PROPER PUBLICITY [illegible]

Secretary Fisher, in announcing the [illegible] investigation he is here to make into the [illegible] against the Governor are to be [illegible] publicity answers the indictment of the Delegate [illegible] wash" of the Governor may be [illegible] what is going on throughout the [illegible] testifying, is to hear what is being [illegible] make up its own mind regarding the [illegible] This is as it should be, and it may be [illegible] Frear expressed the hope that it [illegible] Governor.

The secretary announces that he [illegible] study local conditions and make up his mind [illegible] any Governor of Hawaii—should do to meet the [illegible] local situation, and, having established [illegible] measure Governor Frear's administration [illegible] trust that the secretary will also learn [illegible] tions what a Governor can do here [illegible] and measure Governor Frear's attempts [illegible] bility, as well as with the standard of the [illegible] secretary will be able to attend a few political meetings [illegible] that he will have time to read a few of the letters [illegible] Delegate has made and some of the letters [illegible] All of which is rather necessary if the secretary is to get a proper perspective.

Almost from his first action in connection [illegible] the secretary fulfills the best that had been hoped from [illegible] sion here calls for nothing that he is not fully [illegible] and it is evident that he arrives with an open [illegible] vestigation will be thorough and of undoubted benefit [illegible] certain.

FREAR FRANKLY RIGHT

Now is the time for the members of Hawaii's [illegible]

The President has sent a personal representative [illegible] to learn at first hand of the actual conditions [illegible] That representative has asked that he be kept [illegible] his request for the fullest publicity carries with it [illegible] who will testify. There is no reason to suppose [illegible] would retaliate upon anyone who might give [illegible] misuse of homesteaders to the part of the [illegible] grounds for the fear of such, or less fear expressed.

Secretary Fisher has been informed that [illegible] tell things if they dared. Now, in fairness to [illegible] Hawaii and in fairness to Secretary Fisher, anyone who has [illegible] relative to the charges of the Delegate should say it [illegible] the Governor, those who can speak in his behalf should say it [illegible] testimony hurts their political chances with the Hawaiian [illegible] This should be a time for plain speaking.

We do not believe that anyone with any facts to present [illegible] from presenting them for fear of the wrath of the [illegible] that any expressions of such fear are intended only [illegible] lack of facts and the ones who express such fear [illegible] wise. It will be a convenient thing for the [illegible] attack the Governor in the coming campaign to refer [illegible] they might have made had they not feared the [illegible] and for that reason, probably, the talk of the [illegible] Secretary Fisher has been started. It is [illegible] weaknesses of a poor case. The fears expressed [illegible] on the part of the Frear attorneys to [illegible]

This investigation is of extreme importance [illegible] and navy departments urging the establishment of [illegible] and naval reservation, with many in the Islands [illegible] tion that the territorial status of Hawaii be [illegible] ment similar to that of the Panama Canal Zone [illegible] sibility of that suggestion receiving [illegible] of the utmost importance that the Secretary of the [illegible] est possible information on any subject of [illegible] take up. This should be for the sake of Hawaii [illegible] those political advantages we have and prize.

There are many things here that we [illegible] about, but it will be the shortest [illegible] Hons before the investigator from Washington [illegible] give one the impression of a man who [illegible] is another good reason why we should tell him [illegible]

Men with the best interests of Our Territory [illegible] to speak out, despite the alleged financial [illegible] the actual political domination of the Hawaiian [illegible]

INTERVENTION IN MEXICO

The news from Washington sent in the Associated Press, the Universal Wireless Telegraph Company and the Associated Press [illegible] Mexican imbroglio is assuming such proportions [illegible] exercises of great patience that Provisional President [illegible] While Mexico is supposed to be advancing [illegible] of the Central and South American republics [illegible] from the time of her first hand for independence [illegible] years ago, her governments have been [illegible] ished. It was only under President Porfirio Diaz [illegible] compelled to it by the strong arm of the government. Since his overthrow the country has been in the throes of revolution [illegible] three leaders have arisen in the struggle [illegible]

The United States has stood [illegible] in a forceful manner from about [illegible] been murdered, Americans and other [illegible] border lines, and all that has [illegible] of Americans be protected, [illegible] practically begins to convince [illegible] in Mexico there has occurred [illegible] members of the International [illegible] revolutionists simply [illegible] as this violence is confined [illegible] element in Mexico itself is [illegible] aces from the United States [illegible]

But there is many [illegible] cially Americans. There are [illegible] as their fathers did before them [illegible] is a long way from [illegible] come into the Alamos and [illegible] fertile lands, developing industries [illegible] lands with cash or the concrete [illegible] wagon than they ever carried [illegible] threatened by revolutionary bands [illegible] have caused so much uneasiness [illegible] has been forced by the American [illegible] to protect those whose rights [illegible]

As it is, it would be a [illegible] the northern part of Mexico [illegible] which would control the government [illegible] the present conditions of [illegible]

[illegible] people, but they never would realize it while de- [illegible] privilege of revolution.

[illegible] such monkish sentiment among the American people for the [illegible] of anarchistic so-called republics, many of which depend [illegible] revolutions for a change in government.

GOOD EXAMPLE FROM KAHAKO.

[illegible] of Col. Sam Johnson for a supervisorship last night the Republican county convention delegates went on record as in favor of a ticket made up of two Kanakas, one Portuguese and a Hawaiian as the supervisors from the fourth, provided two good haoles, a good Portuguese and a good Hawaiian, are nominated as good as the men they desire to present to the convention as their [illegible]. The Kahaoka delegates made it plain that good men are what they want and that they have no desire to ask, as Hawaiians, for anything more than their fair share on the ticket.

These delegates, in what we have been pleased to regard as the "spoils" district, have set an example to the rest of the delegations. They are out for good men and have not hesitated to name one man they consider in that category. It is time that we heard from the other delegations. There are, according to reports, between twelve and twenty-six candidates after the four seats in the board of supervisors in the fourth district alone. Which four will the various precincts support? The public has a right to know, while, for the sake of Honolulu, it is time that the strong haole precincts went on record as being for the encouragement of the good candidates they are expected to support. Any candidate who has back of him the votes of the forty-two delegates from the Thomas Square and Makiki precincts, for instance, can very well appeal to the delegates from the fifth for support, and get it.

To win that both shall be given, is something that applies in politics and the sooner the giving to four good candidates begins the better are the chances that four good candidates will be nominated from the fourth. The party, this year, need some good men if it hopes to win. There are easily a thousand voters prepared to disregard all straight-ticket appeals in Honolulu, and the best men on both tickets will poll that thousand independent votes.

ASHFORD TIED HIMSELF UP TIGHT

[illegible] and then a question interposed by the Secretary, questions which Mr. Ashford met with answers [illegible] which caused Mr. Ashford to feel somewhat contrariwise [illegible] of his own statements. Mr. Ashford stated that the Delegate felt [illegible] he wished to use [illegible] that of charges [illegible] misuse of homesteaders and demanded an investigation [illegible] the Secretary had come to [illegible] There would be noth- [illegible] on their part.
