CITY GLOBULES.

"Fools."

The sleighing yesterday was the best of the season.

The water board didn't have a quorum yesterday and there was no meeting.

Officer Wright picked up a stray black horse in harness last evening, and lodged him in Moorehead's stable.

The snow is of a pretty good depth out on the prairies, and more heavily banked up in drifts than at any time this winter.

"Fools" to-night! Where? At the First Baptist church, of course.

All the flyers were out yesterday and the tintinbulations of the bells made sweet harmony to the whirl of hoofs and hoop-la of the fellow who had his girl out.

As an institution to make fun for the boys the tug-of-war rope at city hall lays over the deck. Bossie says that Mumm's extra comes high, but they will have it.

The "Fools" will catch it at the First Baptist church to-night.

A large donation of boys' clothing from J. H. Ames replenishes the boy's corner of the Relief society clothing room. Not so the girls. Worn dresses and underwear for girls are needed.

The full board of public works held a committee meeting last evening to take measures to arrange the assessment for the extensive improvements to be made on Seventh street.

The First Baptist church will be crowded to-night to hear the sparkling lecture of P. S. Henson, D. D., for we are all sensible people and want to hear what a funny man can say about "Fools."

P. S. Henson, D. D., of Chicago, will deliver his celebrated lecture on "Fools," at the First Baptist church, Ninth and Wacouta streets, this (Thursday) evening, commencing at 8 o'clock.

Leander Andersrn, of Brainent,, was before United States commissioder Cardozo yesterday on the charge of selling fire water to the Indians! He was held to the grand jury and committed.

Very neat cards of invitation are out for the complimentary reception tendered by Minnehaha lodge, No. 61, Brotherhood of locomotive firemen, to take place at Pfeifer's hall on Friday, the 15th inst.

An interesting lecture on books and how to read them, will be given by Rev. F. O. Holman, before the Y. M. C. A. at their rooms, 366 Wabashaw street, this evening at 8 o'clock! Everybody is invited.

Secretary of State F. Von Baumbach has selected A. F. Nordin, of Wilmar, Kandiyohi county, of late connected with the internal revenue office in St. Paul, as his assistant, vice Oscar Malros, resigned.

M. B. Dougherty was admitted to practice in the courts of Minnesota on the presentation of certificates from the supreme court of Iowa, and on motion of Chas. E. Otis, Esq., in Judge Wilkin's court yesterday.

He wore his pants in his boots, was as tall and limp as a weeping willow, and it took two men to get him to the hall, so thoroughly budged was he on tanglefoot. His name, he said, was Dennis, and two nickels and a dozen beer chips were found in his trousers pocket.

The District Telegraph company of St. Paul concluded arrangements yesterday to plant a similar company in Stillwater. Arrangements were also concluded with the city officials of Stillwater to put in a complete fire alarm system in connection with the telegraph line.

At the annual meeting of stockholders of the Swedish paper Seneuska Folkets Tidning, Tuesday night, Messrs. A. N. Clouse, A. F. Nordin and Victor Bergnen, of St. Paul, and Chas Blumquist, Robert Berglund, and Chas Johnson, of Minneapolis, were elected directors.

John J. Palmer, the contractor who paved Seventh street last summer and fall, and who could not get his curbing done as contracted for of Breen & Tooney, to keep pace with the work, which caused him much delay and expense, sued the latter parties for $5,000 damages, which case is now on trial before a jury in the district court.

W. F. Zaickey, sheriff of Polk county, passed through the city yesterday en route for Stillwater penitentiary where he delivered Alexander McGaire, sentenced to two years and six months to that institution for assault with a dangerous weapon with intent to do great bodily harm, to Warden Reed.

Andrew Nelson, of Pelican, Otter Tail county while digging a well recently at the depth of fifteen feet found quite a quantity of drift coal, evidently the product of some partially covered forest which in course of time became imbedded in the soil. This coal burns with great heat like charcoal, leaves no ash, and when found in quantities is very marketable.

John Graham yesterday commenced suit against D. B. Vermilys for $1135. The complaint alleges that in September. 1882, the defendant drew two drafts on the Second National bank of St. Paul, in favor of W. J. Knight, for the above amount Knight sold the drafts to the plaintiff, but when they were presented, payment was refused. it having been stopped by the plaintiff.

James Hollester and Wm. Pitland kicked up a little rumpus at the corner of Seventh and Jackson streets about midnight and they passed the remainder of the night at the police station.

President Jerome Allen, of the Normal school at St. Cloud, will be present at the general teachers' meeting to be held in the High school building next Saturday at 10 a. m., and deliver an address on "The Old and the New in Education." At the same gathering Principal Baker, of the Jefferson school, will read a paper on the subject of "The Use and the Abuse of the Text book."

Col. W. H. H. Taylor, state librarian, received yesterday the general and public statutes of the United States from 1789 to 1827 inclusinl, published under the auspices of Joseph Story, one of the associate justices of the United States supreme court. He was also in the receipt of a volume containing the Trial of the Directors of the Bank of the City of Glasgow before the high court of justiciary at Edinbugh commencing January 20, 1879, and continuing the following four days.

To-day is the grand opening of the Bankrupt Sale of the Dry Goods Stock of H. E. Mann, 422 Wabashaw street.

The Magdalen Society.

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of managers of the Minnesota Magdalen society, Feb. 1st, 1884, the following resolutions with reference to the death of Miss McClure were adopted:

Resolved, That in the death of Miss Janet McClure this society recognizes the hand of Him who doeth all things well, yet feels that each member has lost a personal friend and honored associate. We shall miss her gentle earnestness and patient continuance in well-doing.

Resolved, That the Woman's Christian Home has lost a faithful and zealous advocate, and the inmates one ever ready to sympathize with them and direct them in the right way.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and to the city papers for publication, and also spread upon the recods of the society.

REAL ESTATE.

A YOUNG MAN

had some money in a Savings Bank. It was safe. It was increasing slowly. But he wanted it to be safe, and to increase faster. He is a clerk. He is ambitious. He don't intend to hew and draw for other people, always. Likewise, he has visions. Of somebody's sister. Of a home. Of an honorable competence. He is thinking how to make that money grow. Nights and Sundays. Safely. But faster than in a Savings Bank. Real Estate? It will grow. It will be there when he reaches for it. He makes a tour. Of the Real Estate Offices. Of the various Additions. He looks. And listens. To-day, he bought a lot. Only one. He bites off no more than he can chew. There is no speculation in his eye. The lot is in Wright's Addition. It used to be called Anna E. Ramsey's. It is on Summit Ave. Out by the Short Line Bridge. 12 minutes by rail from the Union Depot. The locality is attractive. The tide is running that way. He is a wise young man. He is satisfied. He thinks his lot cast in that neighborhood is better than a Savings Bank. It is. A fable is an invention. This is not an invention. This is a true story. There are more good lots out there. There are more young men like this one. Many of them live in St. Paul. They will come into the office S. W. Cor. Jackson & Fifth St. Not in the basement. But up the stairs. Through the carved oak vestibule. They will buy lots in Wright's addition.
