TOMORROW MAY END LEAGUE BALL IN KEOKUK

Directors of Association Will Seek Aid of Industrial Association—If Action Not Taken Tomorrow, Franchise Lost.

MUST RAISE MONEY OR QUIT BASEBALL

Unless $1,500 Can be Assured, Franchise Will be Sold to Oklahoma or Turned in—Directors Offer to Resign—Painter Released.

The affairs of the Keokuk Base Ball association were shaped up at a meeting held after taking a look at the small attendance at the Sunday morning game. As far as the club is concerned, the situation is as bad as it can be. The directors have appealed to the Keokuk Industrial association to come into the game and help getting money with which to finish the season. A meeting of the directors of the Industrial association and of the base ball men will be held at 4 o'clock tomorrow morning. At that meeting the fate of Keokuk baseball will be decided. If the $1,500 needed can be secured to arrange for the balance of the season, the chances of the Keokuk team will be good. If the money can not be secured, the franchise will be sold to Oklahoma City. The base ball association owes no debts except the salary for July 15th. Some of these bills will be settled in arrears. The association owes no money to the players. The Industrial association and the base ball association cannot be compelled to donate to other $1,500 or more, the chances of the Keokuk team will be good. If the money can be had the team of Central association baseball will be placed in this city. The base ball association is about tired of the last year, the salaries for July 15th have not been paid, and rather than continue in the face of an overwhelming defeat, the directors will turn in the franchise.

Meeting a Bluff.

It is said that the meeting Tuesday morning was a bluff to persuade it might by fellows, or is a strategic to call the affairs a meeting at all. At 2 o'clock, the hour set, the newspaper men were the only "fans" in attendance. A little later Secretary Bonne, Manager Bell, and two central association men arrived. Then Frank Gaffney, Kenneth McGinnis, President H. F. Duffee and three or four other stockholders came in. Finally the crowd swelled to a total of eighteen, counting the three men above. About 4:30 the men got together and decided to appeal to the Industrial association. That was the "final meeting."

The directors of the local association have offered to resign if it will do any good.

The Situation.

The base ball situation is as well known to the fans and to the citizens generally that it hardly needs repeating to outline it. The financial statement published Monday evening in The Gate City showing that at least $1,500 more will be needed to arrange through the season, and that $1,000 justly is needed. Keokuk has antedated a little over $1,000 this year towards the game. Of this sum, $500 went to pay off last year's debts, a similar sum $1,000 for the use of the management this year. Central association ball cannot be played in this future. Kennedy, President said: "We are to blame now. Unless we can guarantee enough money to pay as we go through the season we will quit at once rather than allow it (which is not) Columbus people. Only will take the franchise. If not, it will be turned in and at the mid-winter meeting of the league Friday."

Painter Released.

Manager Bell said the day after announcing the release of Painter, the big fellow has been doing good work and is popular with the fans, but his release had become absolutely necessary for financial reasons and is only one of a number of economies that have been made to keep expenses down. Bell will execute his great feat on the initial play.

BAD INNING FOR J. DUNN

Young Boys Are Defeated By Kewanee in Spite Out of Home Grounds.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, July 19.—I think that one bad inning, but that was sufficient for Kewanee to lay down into and the game. The home crowd was helpless before the mystifying shoots that served by the Kaw, the new Rockfordian acquisition, and the loss of three counting in the third for the visitors was thus never overtaken. The game was a war between Dunn and Kaw with the Illinois slugger leading on an edge on control. Kaw's work did the trick and the six Kewanee hits particularly came when they were of no real import. The contest was well seasoned with fancy fielding, in fact the activities of the home crowd were in the field, but not at the bat. The score:

MUSCATINE, Iowa, July 19.—Muscatine Monday made two hits and won from Fanning in a tight little game. Brave Base Ball Fans

A mob attacked Umpire Atkinson after the game in Hannibal yesterday and it was necessary for the police to protect the man to save him from punishment.—News Item.

The baseball fan is a rabid man, a brave yahoo when he has his clan; he rants his ire, this male griffire, on the head of the bad umpire. The baseball fan is a gritty cuss, he dearly loves to start a fuss; when surrounded by his valiant crew, he loudly bawls what he will do. The baseball fan is hot for gore, when backed up by a score or more, of intrepid sluggers of his class, attack the umps en masse. The baseball fan has a big loud voice. He tells the umps to take his choice between cremation at the stake, or taking a run and jump in the lake. The baseball fan is a sociable guy, he likes to have his friends near by; if an umpire's goat is in demand, they make the bravest kind of a stand. When the game is over and the last man's out, the fan brigade puts the umps to rout. They fall upon the hapless wight, who has no chance to make a fight and pummel him with main and might. Then here's to the valorous baseball fan, with his gang at his back he's a brave, brave man. With the umps he loves to pick a bone but scorns to meet that gink alone.

WALK STARTED RUN GETTING

Burlington Won From Hannibal in the Seventh When Score Was Tied.

HANNIBAL, Mo., July 18.—A walk to Lowther in the seventh inning of the game paved the way for a trio of runs which won for Burlington, 4 to 1. Pitcher Monagan, a new acquisition to the Cannibal's pitching staff, twirled and he flung good ball but was backed up by rotten support, his team-mates getting him in several bad holes from which he worked himself out. Bell pitched consistent ball for Burlington, having good control and Hannibal's hits were scattered. Patterson and Lowther fielded beautifully. The Pathfinders counted first in the second inning. Watson sent one to right field but Nickell misjudged the ball and it went for a two bagger. He scored on Lowther's single to right. It was in the seventh inning that Rohn and company did the work. Lowther walked and was sacrificed by Lamb. Burton then smote the horsehide to deep left field for a double, scoring Lowther. Bell hit to Bagnall who threw to third to catch Burton but Hutchinson dropped the ball. Ellis went out by the Bagnall-Beckley route and Burton scored. Clifton was safe on an infield hit. With Patterson at bat, Bell scored on a passed ball by Frankie. Hannibal's lone tally came in the second round. Milligan beat out an infield hit and was sacrificed to second by Dang. Hutchinson flew out to Patterson. Frankie doubled to left field, scoring Milligan. The score:

SUNDAY BALL AN AID MORALLY

So Says the Chief of Police In Response to a Request That He Stop Sunday Games.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 19.—Sunday baseball by professional teams is a distinctly helpful moral force, according to Chief of Police Cowles of this city. In reply to a demand from church organizations that he suppress the Sunday games at Lighthouse Point in the suburbs, Chief Cowles says:

"Sunday baseball by professionals will continue at Lighthouse Point so long as the game is conducted in an orderly manner, because it draws the young men from the streets and lessens the number of arrests for drunkenness and disorder.

"Young men, who otherwise would loiter on the streets are attracted to the shore by the Sunday games, and from my own personal observation I know it lowers the number of cases in the courts on Monday."

Quincy Herald: John A. Hall, of 1400 Vermont Street, chief statistician of the Three-Eye league, the I.-M. league and the Central Association, of which league he is also the secretary, left last night in his automobile for Keokuk. Mr. Hall is just now engaged in auditing the books of the different associations of the C. A. and when he gets through at Keokuk, he will have completed the task. President Justice is guarding the salary limit very closely and the auditing of the books by his secretary is merely a move on his part to make sure that every club is toting fair.
