IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—Dr. Harvey's Female Pills are never yet failed in removing difficulties arising from obstruction, or stoppage of nature, or in restoring the system to perfect health when suffering from Spinal Affections, Prolapsus, Ulcer, the Whites, or other weakness of the Parious Organs. The Pills are perfectly harmless on the constitution, and may be taken by the most delicate female without causing distress—the same time they act like a charm by strengthening, invigorating and restoring the system to a healthy condition, and by bringing on the monthly period with regularity, no matter from what cause the obstruction may arise. They should, however, not be taken during the first three months of pregnancy, though safe at any other time, as miscarriage would be the result.

Each box contains 60 pills. Price 1.00.

DR. HARVEY'S TREATISE on Disease of Females, Pregnancy, Miscarriage, Barrenness, Sterility, Reproduction, and Abuse of Nature, and emphatically a Single Lady's Medical Adviser, is pamphlet of 64 pages, sent free to any address. Six cents required to pay postage.

DAILY LEADER.

THE FUNERAL OBSEQUIES IN CLEVELAND.

The Dispatches to the Associated Press—What our Visitors Thought of the Funeral Rites Here.

We copy below the dispatches to the Associated Press describing the reception of the President's remains in this city:

CONNEAUT, 3:48.

We are now in Ohio, and hurry on through Kingsville, Ashtabula, Saybrook, Geneva, Unionville, Madison, Perry, Painesville, Mentor and Willoughby. The depot buildings are draped, and large numbers of people are at these places assembled. Minute guns are fired and bells are tolling.

WICKLIFFE—6:20.

The following gentlemen here came on board: Governor Brough and staff, consisting of the following named officers: General Cowen, Adjutant-General; General Barlow, Quartermaster-General; Surgeon-General Barr and Colonel Maxwell. Also, Major-General Hooker, commanding the Department of the Ohio, with his staff, as follows: Colonel Swords, Lieutenant-Colonel Simpson, Lieutenant-Colonel Lathrop, Major McFeely, Major Bannister and Captain Taylor. Also, United States Senator Sherman, Hon. S. Galloway, Hon. O. Waters and Major Montgomery. Also, the following named gentlemen, to meet the remains: Hon. R. P. Spalding, ex-Governor David Tod, Thomas Jones, jr., Colonel Anson Stager, Amasa Stone, jr., Hon. H. B. Payne, Hon. John A. Foot, Hon. H. V. Willson, Stillman Witt, Ansel Roberts, William Bingham, Hon. W. B. Castle, Charles Hickox, John Martin, Hon. W. Collins, H. N. Johnson, Dr. G. C. E. Weber, Dr. Proctor Thayer, H. B. Hurlbut, Jacob Hovey and James Warsick.

CLEVELAND—7 A. M.

As we pass the lake side of the city, thousands of persons are gathered on the sloping green hillsides, all having a good view of the train. High up we see an arch, with the inscription, "Abraham Lincoln." It is draped in mourning, and the supports are covered with alternate stripes of black and white. Immediately under the arch is a lady, dressed in horizontal bars of the national colors, to represent the Genius of Liberty. She holds in her hand a flag, and this, together with her cap, is bandaged with mourning. It is a beautiful and expressive figure.

All places of business are closed. Colors are displayed at half mast. A national salute of 36 guns is fired, and half-hour guns will be fired till sunset. We proceed to Euclid street station in the cars. This is the point where Mr. Lincoln embarked for Washington just previous to his inauguration; and here the procession was formed.

The coffin was placed in a hearse, the roofing of which was covered with a national flag, with black plumes, and otherwise tastefully and appropriately adorned. The military escort embraced Major General Hooker and staff, and Governor Brough of Ohio, and staff, and the civic escort of civic guard of honor was followed by the United States civil officers, veteran soldiers, members of the City Council, and City Officers of Cleveland and other cities, members of the bar, the Board of Trade, Knights Templars, the orders of Masons and Odd Fellows, Temperance Societies, Fenian Brotherhood, St. Vincent Society, the German Benevolent Society, the Equal Right League, &c., and all the Benevolent and other Associations, and citizens on foot—a multitude of them.

The procession embraced all conditions of the people, without distinction of party or religion, and it presented a decidedly fine appearance, as it moved through the streets of this truly beautiful city from Euclid street to Erie, down Erie to Superior and thence to the Park.

The sidewalks were densely crowded with mournful persons, while thousands of spectators beheld the cortege from the steps and windows of the beautiful residences which line the entire route. Emblems of mourning were everywhere prominent, together with expressive mottoes.

Every stranger is loud in his expressions of admiration of the splendid order of the arrangements.

Then follows a description of the catafalque and building containing it, copied from the LEADER of Friday morning. The dispatch continues:

The religious services, after the remains had been placed upon the dais, were performed by Right Reverend Bishop McIlvaine, who, in the course of his prayer, asked the blessing of heaven on the immediate family of the deceased, and a sanctification of the events which had called the nation to mourn to the good of him who had succeeded to the Chief Magistacy. He then read a part of the funeral service of the Episcopal Church, slightly altering their text to suit the occasion. These services were intensely solemn, and moved many of the listeners to tears.

The remains were then exposed to public view. The arrangements are so perfect that every one who desires to see them will have no difficulty in being gratified. It is raining here to-day, but this is no impediment to the throngs passing to the park.

Cleveland has made a demonstration worthy of her citizens. Their sad countenances attest stronger than words the heavy grief which affects all hearts.

CLEVELAND, 9 P. M.

The number who witnessed the remains of the President during the day was 180 a minute. Two rows of spectators were constantly passing, one on each side of the coffin. The lid was freshly covered with flowers in the form of harps, crosses, and bouquets gathered in the hothouses of Cleveland and laid upon the coffin by ladies representing the Soldiers' Relief Association.

The funeral party were the guests of the corporate authorities. They were quartered at the Weddell House. A more liberal and friendly greeting could not have been extended.

Charles L. Wilson, of Chicago, on behalf of a Committee of one hundred, was here to day to extend the hostilities of that city. This committee is to proceed to Michigan City to meet the remains, and will escort them to Springfield.

The display at Chicago will be the largest ever known in that city. Forty-one organizations and societies, numbering 25,000 men, have already reported to the Chief Marshal.

At midnight we leave Cleveland, and will arrive at Columbus to-morrow morning. Everywhere deep sorrow has been manifested, and the feeling seems, if possible, to deepen, as we move Westward with the remains to their final resting place.

Governor Brough to-night extended the hospitalities of his residence to the funeral party.

Dick Turner.

Dick Turner, the noted turnkey of Libby Prison, is securely locked up in the most dismal, subterranean dungeon of that place of torture. There is no pity felt for him in Richmond. A correspondent who saw the cruel-hearted man, describes him as being pale as leprosy, his beard whitening, his deficient teeth ajar, and his eyes full of guilty terror. He is now fully as mean and cringing in his behavior as, in power, he was insolent and cruel. When turnkey, he shot men dead with a revolver who came to the windows for air and light, kicked and knocked down others, and took delight in augmenting the untold miseries of the poor prisoners under his charge. He has heard, in his loathsome cell, that the soldiers have decreed his death so soon as they are fully assured of his identity, and his pleadings for mercy are presented to all who come near him; but he pleads to hearts of stone.

Somewhat late in the day Corsica is about to commemorate the most famous of her sons. A French journal states that a yacht has gone to Ajaccio bearing an equestrian statue of the first Napoleon. The same vessel takes the statues of Lucien, Joseph, Jerome, and Louis Bonaparte. They are six feet ten inches high.

Schuyler Colfax, late speaker of the House, Albert D. Richardson, the escaped Tribune correspondent, Samuel Bowles, publisher of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, Major General Garfield, and others, go on a trip over the plains to California and Oregon, starting sometime in May or June. It is part pleasure and part a business undertaking.

MEDICAL SUCCESS
EXTRAORDINARY.
100 DOLLARS PREMIUM!
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
Or Spermatorrhœa, Gleet, &c., and IMPOTENCY CURED,
AFTER ALL OTHER TREATMENT FAILS.
DR. A. GIBSON,
Formerly of New York City, will pay one hundred dollars for the proof that he ever fails to cure the above-named disease. He will pay the same sum for the proof that any other Physician in the United States treats the same disease with equal success.
Thirteen years of laborious study and experience, Dr. Gibson is happy to bring able to announce to the unfortunate, that he has perfected a system of treatment for
of the above, and also all contagious diseases of the Reproductive Organs, with all bad effects arising therefrom, including Gonorrhœa.
DEBILITY OR NERVOUS PROSTRATION.
He has succeeded in curing cases in this city, some of whom had expended hundreds of dollars with self-styled physicians, who profess to treat all private maladies with success, and without receiving the least particle of benefit.
Dr. Gibson does not boast that he is a member of some College in London or Paris, as perhaps some others do for the purpose of ensnaring the innocent, and who hold out great expectations never to be realized. But what Dr. G. might boast of is this, that he is able to give entire satisfaction to those who repose confidence in his ability and integrity, and that he has perfected an American system of treatment which challenges any Physician of London or Paris, or any patent medicine, to equal for the radical cure of sexual weakness, and all diseases of Secretion, Urinary, both mental and physical, arising from sexual or secret abuse.
Dr. Gibson also claims for his new treatment the following advantages over all others yet discovered: and first, the agents used are in no respect disagreeable; he does not resort to the dark ages, such as Mercury, nor any other deleterious drug; secondly, no restrictions in diet or business is required; thirdly, his treatment is positive and certain in all cases. He stands prepared to go into any public or private hospital in the United States and demonstrate the immense superiority of his new treatment over any other now known to the world, in point of promptness, permanency, mildness, safety and convenience to the patient.
Dr. Gibson is permanently located in Cleveland, and has during the past five years performed many cures of diseases which had for years resisted all other modes of treatment. Reference can be given to individuals of the first respectability in Cleveland, Boston, New York and other cities, in regard to skill and integrity in all professional transactions. Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Scrofula, all Diseases of the Urinary Organs, and all Chronic Diseases
