LOSERS WILL NOT FIGHT WINNERS

Candidates Who Were Nominated At Primaries Are Modest in Victory and Those Who Failed Are Good-Natured in Defeat

ALL FACTIONS WANT REPUBLICAN VICTORY

Now That Preliminary Contest Is Political History Issues Become Party Concern and Along Partisan Lines Battle Will Wage

Hawaii's political aspirants have come out of the late primary, modest in their victory or good-natured in their defeat.

This was shown by their actions and by the statements which a number of them gave to The Advertiser last night.

In almost every case the losers promised to support the winners in the party at the coming general elections, declaring now on not it is a party fight, requiring the assistance and vigorous support of every party man.

Possibly their promises of support were made with some mental reservations. However, they haven't been called upon yet to make them good.

Kuhio Sees Victory

Prince Kuhio sees an overwhelming victory ahead of him and the other Republicans in the general elections. George R. Carter is confident of polling a heavy vote, and says he is not discouraged over the outcome of the primary. He will run against L. L. McCandless and Kuhio for Delegate, making it a three-cornered fight.

Harry Murray is ready to take off his coat and help John C. Lane get elected, and J. C. Cohen, who ran for the mayoralty nomination also on the Republican ticket, stands by to be of assistance to Lane.

With united Republican support, Lane says he is confident of success in his fight against J. J. Fern, incumbent. Fern is not saying much himself. Though he started out to get elected in the primary, it is understood that he is well satisfied with the result of the election.

McCandless and other Democrats who made the nomination look forward to the general election eagerly. McCandless says his vote Saturday was by no means an indication of the strength of his party, as will be shown, he says, in the November balloting.

Some of the Statements

Following are some of the statements:

DELEGATE KALANIANAOLE,—The fight has been a hard and a strenuous one, and I am glad that it is all over. To the large number of voters of this Territory who showed by their vote that they believe that I am the right man to represent this Territory in Washington, I wish to extend my thanks.

Sizing up the situation now that it is all over, I feel confident that the election in November will be a Republican landslide. Although the vote of Fern and Rose does not indicate this, still I believe that many Republicans voted for these two candidates.

I believe that a large number of candidates on the Republican ticket will be elected on November 4 by large majorities.

GEORGE R. CARTER—I am not at all discouraged over the result of the primary. I have not seen the complete returns yet, but from what I have seen it is clear that the Democratic strength in the Territory is greatly weakened.

I did not expect to poll many votes in the primary, the fight in the Republican ranks being so intense. In fact, as the primary drew near I slackened up on my campaign.

"I shall enter the campaign for the November election, with enthusiasm and confidence. There will be no letting up from this time on in my fight.

Lane Is Grateful

JOHN C. LANE—I appreciate the assistance rendered me by my friends, who always supported me in my former campaigns, and who strongly supported me in the present one. Their support proves that they are with me in this fight. It is a consolation to me to find that under the primary, a nomination is the direct expression of the wishes of the people. As the Republican nominee for mayor, I am to be the party's standard-bearer on the municipal ticket.

To my opponents, I extend the hand of friendship, and hope, in the interests of the Republican party, to carry the election in November with their assistance. I am sure the office of mayor of the city and county of Honolulu will be in the control of the Republican party after November.

Thanking the voters, for the votes I have received in the primary, I pledge myself if elected to the office of mayor, that I will give an efficient and economical administration of the affairs of the city and county; and shall abide by the platform of the Republican party, which to my mind will cover the needs of the city for the two years coming.

TREATMENT FOR DYSENTERY.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by a dose of castor oil will effectually cure the most stubborn cases of dysentery. It is especially good for summer diarrhoea in children. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaii.
