Closing Out Sale

of our entire stock of ladies' and misses'

Tailor Made Suits

Every suit in our store is going to be sold and we know they will go in a hurry, because the prices will move them.

We haven't a big lot of suits left, but what we have are all in good shades of Navy, Green, Brown and Black, and the styles and materials are the most popular of the season.

Our regular prices on what we have in stock range from $12.50 to $29.50, and with the great reductions we will make for this week, you can buy a suit for a little more than you pay for a separate skirt.

Every suit guaranteed all wool and all with good silk linings.

You Know without our telling you that our special sales are always legitimate and goods are never marked up for a sale and then reduced.

Discounts of 33 1/3% or More

Big reductions on Silk and Wool Dresses during this week.

Also some specials in Skirts and Coats.

Other Specials throughout the store which we offered during the past week, will be continued this week.

Group of Girls From One of the Factories Acted Out Pantomime, Advertising This Firm's Output.

The entertainment given in the Y. W. C. A. auditorium on Friday evening by the girls of the Geneva club, was in every way a success. The auditorium was comfortably filled and the tableaux illustrating various advertisements were very cleverly staged. At the close of the series of living pictures, prizes were given those who had guessed the greatest number of advertisements. R. F. Dawson won the first prize. Miss Esther Rayburn and A. H. Cushman tied for the second prize. The following was the program of tableaux:

Postum "There's a Reason"—Miss Grace Strickler, Miss Fern Hood.

Ivory Soap—Miss Williamson.

Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes—Agnes Reeves.

Dutch Cleanser—Miss Belt.

Colgate's Dental Cream—Miss Irene Strickler, Miss Saddie Dill.

Own-golf—Miss Irene Strickler.

O'Cedar Mop—Miss Meta Kummer.

Rogers 1847 Silver—Miss Isabel Herbert.

Eastman Kodak—Miss Mildred Rayburn, Laddie Dill, Elizabeth Cole.

Crisco—Miss Maude Immegart.

Kohinoor—Miss Williamson.

Bon Ami—Miss Kummer.

Cuticura Soap—Miss Eva Kuntzman.

National Biscuit Co.—Beverly Dickinson.

Walter Baker's Cocoa—Miss Helen Palmer Gray.

Carter's Ink—Miss Mary Loder, Miss Della Riley.

Aunt Jemima's Pancake Flour—Miss Loewenstein.

Danderine—Miss Eva Kuntzman, Chester Dumenil.

The Western Union—Miss O'Brien.

Irwin-Phillips—By a group of young women from the factory.

Palm Brand—Miss Mildred Rayburn.

While the judges were making the decision, Miss Esther Rayburn read "Rising in the World," from Aunt Minerva and William Green Hill. The campfire girls sang their campfire song. The association orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Cole, played a number of selections. Miss Maude Immegart, who is president of the Geneva club, made the various announcements. The committee in charge of the entertainment was Mrs. Bert Stewart, Miss Meta Kummer, Miss Margaret Williamson, and Miss Carolyn Kuntz. The candy booth was presided over by Miss Martha Tracy and Miss Georgie Schell.

AMUSEMENTS.

Play Return Engagement.

Keokuk will have one more chance to hear Chief Silver Tongue, the famous Indian tenor, who will play a return engagement at the Orpheum on Monday, Nov. 9. The Indian charmed many with his voice and the announcement that he will return for one day only should be enough to pack the Orpheum. Chief Silver Tongue will appear at the Orpheum tomorrow at both matinee and evening performances. It will be his last appearance here. The chief has a voice of wonderful range and his songs are pleasing to everyone.—Advertisement.

Hippodrome Tonight.

The Great Griffith, hypnotist, will close his engagement tonight at the Hippodrome, featuring the large beauty chorus and dance of all nations with lady subjects and a varied program of hypnotic hilarity. A special picture and musical program will also be given; a big show lasting three hours. Don't miss seeing it.—Advertisement.

Hippodrome Monday.

Starting Monday matinee, Paramount famous players featuring Monday and Tuesday. A masterful dramatic star, Jesse L. Lasky, in his most recent success, "The Master Mind," in five parts, 212 scenes. Story of the play:

Pledging to revenge the execution of his brother, whom the district attorney causes to be convicted, Richard Allen, a quaint individual who takes delight in concealing his identity by playing the role of a valet to an extravagant young man in New York, plots for the downfall of the prosecutor and educates his cleverest female crook, "Three Arm Maggie," with a view to having her fascinate and marry the district attorney.

Richard Allen, known as the master mind, conceives many diabolical plots looking forward to the ruination of his enemy, the district attorney, and finally succeeds in arousing his anger and jealousy, and is about to crush the unsuspecting attorney when "Three Arm Maggie," who has really fallen in love with her husband, pleads with the master mind to withdraw and the master mind, who has come to love Fanny, himself, does withdraw through love for her, and disappears, to be seen no more.

The powerful gang of crooks, over which he held a formidable leadership, is disbanded and the district attorney, not knowing that Maggie is a reformed crook, goes on in his own way, becomes governor of the state, and everything ends as it should.

Wednesday night, "The Sea Wolf" in seven parts.—Advertisement.

Orpheum Theatre.

A special featured program of pictures and music at the Orpheum tonight, "The Futility of Revenge," a drama in two parts; "In the Clutches of the Villain," another feature drama, and "Out of the Frying Pan," a laughable comedy. Extra program of good music by a good orchestra.—Advertisement.

Brilliant Musical.

Mrs. John W. Nichols who has been earning deserved recognition in her numerous recitals as one of the foremost lady pianists in this country, will appear in joint recital with her husband, the well known tenor, at the Y. W. C. A. on November 16. Her coming to Keokuk will be anticipated with great interest by all of our people. She is already booked for many recitals during the season, and will also appear with her husband in their interesting programs, which are becoming so popular with musical clubs throughout the United States and Canada. Mrs. Nichols assists her husband in all of his concert work, and plays his accompaniments on their recital tours as well as her own solos, which enables them to give the entire program unassisted.

Mrs. Nichols was born near Dublin, Ireland, and at a very early age showed great talent for music, being an excellent performer on both piano and violin. Her piano playing attracted so much attention among local musical critics that she was advised to enter the work seriously. She was sent to London, England, and there entered the Royal College of Music, where she studied for some years. Mrs. Nichols is the recipient of several medals and prizes from that noted school where she graduated as Miss Hester Hartman, and later passed the exceedingly difficult examination which made her an A. R. C. (Associate of the Royal College of Music). While a student in the college she was associated with many others who have since become world famous.—Advertisement.

At the Colonial.

Tonight at the Colonial will be presented "The Isle of Sarne," a comedy drama in two parts, adapted from the Pictorial. Lubin drama, "Love and Flames," also a western drama, "The Gambler's Reformation." Come to the Colonial and see the best in pictures. Always a good show worth seeing.—Advertisement.

Tonight.

Tonight, if you feel dull and stupid, or bilious and constipated, take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you will feel all right tomorrow. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

NOVEMBER TERM BEGINS MONDAY

District Court Will Convene in the Morning With Judge Bank on Bench for This Term.

CRIMINAL DOCKET LIGHT

Seitz Case and Armstrong Case, Two of Importance Which Probably Will be Tried This Term.

The November term of the district court will convene here tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock with Judge Henry Bank Jr. presiding. The grand jury will be empanelled at the afternoon session. There is little business for the grand jury, it is understood.

The case of the State vs. Irwin Seitz, indicted on the charge of burglary, and the case of the State vs. Conway Armstrong, also indicted on a charge of burglary, are two of the important criminal matters for this docket. Seitz and Armstrong are both charged with robbery in connection with the theft of jewels from the Taber residence. The Seitz case was continued from the preceding term.

The following new cases appear:

E. R. Strohmeier vs. Nancy Koeppel. Appeal from justice court.

William Wappich et al vs. Angell Bros. law.

S. Hamill Co., a corporation vs. Brown Bros., a partnership. Writ of attachment.

John R. Sing vs. Mary Anderson. Equity.

Iva Sehrer vs. Glenn Sehrer. Equity.

Mary Beal vs. George Beal. Divorce.

Dean Frank Nagel and John Evans vs. J. E. Baker and Dunstan Collins. Law.

Nora Pittman vs. Luther Pittman. Equity.

James Stewart vs. Lee Wright. Appeal from justice court.

Old Docket Restored.

The old form of bar docket has been restored pursuant to the demands of the lawyers at a meeting held a few weeks ago. The docket looks better, and has the advantage over the old form in that one can find all the cases in the continuance docket without having to look up the books used in the terms past.

The pages contain from eight to ten cases, and the opposite pages contain room for entering appearances or making notes in regard to the case.

The docket will be called Monday morning and the cases assigned for hearing.

VISITING NURSE BENEFIT SUCCESS

Performance of "My Friend From India" in Moving Pictures Proves Drawing Card.

The benefit for the Visiting Nurse association which was given Friday evening was a success. The affair was in charge of Miss Laura Alton to whom credit should be due for the success of the undertaking. The performance of "My Friend From India" in moving pictures was given, and the films and the occasion for which they were presented, proved a drawing card.

Bromidic.
