Audience at Iolani Palace.

At 12 o'clock noon, July 3d, His Majesty received in audience, at Iolani Palace, Kaleiokaoha-Ituwana, H. I. J. M's Special Commissioner, accompanied by Viscount Tadahiri Toru, H. I. J. M's Commissioner was presented to His Majesty by His Excellency the Minister of Foreign Affairs, and made the following address:

May it please Your Majesty. In view of the important questions that have recently pointed between our respective countries, His Majesty the Emperor of Japan has been graciously pleased to appoint me His Special Commissioner, for the purpose of negotiating certain questions with Your Majesty's Government, and of investigating and reporting upon matters in connection with the subject of Japanese immigration into Hawaii. I am bidden to convey to Your Majesty the assurances of the earnest wishes of His Imperial Majesty and His Government for the well-being and prosperity of Your Majesty's Government and people, and for the continuance and strengthening of the friendly relations now happily existing between the two nations.

His Majesty replied as follows:—

Mr. Commissioner.—The important relations now being developed between Japan and Hawaii embrace the pleasure with which I receive you as the Special Commissioner for my respected friend the Emperor of Japan, and hear from you the message of gracious good wishes which His Imperial Majesty bade you to convey. My Government will gladly confer with you upon all questions that concern the welfare of the Japanese people who reside in these Islands, and I am assured you that you will find it to be their earnest wish, as it is my own, that the most satisfactory arrangements should be made for their transportation, and to ensure their comfort and prosperity as residents of my kingdom, and there all that the wisdom of his Imperial Majesty's Government in this regard should be carried out to the fullest extent possible. Mr. Commissioner, I bid you welcome and I feel assured that the officers of My Government will do all in their power to make your stay in my dominions a pleasant as well as a duty to you in every attention and courtesy in their power during your stay in my dominions.

His Majesty was attended on this occasion by Mr. Ed. Z. O. Dunning, Governor of Oahu; Their Excellencies J. M. Kaulia, Minister of Foreign Affairs, C. T. Gulick, Minister of the Interior, Paul Neumann, Attorney-General, Colonel E. W. Parris, His Majesty's Vice-Chamberlain, and Colonel C. P. Iaukea and J. H. Boyd of His Majesty's Staff.

His Majesty's Vice-Chamberlain.
