Warm Days and Moonlight Nights Call Society Folks to the Wilds

Mrs. Hanssen Entertains.

Mrs. O. E. Hanssen entertained at a delightful luncheon yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. and Miss Smith who are visiting here from their home in Minneapolis. The table was tastefully decorated with sweet peas and roses. After luncheon the ladies spent the afternoon with needlework. Those who were the guests of Mrs. Hanssen follow: Misses Kramer, Smith and Robinson and Mesdames Andrus and Smith.

On a Rattlesnake Lawn.

Ruth Cavin and Harold Cavin gave a lawn party Friday evening at their home up the Rattlesnake valley, as a farewell compliment to Laurence Kline, who left for his home in Chicago Sunday afternoon, after having spent the summer in the Prescott home in the Rattlesnake valley. Merry games, played by the soft light of many Japanese lanterns, and delightful music made the time pass quickly. At a late hour the evening's pleasures were concluded by a delicious menu of summer-time dainties, served by Mrs. Cavin, assisted by Mrs. Veeder. Those present were Misses Helen and Lilian Quast, Helen Vezing, Lenora Waldpole, Ida Stennett, Ruth Cavin; Messrs. Charles and Frank Smith, Ralph Stitch, Lawrence Kline and Harold Cavin.

Sunshine Bridge.

Mrs. Lynde Catlin was hostess Friday afternoon at a sunshine bridge party at her home, 162 Daly avenue, complimenting Mrs. Thomas Butler and Mrs. Catlin's sister, Mrs. W. W. Andrus, both of Miles City. The rooms of the Catlin home were alight with the glory of yellow blossoms. Great banks of golden glow, nasturtiums and yellow pansies lent their beauty and sunshine to this happy occasion, and the tempting refreshments served by the Misses Ruth Keith, Bernice Kemp and Kathleen Andrus carried out the same cheery shades of yellow. The ladies who had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Andrus were Mesdames Mary Bandmann, F. E. Birdsall, E. P. Dungan, J. E. Power, R. N. Hyde, Alex Peterson, C. V. Geughler, Frank Pearson, De Witte Grubbs, Charles Hall, John Wisterman, W. E. Moore, J. L. Scott, P. M. Reilly, J. L. Ward, G. Ricker, T. A. Price, W. E. Shea and Miss Harrison.

The Bridge Club.

The Bridge club will meet Wednesday of this week with Mrs. C. A. Barnes at her home on University avenue.

Past Grands.

The Past Grands' club of the Rebekahs will meet with Mrs. E. P. Wohlschlager, 144 South Sixth street, west, on Wednesday afternoon. All past grands are invited.

Mothers' Club.

The Mothers' club will meet this week, Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. W. W. Wickes, at her home on South Sith street, west.

Cyr-Rathburn Nuptials.

Missoulian readers will remember the story of the engagement announcement of Peter Cyr, a Northern Pacific brakeman on the Butte-Missoula run, and Miss Marjorie Rathburn, formerly a teacher in the Missoula and Butte schools. For months Mr. Cyr was his wife's pupil, part of the time at night school and their acquaintance and courtship was a pretty romance. The wedding took place at Harryton, Mich., August 5, and the following account of the ceremony has been received: The ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Rathburn, the bride's parents. The house was prettily decorated with Michigan flowers to carry out a color scheme of pink and white. In the south corner of the parlor, by the archway into the living room, were banks of ferns and over these was a large white wedding bell with white ribons draped from it to two smaller ones. Miss Maud Williams, a life-long friend of the bride, sang two selections very beautifully and Miss Meta Pickle played the wedding march as the bridal party entered. The bride was attended by Miss Hazel Farwell and the groom by his cousin, Wayne Harrison. Miss Gladys Sterhs acted as maid of honor and little Misses Mildred Rathburn, sister of the bride, and Letha Baker, her cousin, were flower girls. The bride entered on the arm of her father. She was charming in an ivory satin dress trimmed with shadow lace and carrying a shower bouquet of sweet peas. The pastor of the home church, Rev. C. Brown, officiated and the ceremony was very beautiful and impressive. Following congratulations and an inspection of the array of costly presents the wedding supper was served under the trees of the lawn and there 130 guests joined in the festivities. Miss Marjorie House was mistress of ceremony and she handled the guests admirably.

TO THE RATTLESNAKE

Why hurry, little river, to the trackless wilderness?
Why not linger in the shadow of the pines?
Out there there's none to know you; no little falls below you,
Where you love to dance and run your merry rhymes.
You'll be lonely for the forest; you will miss the pipes o' Pan
And the deer and game that love your shallows so;
Where the song birds, in the spring, love to come and drink and sing
And the flowers mirror in you as they grow.

Why hurry, little river, to the trackless wilderness?
Do you seek a place of new and strange delight,
Where the sea gulls homeward fly and the white sails hasten by
And the stars come down and ride the waves at night?
I, too, would hurry with you; go traveling on the wind
To a land I know—the land of Where Away.
And there, where dreams come true, live and love and laugh with you
And linger there, forever and a day.

—L. W. H.

Announcement Party.

Mrs. M. E. Hollenbeck entertained at her home on South Third street Monday afternoon. Bridge was played at six tables. Sweet peas and roses were used in the decorations of the rooms. After a delightful afternoon spent at the card tables, refreshments were served, during which pretty little Marie Nash passed cards that brought a ripple of pleased surprise when the guests realized they had been invited to offer congratulations to Miss Helen Hollenbeck and Charles Hayden, whose wedding is to take place September 14. The following ladies were invited to enjoy Mrs. Hollenbeck's hospitality: Mesdames Abbot Lucy, John Lucy, Matt Lucy, Shirley Thane, L. K. Hayden, John Campbell, R. H. Nelson, K. H. Freeze, Thomas Conlon, C. L. F. Kellogg, E. F. Dodds, W. H. Nash, J. R. Daily, George Lautz, W. B. Hollenbeck; Misses Abbie Lucy, Leona Forbis, Florence Coen, Helen Coen, Margaret Coen, Charline Johnson, Helen Orvis, Bernice Berry, Marjorie Ross, Cecil Johnson, Bernice Kemp, Gladys Roberts, Ruth Woodford, Annie Conlon, Mary Conlon, Edna Rankin, Mary Rankin, Laura Ellithrope, Agnes Lombard, Vivian McMenus, Corrine McDonald and Lolah Pritchard.

Their First Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hanssen gave a dinner Thursday evening at their home, 860 Chestnut street, in celebration of their first wedding anniversary. A merry company of guests were seated about a charmingly-appointed table and served with a delectable menu in many courses. Red and white sweet peas were used in the decorative scheme. After dinner there was a pleasant informal time of music and visiting. Mr. and Mrs. Hanssen were the recipients of many useful presents in paper among which were beautiful stationery and subscriptions to papers and various magazines. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Andrus, Mrs. A. M. Matthews, Mrs. Charles Wilds, Miss Bess Wilds, Miss Cora Robinson of Butte and Ray Bailey.

For Mrs. Buck.

Miss Helen Swanson and Miss Mae Gates were hostesses at a farewell party Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Fred Buck, who was, until July 13, Miss Anna Margis of this city.

Music and novel games afforded the guests a merry evening until late, when a splendid lunch was served. Many dainty and useful gifts, as well as humorous ones were showered upon the bride, with the best wishes for her new life. Mrs. Buck leaves soon to make her house in Miami, Ariz. The young ladies present were: Esther Lewis, Mildred Yakom, Elba Anderson, Beulah Dunstan, Irma Johnson, Ella Warner, Irene Granger, Hazel Turtle, Helen Swanson, Mae Gates and the guest of honor, Mrs. Fred S. Buck.

House Guest.

Mrs. Lynde Catlin had, as house guest this week, Mrs. Thomas A. Butler of Miles City. Mrs. Butler, who is a sister of Representative W. E. Holt of Custer county, has many friends in this vicinity who were glad to renew their acquaintance with her.

Herbert Spokesfield's Birthday.

Mrs. Emily Spokesfield entertained at dinner Monday evening in honor of the 13th birthday anniversary of her son, Herbert. Besides Mrs. Spokesfield and Herbert, there were present Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Inch and son, Hubert, and Miss Gretna Spokesfield.

Reunion Picnic.

A happy picnic party, composed of a number of Missoula residents who for several years have spent the winter in California and had the pleasure of picnicking together beneath a southern sun, had a pleasant reunion Wednesday afternoon. The company motored up the Rattlesnake valley and enjoyed a campfire supper. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Peterson, D. R. Beck, J. A. Beck of Iowa, Mesdames Oscar Sedman, J. P. Kline, W. B. Parsons, Forbes and Jackson; Misses Ruth McHaffie, Hazel MacHaffie of Helena, Virginia and Mary Sedman, Margaret Beck, Gladys and Dorothy Peterson and Masters George Forbes and Fred Peterson.

Visit Maclean Camp.

Mr. C. H. Sperling and his father, who is visiting here from Illinois, were the guests of Frank Roberts Monday for an auto trip as far as the Maclean camp up the Blackfoot valley. They spent the day with Dr. and Mrs. Maclean, returning to Missoula by moonlight.

For Mrs. Gage.

Mrs. Charles Gage of Helena was the special guest at an informal bridge luncheon given by Mrs. George Newlon Tuesday afternoon at her home on Hilda avenue. The rooms were cheery and artistic in their decoration of quantities of yellow flowers. Among the golden glow on the table, covers were laid for eight and the yellow color tone prevailed through the menu and favors. The guests were Mesdames F. C. Scheuch, C. H. Hall, John Wisterman, Frank Roberts, E. C. Mulroney, Thomas Fitzgerald and Miss Catherine O'Leary.

To Medicine Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Tylar Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sloane and little daughter, Mary Elizabeth, Misses Gertrude Sloane and Gertrude Westman and Mrs. A. W. McKeown of Hamilton have gone to Medicine Springs to spend a week in the out-of-doors. The party went by automobile and will visit various beauty spots in the Bitter Root valley on their return trip.

Slumber Party.

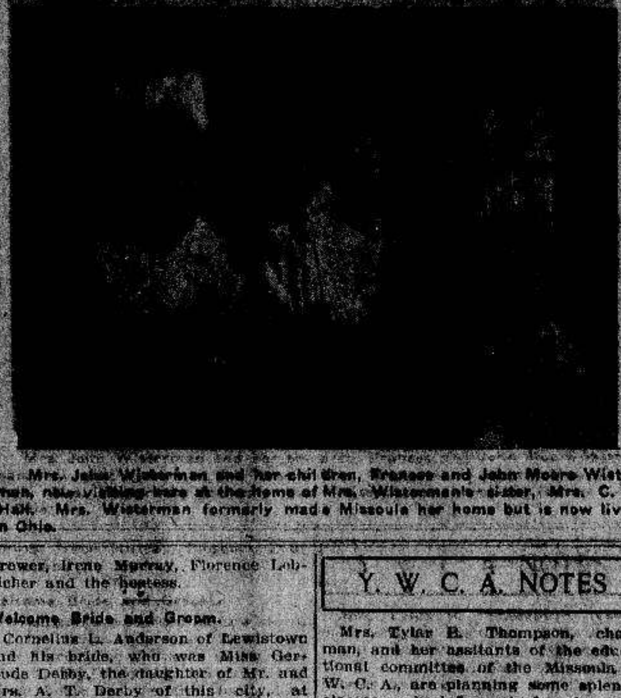
Miss Evelyn Thomas entertained Miss Ruth McHaffie and her cousin, Miss Hazel MacHaffie of Helena, at a slumber party Tuesday night at her home on Arthur street.

Miss Willard Visits.

Miss Gladys Willard of Tacoma arrived here Wednesday to visit with her father, F. B. Willard, superintendent of the Missoula division of the Milwaukee. For a week Miss Willard will be the guest of Mrs. N. H. Mason. Then she expects to return to Tacoma for the season.

Alpha Pi Eta Club.

Miss Aileen Ambrose was hostess for the Alpha Pi Eta club Wednesday evening at her home on South First street. This was the first regular meeting of the club this summer. The evening was given over mostly to planning future meetings and events among which will be a progressive party for the coming week. Refreshments were served. The members present were Misses Lulu Wright, Evelyn Thomas, Beth Hershey, Alberta Stone, Gladys Brewer, Irene Murray, Florence Lobkicher and the hostess.



Mrs. John Wisterman and her children, Frances and John Moore Wisterman, now visiting here at the home of Mrs. Wisterman's sister, Mrs. C. H. Hall. Mrs. Wisterman formerly made Missoula her home but is now living in Ohio.

Welcome Bride and Groom.

Cornelius L. Anderson of Lewistown and his bride, who was Miss Gertrude Derby, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Derby of this city, at whose home the wedding took place July 27, were warmly welcomed when they arrived in Lewistown. Of the affair a Lewistown paper says:

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson made a short honeymoon trip to Butte. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Anderson, well-known residents of the city. He is a young man of sterling qualities.

Last evening a reception was given at the Anderson home, on Sixth avenue, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, the newlyweds. The home was tastily decorated. The out-of-town guests were Miss Pearl Derby, of Missoula, Miss Ethel C. Van Camp of Bozeman, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Doores of San Diego, and Miss Josephine Anderson of Kansas City. About 50 were in attendance. Gracia Pennock presided at the piano, while refreshments were served.

From California.

Mrs. Frank McHaffie is entertaining this week, Mrs. E. J. Thompson and daughter, Laura Blanch, of Bakersfield, Cal. Mrs. Thompson was formerly a resident of this city and has many friends here. She has been visiting in Chicago, Wis., and North Dakota and is now on her way home.

Y. W. C. A. Campfire.

The open-air meeting of the members and friends of the Missoula Y. W. C. A. on the "island" Monday evening was a splendid success and everything in connection with the session was enjoyable for all of the good-sized crowd present. The session was called primarily for the purpose of listening to the reports of the association delegates who have just returned from the conference at Cohasset Beach. All of these delegates came home full of inspiration and enthusiasm and, to a great extent, they enthused and inspired their audience in the same way that they had been aroused at the conference.

When the company had assembled a drift-wood fire was started on the river bank and around this, on the sand and on logs, sat the listeners while the delegates talked. Miss Hoogestrant, secretary of the Missoula Y. W. C. A., introduced the speakers. Before beginning they joined in singing the Montana song, composed on their way to the conference, and sung there with splendid effect.

Miss Wayne spoke first. The thing which appealed most to her at the conference was the way in which the Y. W. C. A. women conducted themselves under all circumstances and every condition, always displaying the true association spirit—always cheerful and happy, never complaining, no matter what befalls. Even a three-mile tramp in a beating rain, she said, failed to "dampen" their cheerful attitude.

Mrs. Dodd's subject was "The Personnel." She told how each delegate, after hearing the inspiring things from the conference leaders who spoke, felt the desire to make more of themselves—to do bigger things. She emphasized one important point—how the conference leaders showed wonderful adaptability to play and play hard and then to turn to the real work of the conference and carry it through with all seriousness and earnest dignity.

Miss Ruby Jacobson, president of the students' Y. W. C. A., told of the students and their meetings at the conference. She brought back her full share of the spirit of good fellowship and hope which must have radiated from the conference.

Mrs. Fox told of the recreation periods and Miss Jennie Rowe of the Bible-study classes. One subject was especially enjoyable and helpful to her, she said, that of the life of Paul in which his gentleness was emphasized. She suggested to members that they substitute this word "gentleness" for "charity" in this epistle and see what the result will be. Miss Hoogestrat told of the beautiful prayers that were offered before each meal, and the hymns every one knew and loved, "Still, Still With Thee" in the mornings and "Day Is Dying in the West" in the evenings. The voices of the many high school girls, she said, sounded clear and sweet through the great hall in their earnestness.

All in all, the secretary said, the conference was one of great inspiration. Five hundred delegates attended this year. It is hoped that this number may be doubled at the next session.

After the speeches and when the embers of the campfire were just right, the coffee was put on to boil and all gathered round to roast wieners and marshmallows. There was a good feast and a happy time until the moon peeped over Jumbo. Then the fire was smothered and the farewell song, "Soft O'er the Mountain," was sung and the evening was over.

Many other sessions of this sort have been planned by the association for the summer and early fall.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Mrs. Tylar B. Thompson, chairman, and her assitants of the educational committee of the Missoula Y. W. C. A., are planning some splendid classes and club work for the coming year. Some registrations are in already for dressmaking, gymnasium and millinery classes and as soon as the required number are enrolled the class work will begin. The association hopes to offer at least two classes in sewing, one for beginners and the other for more advanced students. There are some splendid opportunities being presented for girls and young women to earn their way to the Panama exposition next season. Full particulars can be obtained at association headquarters.

The religious-work committee will meet for supper at 6:30 Wednesday evening. Bible and mission-study classes and vesper services will be planned at this session.

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the association will be held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

For Baptist Choir.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church entertained the Baptist choir members on Thursday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Riley on South Third street. The guests gathered at the Riley home at 8 o'clock and a few minutes later left in automobiles for a drive to Lolo. It was a glorious evening and the ride over this splendid road was never more enjoyed by any crowd. At 11 o'clock the party returned to the Riley home and there were joined by Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Allen. A splendid supper was served at two tables where covers were laid for 20. Masses of golden glow were used as centerpieces in the pretty decorations and in the soft light of many candles the effect was striking. Lively repartee passed across the tables and from one table to the other, and the company was in high good humor. Congregational songs, with piano accompaniment, were sung and it was a late hour before anyone dared hint about going home. All were driven to their residences in automobiles.

Auction Bridge.

Mrs. Gilbert Reinhard entertained a company of ladies at auction bridge Tuesday afternoon, at her home, 414 Eddy avenue. She had as her guest of honor Mrs. Walter Cowan of Albian, Ind., who is an old schoolmate of Mrs. Reinhard. An harmonious and tasteful arrangement of sweet peas and golden glow made the rooms fragrant and festive for the occasion. After a lively game of cards a dainty menu of summer-time refreshments was served by the hostess. Those who had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Cowan were Mesdames John Lucy, Jr., Hugh Forbis, McGowan, Chesley, A. N. Whitlock, Edward Simons, R. H. Nelson, Misses Marguerite, Florence and Helen Coen, Beth Ferrell, Agnes Lombard, Gross and Leona Forbis.

For Mrs. Benedict.

A crowd of merry people spent a pleasant day in Greenough park Thursday at a picnic in honor of Mrs. Frank Benedict, of Ishpeming, Mich., who has been visiting here this summer with her daughters Miss Bernadette Benedict and Mrs. H. R. Patton. The party drove to the park early in the morning. A delicious picnic dinner and a fine supper were both served in the woods.

Those present were Mrs. R. Holland and daughter, Penelope, of Aries, Mrs. Charles Benedict and daughter, Evelyn, Miss Leona La Grandeur, Mrs. H. R. Patton, Miss Bernadette Benedict and the guest of honor, Mrs. Frank Benedict. Mrs. Benedict intends to leave Missoula for her home Tuesday.

Off to Twin Creeks.

The Misses Orpha Culmer, Mabel Garlington, Marjorie Mason, Anna Rummel; Mr. and Mrs. King Garlington, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McClure, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taylor of Butte; Dr. W. R. Stryker of Lewistown, and Messrs. Clermont Rummel, Frank Patterson, Howard Jones, Ralph Arnold, John Patterson and George Schattenburg, made up a jolly party, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. King Garlington, which left Saturday morning for a camping trip to Twin Creeks. The party is well equipped with camping paraphernalia and will undoubtedly have a most enjoyable outing. The plans were for a week's stay in the woods.

From California.

Mrs. Frank McHaffie is entertaining this week, Mrs. E. J. Thompson and daughter, Laura Blanch, of Bakersfield, Cal. Mrs. Thompson was formerly a resident of this city and has many friends here. She has been visiting in Chicago, Wisconsin and North Dakota and is now on her way home.

To Salmon Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Donohue, the Misses Aileen, Dorothy and Katherin Donohue and Messrs. David Roberts, James Mills and James Brown motored to Salmon lake Thursday for the week-end.

The Bridge Club.

Mrs. E. C. Mulroney was hostess for the Bridge club Wednesday afternoon at her home on Connell avenue. Most of the members and several guests were present for a pleasant time at the card tables. The guests of the club were Mesdames J. L. Scott, Herman Kohn, S. J. Coffee, George Newlon, Stanley Easton and Charles Gage of Helena.

Watermelon Feast.

W. H. Goddard was the good fairy who provided a watermelon feast Wednesday evening, which was enjoyed by a merry company on the lawn of the Northern Pacific nurses' home. Among those who enjoyed the luscious treat were Dr. and Mrs. Jennings, Dr. and Mrs. Remington and little daughters, Margaret and Tina, Mrs. Vanderslice, Mrs. Jarvis; Misses Cass, King, McVey, Miller, Skoog, Maud McVey of Victor, O'Brien, Lambrecht, Rose and Margaret Doherty, Schottlekorb, Mahanna; Dr. John Docter, Dr. Richmond, Walter McLeod and Don Hoon.

Surprise.

At their home, 1504 South Fourth street west, Mr. and Mrs. William Dye, who are soon removing to Spokane, were pleasantly surprised last evening by a number of friends and neighbors who came bringing farewell gifts and delicious and elaborate refreshments. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dillman, Mr. and Mrs. Olds, Mr. and Mrs. Lesseg, Mr. and Mrs. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Berryman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reed, Madame Reed, Grandma Hayes; Mesdames C. Replogle, Dyer, Smith, Chambers and Bascom. An enjoyable evening was spent and the guests left after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Dye all good fortune in their new home.

Glendivers' Reunion.

A number of old time friends and neighbors were entertained Sunday by Dr. and Mrs. Walker of Orchard Homes. The party found a delightfully cool and shady nook on the Walker ranch and after enjoying a spread of delicious things to eat, spent the remainder of the afternoon in visiting. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lentz and children, Mrs. Fisher of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Barnett and children and Madam Barnett, who have recently come from Glendive to make their home in Orchard Homes, and Dr. and Mrs. Walker and family.

Guest From Ogden.

Miss Margaret Mercer of Ogden, Utah, is the guest of the Misses Deschamps at their home on East Front street. The Misses Juliet and Loretta Deschamps and Miss Mercer left Wednesday for the Deschamps ranch to spend the week-end.

Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lucy, Jr., entertained at dinner Wednesday, at their home on South Third street. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cowan of Albian, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Reinhard were the guests to enjoy a splendid menu, daintily served. Shasta daisies were used in the table decorations.

Mrs. Borman's Lawn Party.

Mrs. C. F. Borman was hostess at a lawn party Wednesday afternoon at her home on North Second street. The guests of special honor were Mrs. E. A. Young and her daughters, Misses Mabel and Bernice Young, of Watrous, Sask. There were four tables of whist and at the conclusion of the game prizes were awarded to Mrs. Minnerly and Miss Anna Schatz. Mrs. Greenfield drew the consolation prize. Lunch was served on daintily-appointed trays at the card tables. Miss Mabel Young favored the company with a pleasing recitation and then the ladies had a very congenial time visiting. Those present were: Mesdames A. M. Stevens, M. McDermott, S. Kunz, H. Greenfield, Moeller, Siegel, Bishop, Wagner, Keith, Heckler, Schatz, Gallagher, Hardinger, Minnerly, Walterskirchen and Young; Misses Anna Schatz and Mabel and Bernice Young.

For the Misses Young.

Mrs. C. F. Borman entertained Thursday evening at her home on North Second street, in compliment to the Misses Mabel and Bernice Young of Watrous, Sask. A pleasant informal evening was spent by the guests playing whist and other games. There was a splendid musical program including vocal and instrumental numbers, and Miss Mabel Young entertained the company in a very able manner with clever readings. Late in the evening the guests were served with a dainty lunch on artistically arraigned trays. The guests were Misses Nellie Gorman, Minnie Beyers, Anna and Amelia Kiss, Freda Heckler, Lucile Stevens, Grace Kahayer, Lulu Osmer, Lizzie Siegel, Edna Jones, Anna Schatz, Margaret Stevens, Grace and Beulah Waltemate, Anna Olson, Mabel and Bernice Young; Mesdames Stevens, Bishop, Young, Waltemate and Beall.
