SWIMMERS OF HAWAII ARE DEFEATED ON COAST

Illinois Team Carries Off Aquatic Honors in Championship Meet Held Before Large and Enthusiastic Crowd in Sutro Baths at San Francisco.

Following is a brief summary of the swimming races held in the Sutro Baths at San Francisco yesterday:

Total points—Illinois, 44; Hui Nalu, 19; Los Angeles, 13; Healanis, 7; Olympic, 7.

Fifty-yard dash—Riethel, first; Kahanamoku, second; Small, third; time, 24 1-5.

440 Yards — Won by Langer, who established a new world's tank record of 5:22 1-5 seconds. McGillivray of Chicago finished second and Wilhelm of Honolulu was third.

Illinois won the relay race over a three-hundred-yard-course, establishing a new American record of 44 3-5 seconds. The Healani team was second in this event, the Hui Nalu swimmers finishing third.

A new Coast record of 49 4-5 seconds was established by McDermott in the 200-yard breast stroke event. Sadman of the Olympic Club was second and McGillivray was third.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) — Hawaii went down to defeat before the crack athletes of the mainland in the swimming races at Sutro Baths yesterday. Illinois carried off first honors. Coast and American records went glimmering and a new pace was set for the Honolulu swimmers. One of the largest crowds seen at Sutro Baths in a long time witnessed the exciting card, every event of which was marked by a gruelling struggle for first honors.

One of the big surprises of the day was the defeat of Duke Kahanamoku by V. Riethel in the fifty-yard event, Kahanamoku coming second by a scant few inches, Bob Small, Kahanamoku's former conqueror and keen rival, finishing third, just a few inches behind the doughty champion from the Islands. It was a great race, the three swimmers racing nearly shoulder to shoulder throughout the course. Kahanamoku and Small bumped during the race and this probably had some effect on the final result. The course was covered in twenty-four and one-fifth seconds.

The only first honors for Hawaii were taken by Lane in the juvenile race over the fifty-yard course. "Stubby" Kruger was second, Malcolm of the Olympics finishing third. Twelve young swimmers entered in this event, which was closely contested.

Hawaii Well Represented.

Hawaii was well represented at the meeting. A number of those who are here to take part in the ground-breaking exercises for Hawaii's building at the Panama-Pacific Exposition joined with the Coast sojourners from the Islands in cheering for the plucky swimmers from the mid-Pacific metropolis. They proved good rooters, too, the close and exciting finishes of every event in which the Island boys took part affording ample opportunity for the cheering which marked each race.

Kahanamoku did not make as good a showing as had been expected. His friends and supporters claim that he was not in condition to enter the events, having been exhausted as a result of the qualification races held Saturday.

New Record for 440 Yards.

Langer, the long distance man, swam a remarkable race in the 440 yards, and he was paced for most of the way by Hebner. The latter covered three hundred yards in very fast time, with Langer right on his heels. Wilhelm of Honolulu stuck to his men well, and for a time appeared to have a good chance. However, at the half-way mark Hebner, Langer and P. McGillivray pulled away from the Honolulu representative, and a ding-dong race eventuated to the 400-yard post. There Langer drew away and sprinted for the line, which he crossed thirty feet ahead of McGillivray. The time was five minutes twenty-two and one-fifth seconds, which is a world's tank record for the distance.

In the half-mile Langer again showed his quality, and he won easily from P. McGillivray. Wilhelm was third, a long way behind, and Duke Kahanamoku did not start in the race.

Malcolm of the Olympics took the novice race, over fifty yards, from a field of ten. A. Cunha swam into second place and gave the winner a hard tussle for the honors. The whole ten swimmers were fairly close together at the finish.

Breast Stroke Record.

The 200 yards, breast stroke race, brought out six competitors, and they swam well together for one hundred yards. Then McDermott, who is a very powerful swimmer, forged ahead and crossed the line ahead of Sundman, and won in the record time of 2 minutes 49 4-5 seconds. McGillivray was third.

The relay race over a three hundred yards course, was the final contest and proved a most exciting event. Four teams started. Representatives of the Illinois, Healani, Hui Nalu and Olympic clubs met, and the excitement ran high from pistol shot to pistol shot. Illinois won, with Healani second, Hui Nalu third and Olympic fourth. The American record for the distance was broken, when the Illinois men finished in the remarkably fast time of 2 mins. 44 3-5 seconds.

Results in Full.

The full results of yesterday's races were as follows:

Fifty yards dash; final—Riethel, first; Duke Kahanamoku, second; Small, third. Time, 24 1-5 seconds.

440 yards—Langer, first; P. McGillivray, second; Wilhelm, third. Time, 5 mins. 22 1-5 seconds.

200 yards, breast stroke—McDermott, first; Sundman, second; E. McGillivray, third. Time, 2 mins. 49 4-5 seconds.

880 yards—Langer, first; P. McGillivray, second; Wilhelm, third. No time called.

Juvenile race—Lane, first; S. Kruger, second.

Novice race—Malcolm, first; A. Cunha, second.

Relay race—Illinois, first; Healani, second; Hui Nalu, third; Olympic, fourth. Time, 2 mins 44 3-5 seconds.

Doctor Rupert Blue Reports

Doctor Rupert Blue Reports New Orleans Situation as Satisfactory.

NEW ORLEANS, July 6.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) —Unrelenting war against the bubonic plague was urged by the ministers of New Orleans from their pulpits yesterday.

Dr. Rupert Blue, sent here by the federal government to direct the campaign against the disease, reported that the situation is now satisfactory to him and that precautionary measures against a spread of the malady are well in force.

A force of professional rat catchers now en route here from San Francisco, are expected to arrive during the middle of the week to aid in the work of exterminating the rats infesting the city.

Supporters of Republican Candidate for Delegate Will Hold Precinct Meetings.

It is confidently expected that the personnel of the Charles A. Rice Campaign Committee will be completed this week, the officers of which are F. T. P. Waterhouse, chairman; Albert Horner, secretary-treasurer, and A. L. MacKaye, assistant secretary. Pleasant headquarters have been opened in Room 38 of the Alexander Young Hotel, and a sign has been placed outside the headquarters fronting on Bishop street, near King, bearing the legend, "Headquarters—Charles A. Rice —for Delegate to Congress."

Meetings of the committee are held every day at noon. Plans for the campaign, already well under way, are now perfected. Considering the extremely short time which has elapsed since Senator Rice made the official announcement of his willingness to stand as a candidate for Delegate to Congress a surprising public sentiment in his behalf has developed.

This evening there will be a meeting of the supporters of Charles A. Rice in the fourth precinct of the fifth district, at the corner of Wilder avenue and Punahou street. A number of speakers will be present, and it is expected that a precinct committee will be appointed to take charge of the campaign in the fourth precinct and whoop things up until the last ballot has been cast next November, as well as at the primary election on September 12 next.

Another meeting this evening will be in the second precinct of the fourth district. This will be in the vacant store in Moiliili, near the old Moiliili church. It is believed that there will be an excellent attendance in this precinct meeting, when one or more committees will probably be appointed to look after the interests of Senator Rice there. All those interested in the candidacy of Senator Rice are invited to be present.

Other meetings in other precincts will be held during the week and already so many citizens of all classes have come forward and openly announced their preference for Senator Rice that there appears to be no question as to the success of these meetings.

KAHANAMOKU WINS BOTH RACES

Broke Last Year's A. A. U. Record in Two Twenty and Defeated Man Who Made It—In Hundred Yards Came Within One-Fifth Second of His World's Record—Cunha Third in the Hundred.

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Before the eyes of thousands of people, as many as could conveniently pack the Sutro Baths, Duke Kahanamoku yesterday again made good his title as the premier swimmer of the nation in the first day of the finals held at the great swimming meet under the auspices of the American Amateur Union.

The lanky, bronze-hued Hawaiian human fish was at his best, and in the two races he entered there was at no time any question but that he was the best swimmer of the day. Although pressed by competitors almost his equal, Kahanamoku was at no time in danger of defeat. His victories were cheered to the echo by hundreds of Hawaiians and friends of Hawaii, who rooted for Duke and the other Honolulans. Thousands of others swelled the din of applause.

Won Hundred Yards.

The first race in which Kahanamoku competed yesterday was the 100-yard sprint, in which he finished first in fifty-four and four-fifths seconds, this being the time he has made on several occasions over this distance. He won this race yesterday without apparent effort, and had he been closer pressed it is believed that he would have broken his old record. This time was just one-fifth of a second slower than the world's record.

Rathiel, of the Illinois Swimming Club of Chicago, finished second, beating out George Cunha, of the Healani Club of Honolulu, by a very small margin. Cunha was given third place. Before the race Cunha was considered Kahanamoku's most formidable rival, and Rathiel's performance in finishing second was a surprise which was not looked for or anticipated.

American Championship.

In the 220-yard race Duke Kahanamoku earned another notable victory, swimming away from the field and finishing first in two minutes, twenty-six and four-fifths seconds. The Hawaiian was easily the master of the situation in this race and proved his mastery in water navigation by the ease with which he won the race.

McGillvray, of the Illinois Swimming Club of Chicago, finished second, and Ernie Smith, of the Olympic Club of San Francisco, came in third. The race as between the second and third men was a pretty one, owing to the closeness of the finish. For a time it seemed as if McGillvray and Smith would finish in a dead heat.

Kahanamoku's performance in this race was a truly marvelous one. He smashed McGillvray's A. A. U. record, which the latter made last year at Pittsburgh, of two minutes and twenty-nine seconds, by two and one-fifth seconds, and came within one and two-fifths seconds of equaling Daniels' world record, made some time ago.

Other Races Today.

There were no other races yesterday in which Hui Nalu or Healani swimmers competed. The fifty-yard and other distance races will be held today, and followers here of water sports are looking forward to these with keen anticipation.

Dolly Mings a Winner.

In the fifty-yard women's swimming race, held yesterday, Dolly Mings of Los Angeles finished first in thirty-three and two-fifths seconds; Marguerite Brack was second, and Dolly Meyers came in third. The race was very interesting and was the occasion for a great ovation as Dolly Mings crossed under the finishing wire.

HAIKU HOMESTEADERS WOULD BUILD CANNERY

The homesteaders of the Haiku district are again trying to get together on the matter of a cooperative cannery —or, to be more correct, are endeavoring to find means of financing such a plant, for there is not much difference of opinion at present upon the desirability of some such plan, says the Maui News.

The meeting, which was to have been held last Saturday evening, was postponed on account of rain to Friday evening of this week. At this meeting it was expected that a new form of constitution would be adopted and various changes made in the bylaws.

M'CARN DEFENDS HIMSELF AT HOME

Federal District Attorney Continues His Argument in Nashville Newspaper.

Resuming the argument of his case through the press of his home city, United States District Attorney McCarn of Honolulu, in a long article published in the Nashville Banner of Nashville, Tennessee, of June 17, declares that he has been completely vindicated of the charges made against him by "petty criminals" and the "large interests that feel they would rest better if I were not in this Territory." His letter and the full text of the decision of the supreme court in the proceeding in which he was charged with malpractise and unprofessional conduct are printed in full in the Banner, under the heading "Jeff McCarn Justified." His letter follows:

Honolulu, T. H., June 3, 1914.

The Nashville Banner, Nashville, Tennessee—Gentlemen: I noticed a reference in a recent issue of your paper to an effort that had been made here to have me disbarred, and in view of the fact that your information was obtained from one of the unfriendly papers here, I was done an injustice by the publication. One would infer from the newspaper report that while the attorney general of this Territory had dismissed the charges that had been made against me as unfounded, yet his opinion did not entirely clear me of at least negligence in the matter.

"I know that you are disposed to treat me with the utmost fairness and to give me a little more than my share of your space in order to protect me from the assaults that are being made upon me here. I, therefore, ask that you immediately publish the opinion of the Supreme Court of this territory in that case. The truth is I have been assaulted from every angle—not only from the petty criminals but by the large interests that feel they would rest better if I were not in this territory. Their assaults, however, have been made upon me indirectly, but none the less forcefully. A former Judge of the Supreme Court has been for weeks maintained in Washington for the purpose of procuring my removal. He has not yet succeeded. Disbarment proceedings were brought against me two or three months ago by a disreputable friend of the criminal element. The attorney general of this territory is somewhat under the influence of my political enemies and while he dismissed the charges, his report to the Supreme Court was couched in such language as I considered offensive. While he found me not guilty of any willful or malicious misconduct he rather indicated by his opinion that I should have been more careful. I thereupon moved the Supreme Court to strike his report from the files and make a thorough and complete investigation of all the facts to ascertain whether or not I had been guilty of either improper conduct or negligent conduct. The Supreme Court examined the entire record and while refusing to strike his report from the files, because they held that would leave the record incomplete, a reading of the opinion of that court will show that I was not only vindicated but my course approved by the Supreme Court.

"This is only one of the many assaults that have been made upon me, and I hope to be able to get through all of them with equal success.

"The opinion of the Supreme Court which I would ask you to publish, is herewith enclosed. Thanking you for your courtesy in this matter, I am,

"Respectfully,

"JEFF M'CARN."

CHECK PASSER CAUGHT BY SHERIFF CROWELL

Sheriff Crowell, who went to Hawaii in search of Fred L. Smith, after failing to locate his man in Honolulu, wirelessed on Wednesday that his mission had been successful. Smith, as he gave his name at the First National Bank, where he passed a bogus check for $25, is the man who also posed as "Senator Warren's son" at Lahaina, in an effort to get another check cashed. Sheriff Crowell located his party on the Kona coast of the Big Island. He is expected back with him today.

It has been learned that under another name Smith worked for a time for the Lord-Young Company in Honolulu. It is believed that he is a professional crook and has been hiding in the Islands.

The local bank was largely instrumental in running Smith down, and was prepared to have continued the search on the mainland had it been necessary. —Maui News.

2500 WITNESS RACES AT KAHULUI

Twenty-eighth Annual Fourth of July Celebration and Race Meet on Valley Island Proves Success —Close Finishes Mark Trotting Event—Oahu and Other Islands Well Represented.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

WAILUKU, Maui, July 5.—Oldtimers declare that the twenty-eighth annual Fourth of July celebration and race meet of the Maui Racing Association held Saturday at Kalawinsburg, Kahului, was the best in the last ten years, though the attendance was not as large as in former years. Nevertheless, about 2500 enthusiasts yelled themselves hoarse at the race meet. The merit of the meet came in a fast track—the dust being laid by an early morning rain— a splendid card of two harness and six running events and the many slashing and driving finishes. It is estimated that at least 500 visitors from Oahu and other outside islands were present.

Principal interest centered about the free-for-all trot and pace in which the old rivals, McPhee's Denervo and Hollinger's Welcome Boy, hooked up. Race followers said without equivocation that the first heat of this event was the best heat ever paced on the course.

The two sidewheelers raced twice around the track like a team, hub to hub, Denervo shoving his nose under the wire in the lead by less than a length. The mile was reeled off in the remarkably fast time of 2:12 3-5, which established a new track record, the former mark being 2:15, also held by Denervo.

In the second heat Carey again sent Denervo out in front but Gibson drove hard in the back stretch and made up the distance. Again they hooked up like a team and daylight could not be seen between the two horses until Gibson sent Welcome Boy under the wire a length to the good in a terrific drive down the stretch.

Welcome Boy's Game Finish.

In the third Denervo was out again in front and took the pole from Welcome Boy at the first turn. Welcome Boy, however, showed plenty of heart, closing up the gap and hanging on gamely. On the first lap in front of the grandstand Carey was whipping hard and the fast pace threw Welcome Boy off his feet, but Gibson steadied him with about six lengths showing between as the back stretch was entered. Here came the prettiest drive of the day when Gibson urged Welcome Boy and wheeled past Denervo on the far stretch turn. This terrific drive tired Denervo and Welcome Boy went under the wire traveling easily. Carey pulled up Denervo and wheeled at the wire.

In the fourth heat Gibson sent Welcome Boy out to win and the big gelding responded with a wonderful exhibition of staying qualities. Denervo hung on until the seven-eighths and then quit, Carey pulling up at the stables and Welcome Boy finishing alone. It is estimated that $3000 changed hands as the result of the wagering on this event.

Both Maui Boy and El Oro also carried heavy loads of money in the 2:15 class pace and trot. This also was a sensational event. Maui was naturally the favorite, but the Hawaii entry had many admirers. In the first heat Patterson sent Maui out at a fast clip and raced El Oro off his feet, the black horse breaking repeatedly and narrowly escaped being outside the flag. Maui backers generally believed that if Patterson had driven out in the first lap that El Oro would have been shut out.

In the second heat Judd was still unable to steady El Oro and the black horse came trailing Maui under the wire on a run.

In the third heat Maui left his feet on the first turn and El Oro shot into the lead and was never headed. Maui broke repeatedly and Patterson was compelled to run him a full eighth to get inside the flag. In the fourth heat El Oro was as steady as a clock, Maui could not be kept on his feet and was distanced.

Umpqua Proves Surprise.

A big upset of dope came in the free-for-all running race when L. D. Warren's Umpqua, Cal Leonard up, romped under the wire two good lengths ahead of Lucas' Harvester, the big favorite in the betting. Leonard sent Umpqua into the lead on the first turn and was never headed. This event provided the only unpleasant feature of the day. Harvester was a bad actor and the field was at the post for nearly half an hour.

McPhee's Athlone, Rollins up, ran two great races, beating the big favorite Major Collier, owned by Burghelli and with Carroll up, in the Hawaiian bred half-mile event and also taking the measure of Fernandes' Rainbow in the five-eighths mile Hawaiian bred event.

Von Tempsky's Wallaby, a two-year-old, showed great promise by romping home in the lead of the half-mile Hawaiian bred event, and crowding Lacey's Young Lady hard in the free-for-all for ponies. It is the intention of the owner to make a polo pony of Wallaby.

Rollins brought another winner under the wire when he sent Silis out in front in the Japanese owned event and was never headed.

Weather conditions were ideal, there being entire absence of dust and the glare of the sun hidden by a light cloudiness. The track management was splendid. Kahului, Wailuku and other towns of Maui made the day a holiday and everyone went to the races. Hilo sent a delegation, but Oahu fell far short of the crowds it has sent in the past. After the races the crowd thronged to the ball park and saw a fast game between the All-Service team and the Maui All-Stars, the soldiers winning by the score of 10 to 2. Lawson was in great form and the Mauians could not solve his delivery. The game was good until the eighth, when darkness came on and the soldiers fell on the Maui pitcher with a vengeance. At night there was a largely attended dance in the armory at Wailuku. Both the towns were decorated with flags and bunting and every automobile was draped in red, white and blue. The officials in charge of the races were as follows:

President—W. T. Robinson.

Vice President—R. A. Wadsworth.

Secretary and Treasurer — W. F. Crockett.

Executive Committee — Pix Cockett, A. McPhee, L. von Tempsky.
