TWO RECORDS SMASHED AT ALEXANDER FIELD

Camera Man Plays Important Part In Track and Field Meet of Amateur Athletic Union —Judges Declare Kamehameha and High Tied In Points, But Competitors Argue.

(From Sunday Advertiser)

McKinley High School and Kamehameha Schools finished neck and neck in the annual Amateur Athletic Union meet at Alexander Field yesterday afternoon with forty points allowed by the judges to each. St. Louis College was next with thirty-four points and Punahou last with thirty-one points.

At the close of the meet O. P. Soares, representing McKinley High, filed a protest with Referee Harry H. Holt against the decision of the judges in the fifty yards dash, it being the contention of Soares that Melim finished third in this event, with Hila second and Mills fourth. Should the protest stand, this will give McKinley one additional point and take one away from Kamehameha.

From the sidelines it looked very much as if Melim was the third man to breast the tape, with Hila second and Mills fourth. So close, though, did Hila, Mills and Melim come to the tape and so varied were the opinions as to how the men finished, that it is to be a hard question for the committee to decide.

Delinquent Officials

As an athletic meet, yesterday's gathering did not compare with previous ones by any means. Several of the men listed to act as officials did not show up, and it was five minutes past two before the first event was under way.

There was also considerable dissatisfaction among many of the entries over the allowing of Mills and Woods of the Twenty-fifth Infantry to compete, it being claimed that both these men have taken part in events where money was the prize. The feeling was much stronger in the Woods case than against Mills, from the fact that the former played with the Twenty-fifth Infantry baseball team against professional ball teams and with professional ball players, Goliah in particular being a professional, at one time having been a member of the Cuban Giants team.

Punahou was minus the services of Harold Baldwin, owing to his having been debarred from the meet for having played on the Maui team in the Mid-Pacific Carnival series with the Robinson brothers, Foster and Alvin. This, in the opinion of the school's entries, has much to do with Punahou finishing so low in points.

Heinrichs Ties Record

In the first event on the program, the 120-yards hurdle, W. H. Heinrichs, a post entry for Punahou, took an early lead and was never headed, reaching the tape three yards in advance of Elisha Andrews of McKinley in the fast time of 17 1-5 seconds, equalling the Islands record, made by F. M. Priesell last year.

Three trial heats were run off in the fifty-yards dash, Woods, Hila and Mills of Kamehameha, Melim and Wong of McKinley and M. Fernandez of St. Louis qualifying. The St. Louis man was off to a poor start, but putting all his speed forward in the last ten yards, Fernandez beat Hila and Mills to the tape in 5 2-5 seconds.

Stanley Carey of St. Louis had little trouble annexing the mile run, winning from Joseph Stickney of McKinley by fully twenty-five yards, with George Machado of Kamehameha third. The latter took too much time in getting into his stride, and this accounts for his finishing third instead of second. Carey's time was 4 minutes 52 1-5 seconds.

Melim, Mills, Woods and M. Fernandez qualified for the 100-yards dash, and again the McKinley star outran the greatly touted Mills, beating him handily, with Fernandez third, in 10 2-5 seconds.

Benny Mills of Kam finished in the 440-yards run with Brownie Rice of McKinley second and Midkiff of Punahou third. The Punahou man was going great guns as the trio came into the home stretch and looked a winner until with forty yards of the tape. Here Midkiff swerved first to the right and then to the left, and Mills shot to the front, followed by Rice to the tape.

The 220-yards hurdle race proved a fizzle and Dower who took first place had everything his own way, three seconds after the crack of the starter's gun for Carey stopped running and Coney knocked over enough hurdles before the race was half run to disqualify himself.

Smith Wins Half Mile

The half mile run also proved a fizzle. With the start of the race, Meinecke jumped up, ran in front of Smith, who was leading and tearing down the stretch, crossed the line apparently a winner. His little trick was soon discovered though and he was disqualified and the race given to Smith with Harrison second and Carey third. In the excitement, the timers failed to note Smith's time although they did time Meinecke as having won in 2 minutes 8 2-5 seconds. This of course had to be thrown out.

Some of those on the lines claimed to have caught Smith in 2 minutes and 9 seconds but the same could not be taken as official and the race will have to go to Smith without being credited with a time.

Melin Defeats Mills

The 220-yards dash brought Melin and Mills again in competition and the McKinley man beat the Kam man handily, making the claims of his school that he beat Mills in the fifty yards dash all the stronger. With the crack of the gun, Melin went out in front and breezed all the way, winning in 23 4-5 seconds from Mills with Baptiste of St. Louis third.

Mills of Kamehameha finished the last relay in half mile relay and the school was awarded the five points which was allowed for this event.

Next to the high jump, the pole vaulting was the feature of the meet and while no records were smashed, the competition was keen and some excellent vaulting was done by the contestants. With the bar at ten feet three inches, George Lindley of Punahou cleared it in faultless style. Elisha Andrews of McKinley and Hipa of the Kam got over at ten feet two inches but failed when the bar was lifted an additional inch.

Established a Record

D. F. Nicholson, Jr., representing McKinley in the discus throw, hung up a new record for the Islands by putting the discus 112 feet 2 inches. Kong hurled the discus 102 feet and 6 inches while Kanae got it 98 feet and 4 inches.

The real event of the afternoon was the high jump and both Brown of Punahou, the winner and D. F. Nicholson, Jr., second place man, gave a fine exhibition of getting over the bar. Nicholson who is fully six feet tall, did all his jumping from the side while Brown ran straight ahead to clear the bar. Both jumpers cleared the bar at every mark up to five feet 2 inches. When it was lifted to 5 feet 2 3-4 inches, Nicholson failed to clear without interference while Brown did so and was declared the winner. A merry tussle took place for third place with Hipa for Kam, Andrews for McKinley and Lind- took place for third place with Hipa for Andrews cleared the bar their school would have won the meet. Lindley, though, beat them out and gathered the hard fought for points for his school.

Braders, a new comer in amateur circles won the sixteen pound hammer put with O'Sullivan of St. Louis second and Bertleman third.

In the throwing of the sixteen pound hammer Kanae of St. Louis established a new islands record when he threw the same 106 feet, 11 inches. R. A. Lodham, for Punahou, who was barred owing to the non-residence clause, threw the hammer 129 feet over the embankment but this was not allowed either as an exhibition or officially.

Nye of St. Louis, threw the javelin 135 feet 3 inches, winning from Andrews with 128 feet and from T. C. Melin with 121 feet 7 inches. M. Fernandez jumped 20 feet 1 1-4 inches in the broad jump for first place and W. H. Meinecke negotiated the one mile awlking race in 8 minutes and 44 seconds.

RITCHIE IS CREDITED WITH BEATING WELSH

NEW YORK, March 12.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—According to the newspaper men at the ringside last night, Willie Ritchie of California and former lightweight champion, outfought and outpointed Freddie Welsh of England and champion, in their ten-round contest, which went the limit.

By unanimous agreement of all the sporting writers at the ringside, every round was Ritchie's. Welsh, however, retains his title of world's champion lightweight, as under the New York boxing law no verdicts are allowed.

There were no knockdowns and both men left the ring unmarked. Although Ritchie could not bring over effectively his punishing right cross, Welsh was unable to smother him in the clinches and dance away from him in the open, as he did in their twenty-round London bout last year, when Ritchie lost the title. This time the speed was with the American.

The champion showed what keen sporting critics for some time have asserted, that Welsh has been going back ever since he came to America.

CITY HOSPITAL PLANS WILL BE CONSIDERED

Hope is now expressed that an understanding will be arrived at by the supervisors and the board of directors of the Queen's hospital by which the city will secure an emergency hospital, to be established on the Queen's hospital grounds.

Supervisor Dan Logan stated yesterday that he feels that the mayor as well as the supervisors are of open mind on this question and that there is little doubt that any reasonable proposition tending to the establishing of an emergency hospital for Honolulu will meet with official approval.

This question has been referred to the health committee and a meeting of that committee and the directors of the Queen's Hospital will be held next Tuesday at noon, when the situation will be discussed thoroughly.

SHORT SATURDAY SENATE SESSION

Lone Bill, Swift Routine and Arrangements To Meet Queen

Thirty minutes was all the time the senate required Saturday morning to handle the business on hand. This business opened with a communication from the territorial secretary, Wade Warren Thayer, notifying the senate that the Governor had signed act 3, which was house bill 6, relating to the use of school funds.

Then was received the report of the North and South Kona (Hawaii) water investigation, with estimates, maps and recommendations made by the division of hydrography, bureau of agriculture and forestry, in conjunction with the United States geological survey.

It is recommended that a law be enacted providing for the forming of local water users' associations, which will permit the credit of the Territory to be used in financing such projects as may be deemed of sound engineering and economic value by an administering board of territorial officials, without the necessity of direct appropriations by the Territory. The report was submitted by G. K. Larrison, superintendent of hydrography.

Senator Makekau introduced senate bill 44, providing for levying on shares of corporate stock and the sale thereof. The measure was at once referred to the judiciary committee, following the new policy of the senate to refer bills direct to the appropriate committees, where possible, on first reading by title.

Senator Robinson reported the printing of three bills of the day before, S. B. 41, 42 and 43, and these were also sent to the judiciary committee. The first two are Mikaele's, and deal respectively with attorneys and magistrates in district courts. S. B. 42 is Makekau's bill, and has to do with the terms of circuit courts. Ten house bills which had passed first reading in the senate on Friday, were yesterday sent to committee.

Senator Quinn put in a petition from the court reporters, asking for an increase in pay. The judiciary committee will look into the matter.

Senator Isukea reported that he had arranged with Queen Liliuokalani for the usual biennial call made by the senate. Wednesday next, at eleven o'clock in the morning, he said, would be convenient. President Chillingworth advised that the fifteen members meet in the senate chamber at ten-thirty o'clock of that day, so they could go to Washington Place in a body.

KOREAN SHOT BY UNKNOWN GUN MAN

Kon Henny Soo, a Korean, was shot in the abdomen by an unknown man last night. The shooting occurred at Red Hill. Soo was taken to the Queen's Hospital in a serious condition.

He told the police that he was walking on the road when a man bumped into him. He remonstrated. Words followed and the man shot him. He could give little on which the police might base a search.

Despite his bad wound, Soo staggered a mile to the railroad station, where he was found by Policeman David Kahanui. A motorist who gave the name of Irvin had heard the man groaning at the roadside. He hurried to a plantation and telephoned the police. An automobile, bearing Chief of Detectives McDuffie, Deputy Sheriff Julius W. Asch and Sheriff Rose went in search of the man.

Their search failed. Soo had arisen and staggered to the station, where he was found.

Powder marks were found on the man's skin by Captain Baker, although there were none on his shirt. He evidently was shot at very close range. The bullet had not been probed for last night, so the caliber of the pistol was not known.

McDuffie took an interpreter to the hospital and obtained a more detailed statement from the wounded man than his broken English had supplied. With this information the chief immediately started a search for the assailant.

Soo is thirty-six years old.

HISTORICAL STONE IS FOUND ON HAWAII

An historical stone upon which a number of the Hawaiian warriors of old were offered up as sacrifices by their conqueror, Kamehameha I, has been found in Hawaii. The relic of the days of barbarism is now on the property of John Scott near Hilo and Secretary Deyo of the Hilo board of trade has suggested that it be brought to the Crescent City and made one of the tourist attractions there. The curio in many ways resembles the Aztec sacrificial stones found in the Aztec ruins in Mexico and archaeologists have claimed that it was from the Aztecs that the Hawaiians first learned of the weird and cruel sacrifical rites which prevailed in these Islands during the days Kamehameha I., was fighting to establish his supremacy.

The question of acquiring the stone was brought up at a recent meeting of the board of trade at Hilo and if proper arrangements can be made it will be brought to that city and placed in some public place, probably the library lot.

President C. E. Wright of the Hilo board of trade appointed E. F. Nichols to consult with Mr. Scott and arrange if possible to have the historic stone brought to Hilo.

FLEET MAY NOT COME TO PACIFIC

Certain, However, That Secretary Daniels Will Visit With Warships

Honolulu may not receive a visit from a squadron of battleships of the Atlantic fleet this summer, as originally planned by the secretary of the navy. The reason is that the Atlantic fleet may not be sent to the Pacific Coast on account of the European war.

However, it is practically certain that Secretary Daniels will visit Honolulu to inspect the Pearl Harbor naval base and that he will make the journey by warship. In the event it is decided to keep the Atlantic fleet on the East Coast, the secretary would select for the Hawaii trip ships of the Pacific fleet which are not engaged in patrol of the Mexican coast. Discussing the subject the Washington Post says:

"While the present plans for naval operations contemplate the starting of the Atlantic fleet from Hampton Roads for San Francisco, by way of the Panama Canal, on July 4, many officers on duty at the navy department do not believe that it will be found advisable to send the fleet to the West Coast at that time, and the outlook is that it may be found better policy to retain the fleet in the Atlantic, on account of the international situation.

"It had been planned to have the fleet leave Hampton Roads for San Francisco this month, but that was postponed because of the present uncertain conditions and ostensibly on account of the slides in the Panama Canal. This necessitated provision of work for the fleet until July. Rear Admiral Frank F. Fletcher, commander-in-chief of the fleet, therefore was requested to recommend a program of operations for the various vessels between return of the fleet from Guantanamo, Cuba, about the first of April, until June 1, and he also was asked for his views on the proposed fleet review at New York and maneuvers off that port suggested for the month of June. A reply to these requests now is on the way from the flagship Wyoming at Guantanamo.

"It is probable, following the custom of the past few years, that the fleet will engage in long-range individual, division and fleet target practise off the Capes of the Chesapeake in April, and that it will go to Narragansett Bay, R. I., for torpedo work in May. During these months the vessels due for overhaul will go to their home yards for that purpose.

"Congress already has enacted legislation for the Hampton Roads exercises before departure of the fleet for the West Coast; and, if the New York exercises are held, they, of course, will precede the Hampton Roads affair."

TOBACCO IN KONA IS GOING AHEAD

The Kona tobacco industry has reached the stage where all that is needed to put it on a sound basis is additional capital. There has been no difficulty in selling the good grades at fair prices. The poor grades of short leaf in dark colors also find a ready market at the low prices which such goods always command.

The growers have learned through experience that only a small percentage of any crop is of lengths and colors to command top prices so that production costs must be based on the profits to be made on crop averages and not on prices received for the small percentage of best grades.

Values depend on fashion and taste on the part of smokers, color and burn being the standard in wrapper grades. Flavor and burn fix the values for filler grades irrespective of color of leaf.

Now that the producers have learned the lesson that no crop is ever all wrapper, there being all lengths and all colors in every field, profitable production is solely a matter of getting the business end of production down to a business basis. Exceptional values will only be obtained for the Kona crop as a whole in exceptional years.

It is the exceptional returns in exceptional years, that make the tobacco industry so attractive, in which regard it differs not at all from cane. If the plantations were sure of three cent sugar for the next ten years the industry would be difficult to finance. It is the lure of four cent sugar with occasional spurts to five cents or more that adds the gambling interest to cane production, but whatever the price, costs must be kept down to within the three cent limit.

The tobacco pioneers fixed their expectations on maximum valuations for maximum yield and allowed production costs to be fixed on that basis. Instead of getting maximum prices for the entire crops produced in 1911, 1912 and 1913, values realized were only what the Connecticut or Florida growers would have considered fancy prices, and, production costs having been on a basis of maximum selling values the "fancy" prices obtained netted only a loss.

The failure of the industry up to this time can be put down to the unwise assumption on the part of growers that because the first crops brought high figures all subsequent crops would be equally valuable.

Love At First Sight Is Death To Old Troth

On Eve of Crossing Pacific To Wed, Girl Meets Fate At Exposition

Her meeting with a man at the Panama-Pacific exposition just as she was to sail to Hongkong to wed a Yale graduate led Miss Claire Catrina Johnson to change her mind and she was married in Los Angeles a few days later to Frank T. Price.

Miss Johnson, a daughter of Thomas L. Johnson, 2901 Francis street, Los Angeles, was to have sailed today on the steamer Tenyo Maru, which left here last Saturday, to meet her fiance in Hongkong. She had prepared her trousseau and had bidden her friends farewell.

As a last treat to herself in America she went to San Francisco to visit the Panama-Pacific exposition. There she met Price, member of the Price & Nelson Rubber Company, who fell in love with her on sight.

Price accompanied her back on the train to Los Angeles, and he was so persistent in his wooing that he finally won her, just as she was about to sail to the waiting Yale graduate across the Pacific.

MEL SHEPPARD INJURED

Melvin Sheppard, probably the foremost middle distance runner, has announced his retirement from competition as the result of injuries sustained at the New York Athletic Club show, February 11.

Sheppard was painfully injured while competing in a 300-yard event, crashing into a board fence, which tore his right arm above the elbow. He also was cut around the legs and splinters penetrated his arm. A surgeon took a piece of wood from his arm this afternoon.

Sheppard's retirement comes after nearly thirteen years of competition.
