MARKET MOVEMENTS OF THE DAY

TRANSACTIONS IN SECURITIES RECORDED ON THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

New York, May 24.—The speculative movement in stocks was hampered today by the appearance of an incipient crop scare of moderate proportions. The character of some of the assertions regarding conditions in Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma was disliked by the bulls in stocks although highly relished by the bull party in wheat, as witnessed by the soaring of the price of wheat to new high levels. Due allowance is made for the highly speculative condition of the wheat market and for the affiliations of some of the quoted experts with brokerage houses interested in the effect of news on market quotations.

The promise of the improvement in the banking position was held to be fulfilled by the complexion of the Saturday bank statement. The call money was appreciably easier and the course of the international exchanges seem to lessen the probability of further exports of gold from New York to Paris. The London supply of gold went to Austria, without competition from Paris. The sterling exchange rate has risen at Paris and receded in New York sufficiently to wipe out the margin of profit on the movement of gold to Paris from here. Conditions were considered auspicious for the further new bond issues that confront the market, including a coming sale of about $40,000,000 of New York city 4 per cents.

There was a movement in the group of the independent steel industrials which pointed to a common cause, in this case a report of an intended combination for closer working of those companies together. United States Steel was very strong, touching a new high record.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales (par value), $4,340,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Wool Market.

St. Louis, May 24.—Wool—Firm. Medium grades, combing and clothing, 25@31c; light fine, 22½@28c; heavy fine, 16@23c; tub washed, 28@37c.

Treasury Statement.

Washington, May 24.—Today's statement of the treasury balances in the general fund shows:

Available cash balance, $119,663,240; gold coin and bullion, $42,680,858; gold certificates, $31,885,300.

Metal Market.

New York, May 24.—The London tin market was unchanged with spot quoted at £132 2s 6d and futures at £133 2s 6d. The local market was dull and unchanged, with spot quoted at $28.12½@28.25.

There was an advance of about 6s 3d in the English copper market, with spot quoted at £59 15s and futures at £60 3s 9d. Locally the market was easy and unchanged with lake quoted $13.12½@13.37½; electrolytic, $12.87½@13.00; casting, $12.75@12.87½.

Lead advanced to £13 7s 6d in London. The local market was steady and unchanged at $4.30@4.40.

Spelter was a little lower at £22 in the London market. Locally the market was unchanged at $5.15@5.25.

Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, May 24.—New high record marks for the season were established for the leading grains on the board of trade today during a session marked by extreme bullishness. Wheat for May delivery scored a gain of nearly 2 cents compared with the previous best market, the top being reached at $1.34⅛. Corn for May delivery sold up to 74½c and the same delivery of oats touched 62¾c. All deliveries of wheat soared to new high points as a result of urgent buying based on alarming reports regarding the crop outlook in the southwest. The top price for the more distant deliveries was $1.19⅝ for July; $1.12 for September and $1.09⅝ for December. The July option displayed relatively a weaker tone than other months owing to heavy selling by an influential house which concern, it was said, was turning the profits secured in that way into the September and December deliveries. The market closed strong with prices showing net gains of 1⅜ to 2⅛c compared with the final figures of Saturday, May being at $1.34⅛; July, $1.18⅝@⅞; September, $1.11¼, and December, $1.09¼.

Oats were active all day and prices advanced sharply, all deliveries rising to new high levels for the season. The top price for May was reached at 62¾c, and for July at 55¼c. The market closed at net gains of ⅝ to 1⅛c compared with the previous close, with May at 62¼c, and July at 55¼c.

Provisions were bullishly affected by the bulge in grain. At the close prices were up 5 to 25 points compared with Saturday's final quotations.

S.S.S. CURES OLD SORES

If an old sore existed simply because the flesh was diseased at that particular spot, it would be an easy matter to apply some remedy directly to the place that would kill the germs; or the diseased flesh might be removed by a surgical operation and a cure effected. But the very fact that old sores resist every form of local or external treatment, and even return after being cut away, shows that back of them is a morbid cause which must be removed before a cure can result. Just as long as the pollution continues in the blood, the ulcer remains an open cesspool for the deposit of impurities which the circulation throws off. S.S.S. cures Old Sores by purifying the blood. It removes every trace of impurity and taint from the circulation, and thus completely does away with the cause. When S.S.S. has cleansed the blood, the sore begins to heal, and it is not a surface cure, but the healing process begins at the bottom; soon the discharge ceases, the inflammation leaves, and the place fills in with firm, healthy flesh. Under the purifying and tonic effects of S.S.S. the system is built up, and those whose health has been impaired by the drain and worry of an old sore will be doubly benefited by its use. JOHN DOE BUTTS INTO CITY JAIL

GENTLEMAN WITH FESTIVE PROCLIVITIES SEEKS BASTILE IN SEARCH OF DRINK.

It is not often that a man tries to get into jail, not to amount to much, but Sunday night saw the exception. Officer Therriault was walking his beat on West Front street and, when near the corner of Front and Stevens streets, noticed a man at the door of the city bastile, pulling and hauling as though his salvation in the next world depended upon his efforts. "Let me in, I wan's to get a drink, let me in I tell you, and gimme a drink." Such were the words that fell on the ear of the attentive officer as he paid strict attention to what was doing.

Rushing to the scene of activities, he grabbed the offender against the peace and quiet of Missoula, by the back of the neck and thrust him around. The befuddled and "betanked" victim of the ravages of John Barleycorn was just a little too much under the weather to realize to whom he was talking and repeated his demands and pulling at the door to the place wherein are confined the city's malefactors. "Open 'e door, I tell 'ou, I wansha drink, and I gotter have it, see!" Said the officer, "Come in with me and I'll give you a drink," wherewith there was a sudden and violent attempt to propel himself through the door, which by this time had been opened by the obliging officer. He was just too full of spirits of frument to be able to give his name, so he was put in a nice separate cell and booked under the name of John Doe. The last heard of him, he was bewailing his fate and moaning for "jus' one li'l drink."

Lowery had arrested Masauredis on a vagrancy charge and while being taken to the station the Greek shot the officer.
