JOHNSON TRAITOR TO PARTY BELIEF THROUGHOUT EAST

John Lyon, Private Secretary To Chairman Willcox, Voices Opinion of New York

DECLARES CANDIDATE WAS SURELY "DOUBLE-CROSSED"

Finds Colonel Roosevelt Support Actually Harmed Hughes In the Western States

"Hiram Johnson, Governor of California, senator-elect, and the Benedict Arnold of his party," is the man who defeated Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for the presidency at the last election, according to John Lyons, who was private secretary for Mr. Willcox, chairman of the Republican national committee during the recent campaign, and a leading lieutenant of William Barnes. Incidentally, Mr. Lyons, who arrived on the Lurline, asserts that the West feels bitter against Theodore Roosevelt and is inclined to believe that "Wall Street got to him and Perkins."

Mr. Lyons is a Republican in politics and has been prominent in the G. O. P. ranks of Manhattan Isle for years. He holds a post as appraiser of inheritances in the office of the city comptroller, which he left temporarily to take up his work for the national committee.

"What beat Hughes? is the question that I have been asked all along the line from New York to Honolulu," he said last night, "and it's a pretty hard question to answer, for there are a great many angles to the fight, and some of them were about as obvious as a German submarine just before she fires a torpedo.

"Back East, in the highest circles of the Republican party, we feel that there was something rotten in the California election—in short, that Hughes was double-crossed there. I do not mean by that necessarily that Johnson deliberately went to work to knife the candidate of the party, but that he saw a chance to help himself and make himself the biggest man in the West, and did so without any thought of what the result would be.

"He probably accomplished his object so far as California and the other Western States are concerned, but as a national figure I believe that he is dead. I am confident that he is regarded throughout the East as the Benedict Arnold of the Republican party in the last campaign; that he undoubtedly killed the chances that Hughes had for election, at least in California, and that that feeling will persist as long as Johnson is in public life. If ever the presidential bee buzzed about his head, he might just as well shoo it from him, for if he doesn't the Eastern States will.

"On my way through the country as I passed through Arizona, New Mexico and California, I found a state of affairs that puzzled me. I had fancied that Roosevelt was so strong out there that he could do almost anything he wishes, and that the people would stand back of him. Instead I discovered a marked sentiment against him. I talked to many prominent people in those States, and everyone told me that they wanted 'to hit Roosevelt,' as they were convinced that he had thrown down the Progressive party by his refusal to accept the nomination of the Bull Moose convention. One man told me, and others echoed his words, that 'Teddy was got to by Wall Street and so was Perkins.' Another said to me: 'We all feel sorry for Hughes, but we wanted to take a crack at Roosevelt for dumping the party, and we had to hit at him through Hughes.'

"After listening to so much of that talk I became convinced that one of the factors of the Wilson strength in those States was this very feeling, and that Roosevelt was a drag upon the Republican candidate."

MAYOR'S TRUSTY IS JAILED FOR ROBBERY

Prisoner Trapped By Detectives Confesses Guilt To Police

Using a small store room in the city hall to hide his loot, Kuanui, a trusty on duty in the mayor's office, was arrested yesterday by Chief McDuffie on a charge of burglary. Kuanui when arrested admitted his guilt and a search of the store room disclosed two gold watches, several pieces of jewelry and a number of valuable papers which had been given him to deliver.

Kuanui, who had only fifteen days more to serve, has been on duty in the mayor's office for some time. His method of operation was to visit a place with a letter which had been given him to deliver and ask for the person to whom the letter was addressed. While a search was being made in the directory Kuanui would gather up such loose articles as were in sight.

The specific charge against Kuanui is based on an attempt to rob the Bishop Restaurant and the sucking of the Y. W. C. A. homestead quarters on King Street Wednesday.

"TEDDY" SLINGSBY NOT DADDY'S CHILD

British House of Lords Holds Famous Youngster Is Son of Lillian Anderson

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)

LONDON, December 14—The house of lords today added another chapter to the sensational "Slingsby case," involving two continents, when it refused the appeal from the court of appeals, without calling the respondents, thus upholding the reversal of the lower court's decision that little "Teddy" Slingsby is the legitimate child of Lieut. and Mrs. C. R. Slingsby.

It is now held that the child has been proved to be the son of Lillian Anderson. In the latest decision, the authorities state that they regret the pain which the decision must cause "a gallant officer now serving his country."

This is one of the most noted cases in legal annals and has been fought out in American courts for the past several years. The case arose over charges that another baby was substituted for little "Teddy" Slingsby, son of Lieut. and Mrs. C. R. Slingsby and heir to $500,000 property of the Slingsby family in Yorkshire, England. The substitution was alleged to have been made in San Francisco. The claim was made that the real Slingsby baby, which was born in San Francisco on September 1, 1910, died and that the mother substituted another infant.

After the case had been thrashed out in San Francisco, the evidence was submitted to the probate court in London, which on February 3, 1915, decided that the present Slingsby baby is legitimate and that no substitution was made. Sir Edward Carson, Unionist leader, has been leading counsel for the contestant of the child's right to the estate.

CANADIAN DESTROYER LIMPS INTO HARBOR

Grilse Reported Lost Crawls Into Shelburne, Nova Scotia

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)

HALIFAX, Nova Scotia, December 15—The Canadian destroyer Grilse, which had been given up for lost, yesterday evening limped into the port of Shelburne, Nova Scotia, badly battered by the gale into which it had run while on the way to the Bermudas.

The Grilse reports a terrible experience, with the seas sweeping the frail craft and the wireless and other upper works torn away. Six of her crew perished in the storm, either by being swept overboard or through injuries received aboard from the smashing waters. Every officer and man among the suvivors is bruised, some having serious injuries.

COMMITTEE APPROVES COST OF LIVING PROBE

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)

WASHINGTON, December 14—The resolution of Congressman Borland of Missouri, ordering the federal trade commission to investigate the high cost of living, including the producing capacity of the United States, was favorably reported today by the judiciary committee. This resolution contemplates possible prosecution for violators of the anti-trust laws.

PETROGRAD FLOUTS OFFERS OF PEACE

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)

PETROGRAD, December 15 — The peace proposal of the governments of the Teutonic allies, as made by German Chancellor von Bethmann Hollweg in his address before the reichstag last Tuesday, is regarded by the Russian government as "an attempt to court public opinion and encourage the German people by putting the responsibility for the continuation of the war upon the Entente allies," according to an official statement issued here today by the Russian foreign office.

"The lack of sincerity and the object of the German proposals are evident," the statement says. "It is the firm determination of the members of the Entente to continue the war to final triumph, and that determination cannot be weakened by any illusory proposals of the enemy."

JAPANESE HELD ON CHARGE OF RUNNING BAWDY HOUSES

Three Japanese, two men and a woman, have been arrested by federal immigration officials and face deportation on charges of conducting houses of ill-fame. The alleged resorts are all outside of Iwilei.

Those in custody are Daiichi Inouye, alias S. Yamamoto; Tama Tanaka, alias Mrs. Tama Miyake, and Yoshimatsu Sakai. Harry B. Brown, acting inspector; Dr. Tomizo Karsunuma, interpreter, and D. A. Meek made the arrests. Date for hearing will be set later. Bond has been fixed at $1000 each.

Sakai is charged with conducting a house in School Street. The woman is alleged to have been running a resort in Fort Street. Inouye, it is alleged, conducted the Eagle rooming house as a place of assignation.

INSIDE STORY OF SHOOTING PUBLIC

Drunken Horseshoer Shot When Found In Kitchen By Fourth Cavalry Officer

From the official statement of the Thanksgiving night shooting at Schofield Barracks, in which a private who had broken into the quarters of Lieut. Dextar Rumsey, of the Fourth Cavalry, was wounded, it is made plain that the soldier was either too drunk to know what he was about or was burglariously inclined, in either event justifying the action of the officer.

According to a condensation of the statement made by Lieutenant Rumsey to the commanding officer of the Fourth, he was awakened by a noise in the kitchen of his quarters and got up to investigate. As he entered the kitchen he felt someone rising at his right and behind him, whereupon he fired, his bullet going through the man's shoulder and entering the stomach.

Investigation showed that the man, Horseshoer Alpheus Christjohn, of the Field Artillery, had entered through the window, from which he had removed the screen, and had crouched behind the kitchen door, with a heavy cake iron in his hand, when he heard the officer coming. The man was in the act of rising when the lieutenant shot, and it is the officer's belief that but for the quick shooting the intruder would have struck him down with the heavy iron implement. Christjohn is known to have been drinking on the day in question and is also known as a dangerous man when drunk.

Lieutenant Rumsey, with his wife and his mother, occupied the quarters. His mother, Mrs. M. E. C. Rumsey, had been booked since early in November to sail on the transport Thomas. She did sail on December 5 for the Coast.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Dextar Rumsey are still at Schofield Barracks.

SUGAR PRICES IN GOTHAM TREMBLE

Drop From 5.64 To 5.39 Cents Per Pound In Two Days' Time

With practically no Hawaiian sugar in the market, quotations on the New York market declined twice in the last two days, dropping from 5.64 to 5.52, and then to 5.39 cents a pound yesterday.

Advices to A. M. Nowell, manager of the Sugar Factors Company, showed a similar trend in the quotation on refined.

In New York the price quoted dropped five cents from $7.20 a hundred pounds, quoted December 5, to $7.15 a hundred pounds quoted Wednesday.

The market in San Francisco reflected the same tone. Refined dropped 25 points to $7.15 a hundred pounds yesterday morning from $7.40, quoted December 6.

The feature of the quotations is that the New York and the San Francisco prices for refined are on the same basis, when as a rule they are about 20 points different.

Locally it is pointed out that the lower quotations are probably partially brought about by the peace talk, but other more likely causes are blamed. This is the usual time for a decline in the price, and very heavy shipments of Cubans are entering New York at present. The harvest of the beet crop is also pointed out as a contributing factor.

ASPHALT JUMPS ONE MORE DOLLAR A TON

HILO, December 14—When the question of ordering asphalt for the permanent road around the island came before the supervisors last week there was a split and a hard fight by three of the supervisors against the purchase at this time of $33,000 worth of asphalt, especially as the Standard Oil Company of California notified the board that the former quoted price would be one dollar per ton extra, on account of the recent raise in freight per ton.

Supervisor Lyman led the fight against the expenditure and tying up of such a sum of money for asphalt, which will now average about twenty-one dollars a ton. He thought the asphalt should be ordered as it was needed.

Chairman Kauhane stated that the roads were going to pieces under the heavy traffic and it was better to build them of permanent material than as at present, especially as it would cost only about $600 a mile to lay the asphalt. He held that it is only justice to the people and taxpayers to build good roads that will last.

Supervisor Yates stated that he thought that concrete would be still better. Lyman, however, held that the board had no right to spend this money when it did not have it. Kauhane explained that the Hamakua roads were going to pieces, and that it was a pity.

Supervisor Cabriuha moved that the chairman be authorized to sign the contract and this was carried by a vote of four to three.

The asphalt will be delivered at various points around the island for the use of the road makers.

CIVILIANS RATHER THAN TROOPS BEST DISTRICT PATRONS

Poll of Visitors To Iwilei Made By Businessman Shows Surprising Results

PROMINENT MEN OF CITY AMONG THE FREQUENTERS

Investigator Comes To Defense of Enlisted Men With Facts and Figures To Aid

It is the civilians of Honolulu, not the soldiers of the various military posts, who are the principal supporters of commercialized vice in this city, according to a local business man who is an ex-soldier and who, for the honor of the Army, refutes the statement so frequently made that Honolulu, as an Army town, cannot get along without a restricted district.

This man, whose place of business is near Iwilei, was so aroused by the statements made two years ago, as they are being made today, that the soldier population of the island made the maintenance of Iwilei as a restricted district a public necessity, that he set about to disprove the charge. He went about the work systematically.

For two weeks, night after night, he stationed a man at the various exits and entrances of Iwilei with instructions to count the soldiers and civilians patronizing the houses of ill-fame. The count proved illuminating.

"Only on pay day, the business man said yesterday, did the number of soldiers visiting Iwilei equal the number of civilians. At other times the ratio was from fifteen to twenty-two civilians to one soldier!

"And yet the people of Honolulu have been trying to lay all the blame for vice conditions on the soldiers," he commented bitterly.

"I have been a soldier and I think I know what I'm talking about when I say that not ten per cent of the soldiers ever visit houses of prostitution. It is the civilians who support them. And it would surprise some people to know the class of civilians who visit such places regularly. When I was having the count made in Iwilei I saw men—married men, if you please—whom nobody would ever suspect of going to such places. Yet they were the most regular patrons of the bawdy houses."

KOREAN BANDIT WILL BE SENTENCED TO DEATH

Jury Finds Yee Yo Keuk Guilty of First Degree Murder

After less than five minutes' deliberation a jury in Judge Ashford's court, following a three day trial, yesterday found Yee Yo Keuk, charged with first-degree murder, guilty as charged. Sentence will probably be passed on the doomed man at nine o'clock tomorrow morning. The celebrated Korean bandit was defended by Attorney Noa W. Aluli, on assignment by the court.

Yee Yo Keuk, who has been in prison for several years for different crimes, escaped several times. Over a year ago he remained at large and terrorized various portions of the city. He was captured by the police a year ago, after a running gun fight in which he wounded Chief of Detectives McDuffie and was in turn also seriously wounded.

A few hours before his spectacular capture, Yee Yo Keuk went to Palama and through a window shot and killed Chee Won Yer, a fellow-countryman, who was asleep. Yee Yo Keuk committed the crime, the prosecution claimed, out of revenge, he believing that his victim had given him away to the police.

The Korean murderer will be sentenced to hang for his bloody deed. Not less than two weeks after sentence the Governor will be called upon to sign the death warrant.

ROYAL SCHOOL PRINCIPAL APPRECIATES COURT AID

The work of the juvenile court, presided over by Judge Whitney, and of the boys' probation officer, Joseph Leal, has received appropriate recognition from Cyril O. Smith, principal of the Royal School, one of the biggest government schools in the city.

Under yesterday's date, Mr. Smith writes to Judge Whitney:

"The Royal School does not wish to close school for the year 1916 without thanking you for the aid you have given us in the last twelve months. It has made a difficult job easier by having your assistance.

"May I also add a word about the very splendid way the boys' work is being handled by Mr. Leal. He is never too busy to help us out, and the way the boys look up to him and obey him is an excellent sight to behold. I look forward with pleasure to working with him in the coming year. With kindest regard and thanks."

IMMIGRATION BILL PASSED BY SENATE

New Measure Contains the Restrictive Literacy Test Clause

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)

WASHINGTON, December 14—The new immigration bill, containing the restrictive "literacy test"—on account of which similar bills have been persistently vetoed by Taft and Wilson—passed the senate today, sixty-four to seven. As it is amended it goes to the house, having previously passed there.

The senate, before passing the bill, reconsidered the clause designed to exclude anarchists who teach the destruction of property as their propaganda.

Senator Hardwick offered an amendment to cover the same ground, which was adopted. In brief it permits the entry of persons who advocate or teach the destruction of property "in case of war, insurrection or revolution," but not otherwise, thus barring anarchists who preach destruction of property in times of peace.
