THE LATEST FROM NOME.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—In a letter received from Captain T. P. Colcord, who left here some weeks ago in the steam whaler Thrasher, the first direct news of the season concerning affairs at Nome is received. Under date of June 2d Captain Colcord writes as follows from Nome:

"We reached here in safety last night. The Albion came in yesterday and reported being in company with the Mary R. Hume only the day before. The Hume should be in by this time. The weather here is good and this is a great town, but thousands will go away disappointed. There are many new claims discovered every day but they are being jumped many times, so a man does not really know when he has one. Lots in the city are selling at high prices and everything is dear, but will cheapen later on in the season. Some of the locators are making only $7 to $15 on their claims and this may discourage any one who has not a good plant. They have been working by hand only.

"The Thrasher is to proceed to Port Clarence with a dozen or so passengers. There is no sickness here, and there has been none during the winter season. There have been only two deaths, and one of these was from gunshot wounds."

The schooner Elk reached Dutch Harbor on June 8th after a fairly smooth passage and is no doubt at Nome by this time.

The steamer Homer is reported to have reached Dutch Harbor on June 14th. The steamer Luella, with the barge Dewey in tow, reached that place on June 5d.

Humane Officer's Report.

Cases of cruelty to animals investigated during the month of June, 62; arrested, 2; convicted, 1; acquitted and reprimanded, 1; horses humanely killed, 6; cases of horses unfit for work and ordered out of the harness, 21; animals abandoned to die, 2; cases of beating and whipping, 9; cases of overloading and overdriving, 15; driven when lame and galled, 11.—Humane Educator.

POSTMASTERS ARE OUT OF POCKET

Misunderstand Directions and Allow Cancellation of Stamps.

Owing to a misunderstanding of the methods of country postmasters of Hawaii purchasing their stamp supplies out of their own pockets, Postoffice Inspector M. H. Flint called in all these Hawaiian stamps through the medium of a circular letter, and reimbursement from some source or other must follow. Correspondence between Mr. Flint and Postmaster Oat was read yesterday at Governor Dole's conference with the heads of the government departments, relating to this matter.

In the usual manner adopted by Postoffice Inspectors in closing up an office or making a change, Mr. Flint ordered all the Hawaiian stamps in the country postoffices returned to Honolulu so that they might be cancelled and sent to Washington. Quite a number of postmasters followed the instructions, the stamps were cancelled, and then it was brought to light that these stamps were in reality owned by the postmasters personally, they having paid for them in cash of their own.

This put an entirely new phase on the situation, and Mr. Flint took immediate steps to have these postmasters reimbursed from Washington. This will probably be done by sending them United States stamps of equal valuation.

Lord Roberts has adopted the Transvaal mining regulations for military administration.
