SCHOOL BOARD CUTS DOWN EXPENSES

Three Supervising Principals Are Dropped from Rolls at Meeting; Colonel Ashford Makes Strong Protest Against Retention of Professor Edgar Wood.

NEW SUPERVISING PRINCIPALS.

East Hawaii—Eugene Horner.
West Hawaii—Miss Bertha M. Taylor.
Maui—Arthur L. Case.
Oahu—Mrs. Mary Gunn.
Kauai—H. H. Brodie.

The above are the five supervising principals whom the commissioners of public instruction at yesterday's meeting decided to appoint for the new school year, which begins next September. This number of supervising principals is three less than the number which has been employed since the 1911 session of the legislature reorganized the school department of the Territory.

Hawaii is given two supervising inspectors instead of three. V. A. Carvalho of Hilo and Puna districts being dropped. He will be made, however, principal of the school at Papaikou, Hilo, which is considered one of the most important on the Island.

Maui gets but one supervising principal. John Kasha is dropped, and, at his own request, will be transferred to Oahu, being made principal of the Kalihi-kai school.

Oahu also gets but one supervising principal, Mrs. Mary Gunn being given charge of the whole Island, no one being appointed to the position heretofore occupied by Charles E. King, resigned, the position being deleted.

The commissioners yesterday decided to make the salary of each supervising inspector $250 per month, which is a raise over the previous salary paid, but each supervising principal will hereafter pay all the traveling expenses. On the whole, besides allowing for three less supervising principals, the department is thus effecting a material saving to the Territory.

Ashford Opposes Wood.

There was a full attendance of the commissioners of education at yesterday's meeting of the board, those present being Commissioners Mrs. Theodore Richards and Prof. L. G. Blackman of Oahu, Mrs. B. D. Bond and William H. Smith of Hawaii, T. Brandt of Kauai and D. C. Lindsay of Maui, the last two mentioned commissioners arriving on Sunday morning from their respective districts.

During the morning session Col. C. W. Ashford, claiming that he did so only as a citizen and taxpayer, appeared before the board and launched into a fervid talk in opposition to the further retention by the department of education of Prof. Edgar Wood, principal of the Normal School. Mr. Ashford reverted to the old charges against this employe, which formed the basis of legislative inquiry by the last legislature and the one before. The commissioners heard the speaker, but kept their counsel, nothing resulting so far as the result of Mr. Ashford's attack.

The board spent considerable time yesterday on transfers and appointments of Oahu teachers for the new school year and will continue on the subject this morning at ten o'clock, when it meets again. Kauai, Maui and Hawaii school appointments will be taken up next. Until the whole list has been settled upon, no publication will be made of the appointments.

The board yesterday decided to make some alterations in the form of the contracts under which it employs teachers, in accordance with the report of the legislative committee. The board desires to make its contracts with teachers far more definite than these have been in the past. The new contracts will be executed in duplicate, signed by both the teacher and the proper representative of the department, each keeping a copy.

In addition to this there will be a form of contract for teachers who are appointed for some definite kind of work, such as special instruction in high schools, and so on. Finally, there will be a class of provisional appointments, that is, a teacher whose work is below standard, or who is appointed subject to the passing of an examination or about whose permanency of employment there may be some question, will be appointed subject to some such provision, the department reserving its right to terminate such employment on a month's notice, in case the condition in question is not fulfilled.

New Rules Adopted.

A resolution was adopted approving a set of rules submitted by Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, president of the board of health, which set forth the questions which are to be asked by the examining physician before a teacher is given a health certificate. These questions relate only insofar as they apply to contagious diseases.

The commissioners decided that examinations of pupils be held during the three school days preceding the last week of school. P. F. Jernegan, principal of the Hilo High School, was given leave of absence from June 15; Miss M. Ida Ziegler leave of absence for four weeks of the term; Miss Jane Otremba, leave of absence from the close of the present term in June to the end of December of this year.

Superintendent H. W. Kinney yesterday stated that it is possible that the meetings of the commissioners will last most of the present week. It is understood that the sessions of the board have been most harmonious. Superintendent Kinney, who is member ex officio and chairman of the board, and George S. Raymond, inspector general of schools, have been attending the meetings and have assisted materially with the work of the busy commissioners.

Four diplomas were yesterday executed by the department of public instruction for graduates of the Hilo High School, the total number of the graduates of this institution since the school was established by law in 1905, being twenty-nine. The diplomas executed yesterday are for Ea Kong Wong, Chinese; Rita Zoe Canario, Portuguese; Matsuyo Sakuma, Japanese, and Irene Kalai, Hawaiian.

KEALOHA GIVES UP HIS POSITION

Convicted Hawaii Supervisor, in Prison, Decides to Tender Resignation.

John A. Kealoha, the Hilo supervisor who was recently sentenced to two years in jail on a charge of embezzling Hawaii county funds, yesterday resigned from the official position to which he had been elected in November of 1912. This settles the petition for impeachment which has lain dormant in the supreme court for many months, since there exists no further necessity to press the charges against the convicted man.

Kealoha spurned the form of resignation written out for him by Attorney General Ingram M. Stainback. The convicted man, who began doing time at Oahu Prison on his arrival from Hilo last Saturday, wrote out the resignation in his own handwriting. He claims he is innocent of the charge and that he was illegally convicted, but he feels that his constituents in North and South Hilo should not be deprived of their full and just representation on the board of supervisors of the County of Hawaii. Since Kealoha will not have a chance to attend the meetings of the board between now and the time the successors of the present supervisors take office, he decided to resign, says the convicted man.

Governor Pinkham yesterday had no chance to accept Kealoha's resignation as when it was handed to Attorney General Stainback the Governor was busy at a warm meeting of the Associated Charities, but it is expected that the Chief Executive will lose no time in accepting the resignation this morning.

Among the candidates who are said to aspire to succeed Kealoha as a member of the Hawaii board of supervisors are John M. Ross, manager of the Hakalau Plantation Company, Antonio M. Cabrinha, M. S. Pacheco, Ollie T. Shipman, Otto W. Rose, William H. Shipman, Bertrand F. Schoen and a number of other residents of Hilo and the districts of North and South Hilo.

Ross, Cabrinha and Pacheco were all three unsuccessful candidates for supervisor at the last election. Had the voters of North Hilo, who claim they alone should have the right to select the man who should represent them, been left to make the choice it is claimed that Ross would undoubtedly have been elected. The last mentioned was the regular Republican candidate, Kealoha being to a large extent a fusion candidate, Democrats, Home Rulers and Laborites pooling their interests on his election. Cabrinha was unsuccessful at the Republican convention and ran independent, while Pacheco was the perpetual Home Rule candidate.

It is expected that Governor Pinkham will appoint Kealoha's successor without much delay, although he stated recently that he would leave the selection of the new man to a large measure with the people of Hilo. Strong representations have been made favoring the appointment of Mr. Ross. A. M. Cabrinha is also a strong candidate for the office and Ollie T. Shipman, who was formerly a supervisor from the district of Kau, but now resides in Hilo, is also considered a possibility. The Governor's selection, it is claimed, lies between Ross, Cabrinha and Shipman.

CUBA'S EXHIBIT TO BE MODEL AFFAIR

The Cuban pavilion at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition will be two stories in height with a tower at one corner. On three sides will stretch the wide verandas to the Cuban plantation haciendas, and in the center of the building will be a large glass-covered patio with the gardens of Cuban plants, trees and flowers. The building will be thirty-four meters long by thirty-three meters wide.

In addition to the exhibits in the Cuban pavilion, Cuba will exhibit extensively in several of the main exposition palaces. Especially noteworthy will be the sanitary exhibit in the Palace of Social Economy and Education which will display the methods of fighting tropical diseases which made possible American construction of the Panama Canal. It was in Cuba that the first battles with yellow fever and the other scourges of the tropics were first successfully waged. The achievements there were utilized in making sanitary the Canal Zone.

A model Cuban tobacco factory and a model of the largest sugar factory in the world will also be among the republic's exhibits.

It has been announced by General Castillo that the Cuban appropriation of $250,000 will be readily increased should occasion require.

INKSTANDS INSTEAD.

The United States district attorney at Honolulu tried to shoot an opposing counsel. Very bad form, truly. Why can't this misguided official use civilized methods and throw inkstands at the other attorneys, like Kansas City lawyers do?—Kansas City Journal.

Local Irishmen Will Celebrate Great Victory

Celts of Hawaii to Hold Meeting and Frame Message of Congratulation on Passage of Home Rule Bill.

Honolulu Irishmen will meet at half-past seven o'clock this evening at the makai pavilion of the Alexander Young Hotel, in accordance with a call which has been issued by John A. Hughes, Col. Charles J. McCarthy and Jack D. Cleary, to take suitable measures for the fitting celebration of the passage of the Home Rule Bill by the British house of commons.

It is intended to send messages of congratulation, in the name of the Irish of Hawaii, to the Right Hon. Henry Asquith, prime minister of Great Britain and Ireland, and to John E. Redmond, the great leader of the home rule forces in parliament.

All Irishmen, whether American citizens or not, and others in sympathy with the cause of freedom, are invited to be present and to take an active interest in the business which may come up before the meeting.

John A. Hughes will preside in calling the meeting to order. A number of prominent Honolulu Irishmen will deliver addresses, among the speakers being some who have made a deep study of Ireland's century-old fight for freedom, which the final passage of the Home Rule Bill yesterday by the house of commons now assures to the Emerald Isle.

AIR TROUBLES IN CIRCUIT COURT

Trial of John Cassidy, Charged With Assault, Going On In Judge Dickey's Court.

Many witnesses were on the stand yesterday in Judge Lyle A. Dickey's criminal division of the local circuit court to testify in the assault and battery case of the Territory against John Cassidy. Besides the three women who testified at the opening of the case on Friday, the following gave their evidence for the government yesterday:

Will Wayne, Owen Anderson, Rumland, Howard Case, Harry Dumont, Mrs. Dumont, Miss Ruth Cooper and Mrs. Balische. The prosecution rested shortly before noon, and the defense opened its case with the testimony of Harry Proctor. The case will be continued at half-past eight o'clock this morning.

The testimony given so far developed the fact that there had been considerable wrangling on the beach at Waikiki as to Cassidy's right to erect and maintain the pier which figured in the alleged assault on Mrs. Cressaty. In a nutshell, the case appears to shape up as a "plant" to settle the pier question. A ladder was set up against the pier, and one by one, it is claimed, a number of the witnesses who appeared against Cassidy clambered up the ladder and placed the tips of their fingers on the top of the pier. Cassidy, who mounted guard over what he claims to be his property, brushed these fingers off with the point of his shoe.

Mrs. Cressaty is said to have been one of those who attempted to surmount the top of the pier. It is claimed that, when she had her fingers brushed off, she fell a distance of two or three feet, and in so falling her face came in contact with some hard coral, which caused the bruises, it is said, now charged as being the result of a kick from Cassidy's foot.

Society of the Cassidy and Cressaty sections of the beach at Waikiki has been out in force in court during the two days the case has been on trial before a jury. It is expected that the case will be concluded today. In the police court Cassidy was fined seventy-five dollars, the case being appealed to the circuit court, and it was given the right of way over hundreds of cases which have awaited trial for months in the criminal division presided over by Judge Dickey.

UNIQUE RECORD OF HIGH SHERIFF HENRY

Oldest Publication in Hawaii Has Praise for Official and Regret for His Retirement.

The Friend for May publishes this tribute to the good work of High Sheriff Henry, whose official life as warden of the Oahu penitentiary ends this month:

"Sixteen hundred and fourteen prisoners in fifteen years up to January 1, 1914, with only seventeen recommitted was the record for Hawaii's state prison under the wardenship of William Henry. It does not, of course, cover those jailed for petty offenses, but only real criminals. This is but a trifle over one per cent.

"Is there any State in the American Union with a prison record to compare with this?

"Doubtless there are many reasons for this unique story of Hawaii's success in dealing with crime. The absence of dire poverty is one.

"The character of our population, mostly Asiatics, who are accustomed to obey law, is another.

"The attitude of forgiveness and the habit of forgetting one's past, characteristic of life here, also figures. The man who has committed a crime is given another chance as a matter of course.

The Personal Element.

"But the personal element involved in Sheriff Henry is a very large factor. He has been an ideal warden, interested in his men. That inferent creation of man's cruelty, the lockstep, was abolished early in his administration. The lash met the same fate.

"He used his large influence with legislators to secure the parole system and the adoption of the law that requires five dollars and a useful suit of clothes to be given to each discharged prisoner. Red tape has had no part in his conduct of his office. He has been the friend of every man under his charge.

Dirty Politics.

"That he should have been forced to resign to make way for Mr. Jarrett is the dirtiest piece of politics we have known in a long time, and is an affront to the entire citizenship of the Territory.

"The care of prisoners is one of the most delicate and sacred duties in the economy of society. When a man has been found who has an aptitude for its faithful discharge and whom experience shows to be possessed of the moral qualities that make his conduct of such a position successful, he should be guaranteed continuance as long as he serves well."

FUGITIVES FIGHT HARD FOR THEIR FREEDOM

Appearing before Judge William J. Robinson on Friday and Saturday, then before the supreme court on Saturday afternoon and yesterday before Judge William L. Whitney, J. A. Ritchie and Alphonse de Peuter, late of Seattle, Washington, have certainly run the gamut of territorial courts in speed-breaking record time within but a few days.

These men are wanted by the Washington State authorities to answer to a number of criminal charges, according to cablegrams which have been received lately by the local authorities and others. They are charged with certain illegal financial transactions. The efforts of Attorneys A. S. Humphreys and Joseph Lightfoot, who represent the men, have thus far been of little avail.

Following the arrest of Ritchie and de Peuter late last week their attorneys sued out writs of habeas corpus petitions with a view to gaining their clients' freedom. On Friday, Judge Robinson ordered the sum of $265, which had been taken from them, to be returned to the alleged fugitives and on Saturday morning the same judge granted the prayer of the petitions for writs of habeas corpus and freed the men. From this latter decision Deputy Attorney General Leslie P. Scott appealed to the supreme court.

On Saturday the supreme court denied the motion for bail made on behalf of the men and advanced the subject of the appeal made by the Territory on the calendar for yesterday morning. When the question came up yesterday Deputy Attorney General Scott, in view of a later cablegram received from the Washington State authorities, moved that his appeal on behalf of the Territory be dismissed, which was done accordingly. This cable was as follows:

"Olympia, Washington, May 25.

"Hon. L. E. Pinkham, Governor of Hawaii, Honolulu:

"Please have chief of police Honolulu hold Ritchie and De Peuter Extradition. Agent en route with papers.

"ERNEST LISTER, Governor."

No sooner had Ritchie and De Peuter left the supreme court than they were again placed under arrest and during the afternoon were before Judge William L. Whitney. Deputy Attorney General Scott's application for commitment of the men was granted by Judge Whitney and Ritchie and De Peuter were both committed to jail to await the arrival of the Washington state agent with the extradition papers.

DOG POISONER BUSY IN PUUNUI DISTRICT

Dog owners in the Puunui district are aroused over the discovery that someone is evidently carrying on a systematic poisoning campaign, to which already a number of canine pets have fallen victims. Among those who have lost dogs by the poison route during the past few days are D. J. Cashman and G. J. Boisse, while a number of unidentified dogs have been picked up dead in the district. An investigation into the course of the poison and the methods of the poisoner is being made and the ones who have lost their dogs promise considerable trouble for the culprit when they locate him.

DISCOVERS RELICS OF WRECKED SCHOONER

Relics of the Island schooner Ada, which mysteriously disappeared several years ago off the coast of Oahu, were discovered yesterday by C. D. Walker, boat builder of Honolulu, on the northeast shore of the Island. Finding traces of a wreck on the beach, Mr. Walker dug into the sand and unearthed two cathead s which he put into the vessel while it was in this port.

The captain and crew of the Ada perished when the vessel was wrecked.

TWO GERMAN WARSHIPS TO CALL AT HONOLULU

According to advices received yesterday, the German cruiser Nuremberg and another vessel of the Kaiser's navy will visit Honolulu within a few weeks.

The Nuremberg, which called here several months ago, en route to Mexico from Tsingtau, the German naval base on the China coast, is on its way back and is expected early in June. Before it arrives at Tsingtau another vessel will be sent to Mexico to take its place, and is expected here in June also.
