MAUI BUDGET

New Telephone Lines to be Built.

Consolidation Cattle Company Organized--Teachers' Monthly Meeting.

MAUI, Jan. 12, 1900.—At 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, the 9th, the stockholders of the Maui Telephone Company held their annual meeting at Paia postoffice. The principal business transacted was the election of W. J. Lowrie as trustee in place of Thomas Campbell, deceased, the re-election of W. O. Aiken as trustee, and the appointment of Messrs. C. H. Dickey, D. C. Lindsay, and R. F. Engle a committee, to consider the raising of the capital stock from $18,000 to $25,000.

This will be done in order to bring about the following improvements, which will probably cost $7,000, viz.: To establish another telephone line to Hana, inasmuch as the single line now in use is entirely inadequate to meet the demands of the subscribers; to construct two new lines to Wailuku for the same reason; and to arrange two or three new lines to Kula in order to satisfy the demand for new instruments already applied for in that section of the Island.

The above mentioned improvements will meet with general approval by the Maui public, inasmuch as many of the telephone lines are in a congested condition, having from six to twelve subscribers to a wire. Oftentimes during business hours it is difficult to send messages owing to the constant demand for a particular line of communication.

A Big Cattle Company.

The Maui Cattle Company, Limited, is the latest commercial Maui enterprise. Messrs. Gear, Lansing & Co. are the promoters, and the property involved is the Kahikinui cattle ranch, formerly belonging to A. Enos & Co. of Wailuku, the Waichuli cattle ranch of W. H. Cornwell, and the Kaonoulu ranch, formerly owned by Young Hee. Besides the real estate there are included in the inventory 9,000 head of cattle and 275 head of horses and mules. It is proposed to incorporate with a capitalization of $500,000, divided into 50,000 shares of $10 each. The high price of beef and the scarcity of good pasture land owing to the establishment of so many new plantations seem to make the venture a feasible one.

Other Items of Interest.

During the afternoon of the 8th the Makawao teachers held their regular monthly meeting in the Makawao school-house. The program included a talk on discipline, according to Colonel Parker, by W. C. Crook and an excellent paper written by Miss Blanche Allen, showing how the different poems of the collection known as "American Poems" might be studied by the various local teachers' associations. This paper was read by C. W. Baldwin.

On Sunday, the 7th, Paul Frederic, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Benj. D. Baldwin of Hamakuapoko, was christened by Dr. E. G. Peckwith in the Paia Foreign Church.

Four of the Maui lady teachers are detained indefinitely in Honolulu by quarantine regulations—Misses Simpson and Hart of Maunaolu Seminary, Miss Oss of the Haiku or Pauwela School, and Miss Nettie dos Reis of Paia School.

On Tuesday, the 9th, the Makawao district magistrate sentenced Yamamoto, the Huelo Japanese, to one year's imprisonment for assaulting a native with a deadly weapon. The case was appealed.
