Montana's Largest Grocery Store

Coffee

Even if coffee is unadulterated, it is not good if it isn't roasted just right. If roasted too much it has an unpleasant, bitter taste, while if roasted too little it tastes raw and "flat." Our coffees are roasted just right. We know it because we have an immense coffee trade and they're all pleased and contented with our blends. One thing about our coffees is, that they're blended by a coffee expert and packed while hot in fifty pound air-tight tin canisters thus retaining that natural, full, rich smooth flavor and fragrance which so delights everyone.

PRICES

You would naturally expect us to ask a higher price for such goods as these, but we don't. We believe that if we have your coffee trade you will be so well pleased that you will make this store your grocery headquarters. This is the reason we sell such pure high grade coffees at such small prices.

"OUR FINEST"

Our Finest Mocha and Java, a perfectly roasted coffee. You can pay more, but it is impossible to get finer. Full smooth, rich and fragrant per pound 40c

"HOME LUXURY"

Home Luxury Java and Mocha. It's the kind one loves to linger over after dinner. Has a fine flavor and fragrant aroma, 3 lbs $1.00; per pound 35c

"CREAM COFFEE"

A most popular coffee at a popular price, with a popular taste. It's a general favorite. Has a whole mouthful of flavor in every sip, 2½ pound can 75c; per pound 30c

"OUR LEADER"

This coffee has a wonderfully good color and flavor for such a small price, per pound 25c

"OUR SPECIAL"

This is just what its name signifies a "special," not as good as our "Leader" of course, but a real good coffee at a real small price, per pound 20c

PACKAGE COFFEE

We carry a complete line of all the popular package coffees. Our prices are always the lowest.

Excursion Tickets.

The Oregon Short Line has sold, or expects to sell, between fifty and sixty tickets to the great Epworth League convention at San Francisco July 21st. All the roads are having good call for tickets, the rates being very low, $50 for the round trip. Not all the excursionists are Epworth Leaguers, of course. The tickets were placed on sale today, being available for use tomorrow, for the first time. The trip will be a delightful one for all who are preparing to tage it.

Excursion Tickets Extended.

The railroads have made a liberal concession to the traveling public by extending the former limit of 30 days to 60 days on all tickets to the Buffalo exposition. One fare rate is to and from Chicago, with an exchange at the latter point for the Exposition City.

LATE NEWS FROM THE TRACK.

The attendance at the track today was smaller than on any previous day of the meet, due principally to the inclement weather. The track was heavy, the time consequently slow.

It was an eventful day in many respects. A valuable horse dropped dead, frightened by lightning, several of the employes quit because of a dissatisfaction over salaries, the mutuals closed down and there was a fight.

The horse which died was Midsummer, four years old, Imp July-Lady Middleton, and owned by C. O. Johnson & Co. The horse was in a stall when the lightning flashed and a terrific thunderbolt which followed it frightened the animal so that it dropped dead. A stable boy known as Siquoc was knocked from a stall-box but not seriously injured. Mr. Johnson was offered $2,500 for the horse just previous to coming to Butte.

Those who quit the track were Jack Lavelle, who was acting as chief of police, and 30 of his deputies; Alderman Abe Cohen and Frank Cross. Cohen and Cross were working in the books. They claim that they were discriminated against in the matter of salary. It was understood that considerable dissatisfaction was expressed Saturday regarding the salaries, and those who were at work were informed that if they were not satisfied they could turn in their badges. They did so and others were given their places.

The fight was between Ed Jones, owner of "Honest John," and a tout known as "Onion Dick." Jones claimed that the tout was using his name for the purpose of steering people onto horses which had no chance to win. He called "Onion Dick" down and the fight followed. Blood was spilled but neither man was much hurt.

Considerable dissatisfaction was expressed by horse owners because of the cut in the purses. They claimed they were guaranteed better purses and asked to bring their horses here. They say that now that they are here and at considerable expense, they are subjected to the cut and several declared their intention of leaving the track.

C. E. Trevathen, a well known horseman and newspaperman from Chicago made his appearance at the track today as presiding judge in the place of F. E. Mulholland. Mr. Mulholland was compelled to cancel his engagement and return home from Denver because of sickness in his family.

The first race on the card, a pace of 2:20 class, best 2 and 3 for a purse of $200, was run by Ream and Trine's "Oregon Bull," driven by Trine. C. S. Tanner's "Lady Ammon" was second; Phil Breen's "Royal" was third. Time, 2:28.

The first heat went to "Oregon Bull" with Ted Hayes' "Captain P." second and "Lady Ammon" third. Time, 2:27.

The second heat was won by "Royal" with "Captain P." second and "Lady Ammon" third. Time,2:26¼.

The betting was in the first heat "Oregon Bull" 3 to 1, and 4 to 5 place, "Royal" 3 to 1, "Captain P." even money and "Lady Ammon 5 to 1.

In the second heat the betting was the same. The third heat found "Oregon Bull" at 8 to 5, "Royall" at 5 to 5, "Captain P." 4 to 1 and "Lady Ammon" 10 to 1.

The entries for tomorrow.

HAS HEALY BEEN TAKEN?

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Missoula, Mont., July 8.—A man supposed to be Healy, one of the trio who escaped from the Butte jail three weeks ago, was captured by Sheriff Prescott's force here this afternoon.

The prisoner gives his name as John McGuire, but the sheriff is positive he is Healy.

He was located at the show grounds of Norris & Rowe's pony circus, where he was employed as a rostabout.

Information as to his identity was given by a negro, who claims to have served time with him in the Butte jail.

THE STREET FAIR CONCERT

Boston and Montana Band Will Discourse Its Best Music—A Big Crowd Wanted.

Arrangements have been made by the Butte Street Fair association for an open-air concert tomorrow evening, following the dedication of the big arch on Granite street by the Overland club. The Boston & Montana band will furnish the music and the concert will commence at 7:30 o'clock.

The fair association has about completed the arch, and for that occasion Manager John B. King of the saucer the bicycle track donated the services of the Boston & Montana band. The bicycle track manager has a contract with the band for each evening, and as the Overland club could not otherwise provide suitable music on that occasion the bicycle people very willingly consented to grant the use of the band for that time. The band will be heard at the saucer track following the open-air concert.

The Overland club requests the people of Butte to turn out in full force tomorrow evening and enjoy the concert. An interesting programme will be provided.

MARKS LOST HIS JEWELRY

Two Colored Men Arrested for Alleged Theft of Valuables From a Lodging House.

Confined in the city jail are two colored men who give their names as Max Sims and Charles L. Harris, better known as the "Yellow Kid," charged with having robbed T. M. Marks of a diamond stud, gold watch and chain and charm, valued at about $300. It is thought by the police that Sims did the work and that Harris is only an accomplice in a slight way, but in order to more fully investigate the case the men are kept in separate apartments at the jail.

Marks' room, at 222½ South Wyoming street, was entered during Saturday night while he was away and ransacked. The clothing in the room was not molested, but everything pertaining to jewelry was taken by the thieves. Suspicion pointed at once to Sims, and he was taken in by the police. Later it was evident to the police that Harris knew something of the affair, and he was also arrested. A number of colored people have called at the station to see Harris today, but all were refused an opportunity to talk with him.

SWAN WAS AN OLD VETERAN

Butte Grand Army Men Buried Him With the Highest Honors—A Scrap of History.

Two weeks ago the G. A. R. of Butte gave a military burial to the remains of Thowas Swan, deceased, who, prior to his death, had been employed in the Blue Bird mine. There was little evidence that Swan had been a soldier, in the civil war, save his statement, and his having in his possession at the time of his death, a copy of a list of paroled prisoners, released by the confederates, Swan's name appearing in the list. However, the veterans took charge of the funeral, and gave Swan the honors of war.

Captain S. H. Almon, adjutant of the post here, wrote to George G. Gyger, adjutant general of Ohio, from which state Swan claimed to have enlisted, for information as to the man. This morning he received a letter from Mr. Gyger, giving Swans' history in full. He had enlisted in Company H, First Ohio Volunteer infantry, at Steubenville, that state, in August, 1862, and has a record of honorable service. The adjutant general thanks the local post for caring for the veteran as he deserved.

Swan had never identified himself with the G. A. R., and seems to have lost his discharge and all other official evidence of his service. But his story was true, as the sequel shows.

Race horses are not in it for time compared with the motor tandem. See it at the saucer tonight.
