(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 3.—President Wilson approved the tentative selection of Senator James, of Kentucky for permanent chairman of the democratic convention, which assures the election of James, Stone, of Missouri has been tentatively decided on for chairman of the platform committee. When Stone goes to St. Louis he will probably carry with him outlines of platform drawn by President Wilson himself.

CARRANZA NOTE BE UP MONDAY

Wilson and Lansing Will Discuss Reply to Demand For Troop Withdrawal

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 3.—President Wilson, probably will take up with Secretary Lansing Monday the question of framing a reply to Carranza's new demand that American troops be withdrawn from Mexico. Officials have not indicated what form the answer will take, except that the United States will not yield to the demand that General Pershing retreat. Because of what are deemed to be offensive statements in the note, many believe that the reply should carry a rebuke.

While details of the Pershing-Gavira conference were not made public, it is known that no suggestion was made an agreement as to the local disposition of troops. The conversation consisted mainly of a statement by Gavira of the steps he is taking to round up the bandits. Secretary Baker described the meeting as friendly and cordial, and expressed his confidence that Carranza commanders are eager to co-operate with the Americans.

STAMP ISSUES A PROBLEM OF WAR

Turks Mark Occupation of "Somewhere in Egypt"

(By Associated Press.)
London, June 3.—Patrols must be on the alert to keep track of the new stamp issues brought about by the Turkish occupation of Egypt. The stamps are being issued in the name of the Sultan, but the designs are of a nature that would be offensive to the British. WILSON SIGNS ARMY BILL WITH PEN SMITH TO KEEP AS SOUVENIR

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 3.—Wilson today signed the army bill with a pen belonging to Senator Smith of South Carolina, who desired to keep the pen as a souvenir. An analysis of the bill by Chairman Chamberlain, of the senate military committee, put the peace strength of the army at two hundred and eleven thousand, war strength a maximum of two hundred and sixty-one thousand, five hundred. An organized National Guard would number four hundred and fifty-seven thousand.

BY THE CENSOR

(By Associated Press.)
The Germans made further progress on the Verdun front, gaining ground in the Vaux sector, northeast of Verdun and beating off the French counter-attacks. Berlin also claims that the Germans captured heights near Zillebeke, southeast of Ypres, Belgium, from the British.

The Austrians made additional gains on the Austro-Italian front, capturing several strategic positions in the Arstere region, Southern Tyrol.

LANSING TAKES A RAP AT "CRITICS"

Roundly Scores Men Who Condemn Foreign Policy

(By Associated Press.)
Watertown, New York, June 3.—Secretary Lansing, before the Jefferson county bar association here tonight, scored critics of the administration's foreign policy. He said the neutral right violated by the loss of life is far more serious than the neutral right violated by the loss of property. He declared that there is influence in America and even in congress which puts the right of property and the right of life on a par. This shows he said, that "the great heart of the republic is threatened with fatty degeneracy through those who have lost their patriotic vigor."

UNIQUE IDEA OF SWISS SURGEON

Would Train Muscles of Stump To Operate Artificial Fingers

(By Associated Press.)
Zurich, Switzerland, June 3.—Three professors of Zurich University have been experimenting in the hope of training the muscles in the stumps of amputated arms to connect with artificial hands in such a way as to open and close the fingers. Professor Schwaninger, head of the department of anatomy in a German medical school, states that the anatomical difficulties have been overcome so effectively that all that is now required for complete success is a somewhat better artificial hand, and he expresses expectation that this soon will be invented.

Only Man Delegate to Women's Convention, and Some of the Women

Get acquainted with Mr. Smith, Herschell T. Smith, of Fulton, Ky. Mr. Smith is a famous man, he has just stepped into the brightest spot light that will shine in this country, outside of the national conventions this year. For, Mr. Smith is the only man delegate to the Thirteenth Biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs, which held forth in New York City.

Mr. Smith is proud of himself, of his distinction and of the ladies. Moreover, he is a very popular man. No mere woman delegate enjoys half his popularity.

"I have attended each and every session of the convention," said he. "And I have attended each and every luncheon my delegateship entitles me to. As a matter of fact, I am a regular luncheon fiend."

The more women clustered here about Mr. Smith, and among the notables of the Federation, some of them are officials.

ENGAGED WITH THE ENTIRE MODERN FLEET OF THE ENGLISH NAVY

(By Associated Press.)
Berlin, June 3.—A secondary official statement issued today by the admiralty says that to correct the fabulous report the admiralty again states that the German high sea forces were engaged with the entire modern English fleet. The statement admits the loss of the light cruiser Ebbw, but says it was damaged by a collision with another German ship and was blown up by the crew.

GERMANS LOSSES GREAT ALSO

GREAT BRITAIN REGARDS DEFEAT AS LESS SEVERE THAN FIRST EXPECTED—ENEMY WAS HARD HIT—ENGLISH LOSE 4,000 MEN

(By Associated Press.)
London, June 3.—The latest reports from the British fleet and neutral vessels which witnessed parts of the great naval battle cause the British to believe the engagement was not so much a defeat as it at first appeared. British losses, with all craft accounted for, were three battle cruisers, three cruisers and eight destroyers. German losses believed to have been about the same number of ships, although much less aggregate tonnage. British naval experts say Great Britain can better afford the losses it suffered than could the smaller German navy.

Elberton, Town Of 8,000, Had 1 'Drunk' In May

Elberton, Ga., June 3.—During the month of May only one arrest for drunkenness was made in Elberton, a town of eight thousand people. This fact is a reflection of the fact that two primary elections were held in that month, elections in which there was lively interest and heated contests. The record for May is unprecedented.
