THE GUERRILLA ROBBERY NEAR CINCINNATI.

Attack on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad—Train stopped and Passengers Robbed—Incidents &c.

The following description of the robbery of a train on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad, fourteen miles from Cincinnati, ½ from the Cincinnati Times:

THE TRAIN THROWN FROM THE TRACK.

The regular 8 P. M. train on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad left the depot in his city at the usual hour, bound for St. Louis. It was composed of four passenger coaches, a baggage car, and the Adams' express car.

The train was heavily loaded with passengers, quite a number of them being ladies.

About seventeen miles and a half from Cincinnati, and between the stations known as Gravel Pit and North Bend, the locomotive ran from the track, and tipped over on one side, the cars following in a promiscuous smash up. The Adams Express car and the baggage car were capsized with the engine, and both badly damaged. The first passenger coach stove through the end of the baggage car, producing considerable havoc. The remainder of the train was not severely injured, and kept the track.

The first shock of the crash of course awakened in the minds of the passengers the idea that it was an ordinary railroad accident, but the volley of firearms and the shouts outside which followed immediately after undeceived them, and the nature and cause of the mishap became palpably evident when two desperadoes made their appearance at each car, and backed by two more who kept guard outside, commenced pillaging the passengers.

MODUS OPERANDI OF THE ATTACKING PARTY.

Subsequent developments have revealed the plan pursued by the guerrillas in capturing the train, and show that considerable skill was manifested in its design. The band, numbering about twenty, crossed in skiffs from the Kentucky shore sometime during the day, and made their arrangements to attack the night express train to St. Louis, probably as being the one which might repay them, robbery being their only object.

They selected a spot where the track of the road runs in close proximity to the river, and simply displaced one of the rails, not tearing up ten or a dozen, as one of our morning cotemporaries has it. The advancing train, when it reached the place, was, as we have seen, thrown violently from the track. As soon as the first crash was over the guerrillas, who were armed with navy revolvers, fired a volley over the cars, and with oaths warned the passengers not to make any demonstrations or they would have their brains blowed out.

THE WORK OF ROBBERY.

While everything was wild with confusion in the passenger coaches the desperadoes entered, and with the vilest oaths demanded the money and valuables of the passengers. One of the party delivered himself of the following chivalrous sentence as he entered one of the cars: "Rob every d—d man, but don't hurt the ladies."

The plundering was very general and thorough. Few, save the coolest, succeeded in saving anything in the line of money and valuables. Gold watches, pocket-books, diamond pins and money packages changed hands in remarkable quick time.

One poor soldier returning home was robbed of three hundred dollars; and although he begged hard to be permitted to retain a portion of the money, the villains took all. Another individual was relieved of a gold watch, and five hundred dollars in greenbacks. Still another lost two hundred dollars, besides a watch and valuable breast pin. The conductor, Mr. Shephard, had forty dollars taken from him; but by cutting the lining of his coat-pocket and allowing the contents to drop into the skirt, succeeded in saving $320. The engineer likewise lost a valuable watch. We are unable to give any estimate of the aggregate loss of passengers, but it was heavy.

PILLAGING ADAMS' EXPRESS CAR.

While the work of robbing was going on in the passenger coaches, five of the villains plundered the express car. This car, as we have stated, was capsized and badly smashed up, and in such a way as to completely imprison the messenger, Mr. Pierce who, after the accident, thrusting out his head from a small opening, to see what was going on outside, was greeted by a loud oath from a desperado standing near, who threatened to blow off the top of his head if he did not get back.

The party, with the aid of an ax, soon cut their way into the car, and drew out the money safes, three in number. They demanded the keys from the messengers under the pain of death, but two of the safes being through from Cincinnati to St. Louis, he was only able to open for them the local safe. The others they blew open with gunpowder, having vainly endeavored to force the doors with the ax. The amount lost by the Express cannot be accurately stated, but it was not very large. There is known to have been some Seventy dollars and other valuables.

The mail and baggage, we understand, were not molested, and are consequently safe.

APPEARANCE OF THE DESPERADOES.

The guerrillas were all, save one, dressed in citizens' clothes, and were remarkably villainous in bearing and action. One of the party they addressed as Lieutenant and another as Captain. They carried no arms but revolvers, and these they were constantly flourishing around in the most threatening manner.

One of the desperadoes shot at the conductor, who showed signs of resistance, but fortunately missed. They also fired at the baggage-master, who attempted to escape up the bank after the train had been thrown from the track. All of them seemed anxious to get through the business as soon as possible.

THEIR ESCAPE.

After pillaging the train the party made for the river, and it is supposed crossed immediately to the Kentucky side.

THE PASSENGERS

Hailed the C. T. Dumont, coming to Cincinnati, and twenty-five or thirty took passage.

At 12 o'clock the train from St. Louis arrived at the wreck, and the remainder of the passengers were transferred immediately, and went to St. Louis. A temporary track has been laid around the wreck, and the 7 A. M. train, this morning, was not delayed. Only one passenger was severely hurt by the cars running from the track, and he was brought to the city this morning.

THE GUERRILLAS PURSUED.

The military authorities in this city were promptly informed of the occurrence, and General Palmer notified of the facts at Louisville. This morning a party of sixty men left here in pursuit of the party, and a force will also be organized in Kentucky. It is earnestly hoped that the perpetrators of this audacious attack may be captured and appropriately punished.

The Gazette says:

Prompt action was taken by the military authorities in reference to capturing the gang. General Palmer, at Louisville, was informed of the facts and before day light General Willich had a detachment of sixty men, under command of Captain Booth, ready to proceed to the vicinity of the disaster, which went down on the seven o'clock train. A force of cavalry also went down from Covington on the Kentucky side. Captain Booth returned Saturday evening, without having discovered any clue to the retreat of the brigands. Nobody in the neighborhood had seen them previous to the arrival of the train, and only a fisherman, in a hut near by, saw the scene from outside the cars, and saw the fellows fleeing to the river. On the Kentucky shore it was learned that a farmer had missed two of his horses, and that the fugitives had hastened back toward the interior. The cavalry that went in pursuit have not been heard from.

MEDICAL SUCCESS
EXTRAORDINARY.
100 DOLLARS PREMIUM!
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

IMPOTENCY CURED,
AFTER ALL OTHER TREATMENT FAILS.
DR. A. GIBSON,

Formerly of New York City, will pay one hundred dollars for the proof that he ever fails to cure the above-named disease. He will pay the same sum for the proof that any other Physician in the United States treats the same diseases with equal success.

After many years of laborious study and experience, Dr. Gibson is happy in being able to announce to the unfortunate, that he has perfected a system of treatment for

of the above, and also all contagious diseases of the Reproductive Organs, with all bad effects arising therefrom, including Gonorrhœa.

DEBILITY OR NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

He has succeeded in curing cases in this city, some of whom had expended hundreds of dollars with self-styled physicians, who profess to treat all private maladies with success, and without receiving the least particle of benefit.

Dr. Gibson does not boast that he is a member of some College in London or Paris, as perhaps some others do for the purpose of exonerating the innocent, and who hold out great expectations never to be realized. But what Dr. G. might boast of is this, that he is able to give entire satisfaction to those who repose confidence in his ability and integrity, and that he has perfected an American system of treatment which challenges any Physician of London or Paris, or any patent medicine, to equal for the radical cure of seminal weakness, and all diseases or derangements, both mental and physical, arising from sexual or secret abuse.

Dr. Gibson also claims for his new treatment the following advantages over all others yet discovered: and first, the agents used are in no respect disagreeable; he uses no relics of the dark ages, such as Mercury, nor any other deleterious drug; secondly, no restriction in diet or business is required; thirdly, his treatment is positive and certain in all cases. He stands prepared to go into any public or private hospital in the United States and demonstrate the immense superiority of his new treatment over any other now known to the world, in point of promptness, permanency, mildness, safety and convenience to the patient.

Dr. Gibson is permanently located in Cleveland, and has during the past five years performed many cures of disease which had for years resisted all other modes of treatment. References can be given to individuals of the first respectability in Cleveland, Boston, New York and other cities, in regard to skill and integrity in all professional transactions. Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Scrofula, all Diseases of the Urinary Organs, and all Chronic Diseases treated with superior success.

DR. SEELYE'S
LIQUID
CATARRH
REMEDY,
Cure Warranted,
IF DIRECTIONS ARE FOLLOWED.
☞CALL FOR A CIRCULAR DESCRIBING ALL SYMPTOMS.

SYMPTOMS:

The symptoms of Catarrh, as they generally appear, are at first very slight. Persons find they have a cold, that they have frequent attacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of temperature. In this condition, the nose may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and acrid, afterwards becoming thick and adhesive. As the disease becomes chronic the discharges are increased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy and are hawked or coughed off. The secretions are offensive, causing a bad breath; the voice is thick and nasal; the eyes are weak; the sense of the smell is lessened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place. Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is, that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning of a thick or slimy mucus, which has fallen down from the head during the night. When this takes place the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the lungs, and should lose no time in arresting it.

The above are but few of the many Catarrh symptoms.

A single Bottle will last a Month—to be used three times a Day.

HOOP SKIRTS.

OHIO HOOP SKIRT MANUFACTORY.
JACOB FRANK,
MANUFACTURER AND IMPORTER OF
French and American Corsets.
Having removed from his old stand on Water street, to a large and commodious establishment,
NO. 128 SUPERIOR ST., UNDER AMERICAN HOTEL,
Mr. FRANK cordially invites the attention of the Cleveland public to his large and well-assorted stock of SKIRTS, CORSETS AND FANCY GOODS of the latest and most approved styles. Having been engaged for a long time in an exclusively Wholesale Business, he has acquired extensive facilities for procuring goods in his line on the most reasonable terms, and is now prepared to give more particular attention to the retail trade. With the convenience of the new establishment, it will soon become the most desirable place to purchase in the city. my4
