THE APPEAL.

Terrible Tragedy—A Mother Murders Her Four Children and Commits Suicide.

A terrible tragedy took place near Grove City, a village nine miles from Columbus, Ohio, on Wednesday, the particulars of which we take from the Columbus Statesman:

"A woman by the name of Christiana Schilling, residing with her husband about a half a mile from Grove City, yesterday morning about one o'clock, during the absence of her husband, murdered her four children—three girls and a boy—by throwing them into a well thirty-five feet deep, and afterwards jumping in herself. It appears that Frederick Schilling, the husband, was attending a wedding party near Grove City when the deed was committed, and that the wife, Christiana Schilling, conveyed the children from their beds to the well, a distance of one hundred yards, while they were asleep, and then pitched them into it, and afterwards flung herself in. Neighbors passing the house, which is a miserable log cabin, standing about a quarter of a mile from the main road, say that they heard the mother and her children singing a hymn about ten o'clock at night.

"The husband and father, it seems, did not return from the wedding party until daylight, and before that time a lady neighbor having occasion to draw water from the well, had discovered the bodies of Mrs. Schilling and the four children floating on the surface. She immediately gave the alarm, and several gentlemen came to the spot and raised the mother and her four children from the well. The family consisted of a boy named Valentine, 10 years of age; Christiana, a girl 12 years; Caroline, 5 years, and Augusta, 3 years of age. Mrs. Schilling was about thirty-six years of age, and was, to all appearances, an intelligent, healthy, and handsome woman. When our reporter visited the house the dead bodies of the five unfortunate beings were laid upon two beds in the only sleeping apartment in the cabin, and a more melancholy spectacle it has never been our misfortune to behold. The children all looked healthy, robust and beautiful, and, with the exception of a slight scar on the forehead of the boy, no marks of violence were visible. A crowd of people of both sexes was in the room, all awe-stricken by the horrible catastrophe.

"No evidence elicited by the jury of inquest goes to show that any other person than the mother could have committed the deed. It is generally believed that she was labouring under a fit of insanity, as it was stated that she had, about a year ago, attempted to commit suicide during a fit of lunacy to which she was subject."

CHESTNUT HILL GRAMMAR SCHOOL,
Near LaGrange, Tenn.
A YOUNG solicitation of friends and patrons, I have determined to establish a Family School, of a limited number of Boys (none at any age under sixteen, and it is the intention to make it, in the full sense, a home school, a nursery for thoroughly drilling lads in the English Branches Classics, Mathematics,
AND
Modern Languages,
Preparatory to entering Colleges. The private family school is the best and cheapest, and withall, freer from all those evils unavoidable in the larger and professedly public schools. Boys will be under the parental roof and the circle of home influence. In the family of the competent and conscientious teacher, rather than in a hotel, they will be cared for; they will be in the mind a parents; no school is so well calculated to promote the mental, moral and physical culture of boys, and with this view, a highly eligible location has been purchased with ample buildings, and new and substantial additions to the latest and most approved plan. A Campus, Ball Alley and Gymnasium, are to be in readiness by the opening of the School.
