeks ago at San Felipe de Jativa, in Valencia, is Asiatic cholera. This has been maintained from the first by the press and public, but has been persistently denied by the physicians. The Government officials chose to credit the doctors rather than the laity and hitherto have been deaf to all appeals for aid or for the enforcement of sanitary precautions. Now the doctors themselves are appalled at the spread and virulence of the disease and they are loudest in the cry for help. No further concealment of the facts is attempted, and in fact secrecy now would be impossible. The cholera has spread from San Felipe de Jativa to Alcocer, Villanueva de Alcoer and Murcel, in the province of Valencia, which is on the eastern seaboard of Spain. Thence it is being carried by shipping to Port Genovese, in Almeria, at the southeastern corner of the peninsula, to Malaga, on the southern coast, and even to Mahon, on the island of Minorca, and to other ports in the Balearic islands. The whole seaboard is seriously threatened. The municipal and provincial authorities are at last aroused to active measures of prevention and relief. Lazarettos are being provided, rations and supplies of medicine are being distributed to the destitute and volunteer relief committees are furnishing delicacies and nurses to the sick.

Little Tom: "You are going with us to our picnic, ain't you?" Young Squippe: "Yes my dear child. Your sister honored me with an invitation, and I would not miss such an opportunity for the world. By the way, Tom, here is a new silver dollar for you. Now, I want you to tell me something I want to know. Mr. Gawfellow isn't going, is he?" Tom: "Oh, yes." Squippe: "Hang him! I thought I would have your sister all to myself to-day." Tom: "But you shouldn't want to hang Mr Gayfellow. He was the one who told sister to invite you." Squippe: "He! Why, what did he want me for?" Tom: "To carry the baskets."
