DAILY LEADER.

Marching Song of Sherman's Army.

The following is the latest army song which Sherman's veterans are chanting on their victorious march:

On! camp fires shone bright on the mountains
That frowned on the river below,
While we stood by our guns in the morning
And eagerly watched for the foe—
When a rider came down from the darkness
Thundering over mountains and tree,
And shouted, "Boys, up and be ready
For Sherman will march for the sea."

Then cheer upon cheer for bold Sherman
Went up from each valley and glen,
And the hills re-echoed the music
That came from the lips of the men.
For we knew that the stars in our banner
More bright in their splendor would be,
And that blessings from North land would greet us,
When Sherman marched down to the sea.

Then forward, boys, forward to battle,
We marched on our wearisome way,
And we stormed the wild hills of Georgia—
God bless those who fell on that day.
Then Kenesaw frowned in its glory,
Frowned down on the flag of the free,
But the East and the West were our standards,
And Sherman marched on to the sea.

Still onward we pressed, till our banners
Swept out from Atlanta's grim walls,
And the blood of the patriot dead spoke
The roll where the traitor flag falls.
But we paused not to weep for the fallen,
Who slept by each river and tree,
Yet we twined the laurel in a wreath of the laurel,
As Sherman marched down to the sea.

O, proud was our army that morning,
That stood where the pine dark ly towers,
When Sherman said, "Boys, you are weary,
Rest to day fair Savannah is ours."
Then sang was a song for our chieftain,
That echoed o'er river and lea,
And the stars in our banners shone brighter
When Sherman marched down to the sea.

Correspondence Between Generals Grant and Lee.

We have Richmond dates to Saturday, March 18. The papers contain no war news. The following, which we extract from the rebel Congress proceedings, in relation to a late correspondence between Generals Grant and Lee, is of interest:

MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT.

RICHMOND, VA., March 13, 1865.

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

I herewith transmit for your information copies of the correspondence referred to in my message of this date, in regard to the proposed conference to adjust terms of peace by means of a military convention.

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

LETTER OF GENERAL R. E. LEE.

HEADQUARTERS C. S. ARMIES, March 2, 1865.

Lieutenant General U. S. Grant, Commanding United States Armies:

GENERAL: Lieutenant General Longstreet has informed me that, in a recent conversation between himself and Major General Ord, as to the possibility of arriving at a satisfactory adjustment of the present unhappy difficulties, by means of a military convention, General Ord stated that if I desired to have an interview with you on the subject, you would not decline, provided I had authority to act. Sincerely desiring to leave nothing untried which may put an end to the calamities of war, I propose to meet you at such convenient time and place as you may designate, with the hope that upon an interchange of views, it may be found practicable to submit the subjects of controversy between the belligerents to a convention of the kind mentioned.

In such an event, I am authorized to do whatever the result of the proposed interview may render necessary or advisable. Should you accede to this proposition, I would suggest that if agreeable to you, we meet at the place selected by Generals Ord and Longstreet for the interview, at 11 A. M., on Monday next. Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

Official copy: R. E. LEE, General.
C. S. VENABLE, A. A. G.

HEADQUARTERS, March 7, 1865.

HEADQUARTERS ARMIES U. S., March 4, 1865.

Gen. R. E. Lee, Commanding C. S. Armies:

GENERAL: Your two letters of the 20th inst. were received yesterday. In regard to any apprehended misunderstanding in reference to the exchange of political prisoners, I think there need be none. General Ord or General Longstreet have probably misunderstood what I said to the former on the subject, or I may have failed to make myself understood, possibly.

A few days before the interview between Generals Longstreet and Ord, I had received a dispatch from General Hoffman, commissary general of prisoners, stating in substance that all prisoners of war who were or had been in close confinement or irons, whether under charges or sentences, had been ordered to City Point for exchange. I forwarded the substance of that dispatch to Lieutenant Colonel Mulford, assistant agent of exchange, and presumed it probable that he had communicated it to Colonel Robert Ould. A day or two after, an offender, who was neither a prisoner of war nor a political prisoner, was executed, after a fair and impartial trial, and in accordance with the laws of war and the usage of civilized nations. It was in explanation of this class of cases I told General Ord to speak to General Longstreet.

Reference to my letter of February 16th will show my understanding on the subject of releasing political or citizen prisoners.

In regard to meeting you on the 6th instant, I would state that I have no authority to accede to your proposition for a conference on the subject proposed. Such authority is vested in the President of the United States alone.

General Ord could only have meant that I would not refuse an interview on any subject on which I have a right to act, which of course would be such as are purely of a military character, and on the subject of exchange, which has been entrusted to me.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant, U. S. GRANT, Lieutenant General.

LETTER OF THE PRESIDENT.

RICHMOND, VA., Feb. 28, 1865.

General R. E. Lee, Commanding, &c.:

GENERAL: You will learn by the letter of General Longstreet the result of his second interview with General Ord. The point as to whether yourself or General Grant should invite the other to a conference is not worth discussing. If you think the statements of General Ord render it probably useful that the conference suggested should be had, you will proceed as you may prefer, and are clothed with all the supplemental authority you may need in the consideration of any proposition for a military convention, or the appointment of a commissioner to enter into such an arrangement as will cause at least a temporary suspension of hostilities.

Very truly, yours,
JEFFERSON DAVIS.

MEDICAL SUCCESS
EXTRAORDINARY.
100 DOLLARS PREMIUM!
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
Or Spermatorrhœa, Gleet, &c., and IMPOTENCY CURED,
AFTER ALL OTHER TREATMENT FAILS,
DR. A. GIBSON,

Formerly of New York City, will pay one hundred dollars for the proof that he ever fails to cure the above-named disease. He will pay the same sum for the proof that any other Physician in the United States treats the same diseases with equal success.

After many years of laborious study and experience, Dr. Gibson is happy in being able to announce to the unfortunate, that he has perfected a system of treatment for

of the above, and also all contagious diseases of the Reproductive Organs, with all bad effects arising therefrom, including General

DEBILITY OR NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

He has succeeded in curing cases in this city, some of whom had expended hundreds of dollars with self-styled physicians, who profess to treat all private diseases with success, and without recording the least particle of failure.

Dr. Gibson does not boast that he is a member of some College in London or Paris, as perhaps some others do for the purpose of ensnaring the innocent, and who hold out great expectations never to be realized. But what Dr. G. might boast of is this, that he is able to give satisfaction to those who repose confidence in his ability and integrity, and that he has perfected an American system of treatment which challenges any Physician of London or Paris, or any patent medicine, to equal for the radical cure of seminal weakness, and all diseases or derangements, both mental and physical, arising from sexual or secret abuse.

Dr. Gibson also claims for his new treatment the following advantages over all others yet discovered: 1st and first, the agents used are in no respect disagreeable; he uses no relics of the dark ages, such as Mercury, nor any other deleterious drug; secondly, no restrictions in diet or business is required; thirdly, his treatment is positive and certain in all cases. He stands prepared to go into any public or private hospital in the United States and demonstrate the immense superiority of his new treatment over any other now known to the world, in point of promptness, permanency, mildness, safety and convenience to the patient.

Dr. Gibson is permanently located in Cleveland, and has during the past five years performed many cures of Diseases which had for years resisted all other modes of treatment. References can be given to individuals of the first respectability in Cleveland, Boston, New York and other cities, in regard to skill and integrity in all professional transactions. Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Scrofula, all Diseases of the Urinary Organs, and all Chronic Diseases treated with equal success.

Medicines sent to any part of the country on receipt of ten dollars.
