room of the house, where the Mayor was leaning on the table, froth issuing from his mouth.

Mr. BARBER's son then discharged him from custody till four o'clock that afternoon, (it was then long past four,) and he has not since been molested.

☞ H. J. Raymond, editor of the Courier and Enquirer, is spoken of, says the Rochester Advertiser, as the probable Whig candidate for the Speakership of the New York Assembly.

Foreign News.

The Free Press has the following despatch from New York, of Saturday evening last:

The Steamer Franklin arrived to-day with Havre dates to the 1st, and Southampton to the 2d,—the same day as the Cambria from Liverpool. The general news in England since the sailing of the Atlantic is of but little interest. The excitement among the clergy, consequent upon the late movements of the Pope, is increasing. German papers confirm the late accounts respecting the movement of Austrian troops in support of the Bavarian forces which are about to enter Electoral Hesse Germany. No authentic accounts have been received yet of the result of the conference at Warsaw, on the Danish affairs.

BALTIMORE, Monday, Nov. 11.

The trial of General Chaplin for slave stealing was preliminarily commenced to-day at Rockville, Montgomery County, Md. The Jury will be sworn to-morrow morning. George R. Richardson, Attorney General of Maryland, and Mr. Bowie were present for prosecution, and Messrs. Pitts, Radcliffe and Brewer for Chaplin. Witnesses appeared before the Grand Jury, and a true bill was found. Several ladies and gentlemen, friends of Chaplin, were present. The Court House was crowded, and considerable excitement prevailed. Richardson is the greatest criminal prosecutor in the Union. Noman at the Maryland Bar can stand against him.

THE TRIAL OF CHAPLIN, whose case has been removed to the Howard district, is to commence on the 3d day of May next. The bail has been fixed at $10,000, which it is thought will be forfeited. He leaves immediately for the North.

☞ The Pennsylvanian (Loco) declares that such combinations as secured the result in Massachusetts (the coalition triumph) "should be scouted by all honest men, and the sooner they are overthrown the better."

Many Consumptives Cured.—Mr. S. H. Clark, merchant Clyde, Wayne county, N. Y., wrote to inform that BRANDT'S PULMONARY BALSAM sold regularly at Clyde, and contained the testimonials of some of our most respectable people and personal visits to my knowledge, can be relied on, its medical virtues have cured many consumptive persons, several of whom I am acquainted with, who were so badly sick as to be given up by physicians and all friends, past a possibility of cure, and yet the facts are, Brandt's Balsam has restored them to perfect health.

M. W. S. GILLER, a merchant, Byron, Genesee county, N. Y., writes: Send us immediately a further supply of Brandt's Indian Balsam, for the medical effects of that medicine are truly wonderful and astonishing—so much so that the demand for it is rapidly increasing and what is remarkable, not one person of all that I have sold it, but what is satisfied with its medical efficacy; and well may it be so, for it has saved the dying. Some of our most worthy citizens have been cured of Consumption, and though it was but very soon the 'It seems to operate like magic—like a charm.

Messrs. PRATT & FOSTER, merchants of West Concord, write: Send us two or three dozen more of Brandt's Balsam; has effected cures of such inveterate cases of Consumption in this town, that no other remedy has been used, so sick there that it had become a matter of doubt if any cure—some that physicians and all the friends said and thought they would not live to see, have been induced to take one more medicine. He then, when nothing else would help, tried BRANDT'S BALSAM—got well and is now as well as ever in health.

STRONG TESTIMONY.

☞ The columns of the Press throughout the country seem to be filled with cases of some one disease or other, which leads to believe the people know not what to do in case of disease for fear that in using one medicine another and better may be overlooked. But Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, is the only order and fact amount of testimony, which I have met with, that our physicians of the contemporary schools of Dr. Rush's School of Lancet, Tube and Cupping, Abroad, are compelled to resort to the evidence of our senses, and positively state, for Coughs and Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, &c., to look for relief to a quiet, safe, and certain remedy. To all our friends we say, TRY IT; and if it does not help you, nothing else will.

FOR COUGHS, COLDS, CONSUMPTION, AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE HEAD.

The VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM, having been tested by the experience of thousands for the last twenty years, is recommended by eminent physicians and others of the highest responsibility, as superior to all other preparations.

From the Editor of the Burlington Sentinel, May 17, 1850.—"The Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam prepared by Reed & Cutler, of Boston, has by one the most popular medicines ever put forth for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption. This is worthy of the high reputation it made sufficiently evident by the immensity of its annual sales. Messrs. Reed & Cutler are above quackery, depending alone upon the intrinsic virtues of their medicinal preparations for their disposal. Humbug is so plentiful, that it gives us real pleasure to offer the trifling and gratuitous testimony of our recommendation to a medicine we know to be a real merit."

An eminent physician writes us—"I have for some time past been in the habit of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, asthma, pleurisy, spitting of blood, and coughs, or pulmonary affections of every kind, and with good effect. I have concluded it is superior to any other preparation used for the above complaints."

Nov. 1, 1850.—New Certificates, to almost any extent, might be added if deemed necessary, but the proprietors feel that the article has become so universally well known, and its virtues so generally acknowledged by physicians and others, as to make it unnecessary to offer at this time further proof of the merits of this highly popular article.

☞ BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS AND IMITATIONS, such as Carter's Compound Pulmonary Balsam, and others, in part bearing the name! Enquire for the article by its whole name, the

and see that it has the written signature of Wm. Jay's CUTLER upon a yellow label, on the blue wrapper. Each bottle and seal is stamped "Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam."

Prepared by REED & CUTLER, Importers and Wholesale Dealers in Medicines, Paints, Chemicals and Dye Stuffs 33 India Street, Boston, and sold by Druggists, Apothecaries, and Country Merchants generally. For particulars and recommendations, see a pamphlet accompanying each bottle.—Price 50 cents. For sale in Middlebury, by

The Rock Foundry

PLOUGHS!!

The subscribers would respectfully invite the attention of the Agricultural Community to their Plough, which has been proved in Western Vermont three years past, during which time it has obtained a character beyond that of any other now in use. The Commissioners claim for its lightness of draft, easy handling, and its power of scouring clean, that it could not be excelled but from its simplicity which, and we feel confident in the belief that our plough cannot but to be found preferable to become a general favorite with the Farmers of the State. It has taken the first premium in Addison County, and wherever it has been seen has been thought to be a superior article.

The shape of the Beam prevents all choking. The shortness of the Beam brings the team nearer the work, which is a great advantage in the draft, ease in working, and driving the team. The Plough upon the land side is different from any thing of the kind in the country, and contributes to the ease of guiding the Plough. Various testimonials can be produced in favor of the above Plough from the best Farmers in the State. The subscribers feel to be able to convince any one of its superiority.

FACTS! FACTS!

A JENNY LIND SONG.—By James McKeand.

TUNE—"She Has Come."

I—An appeal to the judgment,
A candid appeal;
With facts on my side
An assurance I feel.
Facts, Fact, is my maxim,
On Facts I rely;
And to facts I appeal
In the Goods I supply.

II—In this town, my Store
Is seen to attract
A triumph is made—
And in truth a great Fact!
And still it shall sound
As it ever has done,
A glorious fact
For the name it has won.

READER, I am not about to carry you away with my idle or unfounded assertions. I intend in appealing to your judgment, to state Goods and Facts only, without the slightest hesitation or fear of contradiction. One prominent Fact is, that the articles of attire are distinguished by unequalled style—in proof of which, the Proprietor would call attention to his

JAMES Mc KEAND'S

FALL & WINTER STOCK,

which he has just received.

The Over Coats are admirably adapted to the Fall and Winter season, and the extensive patronage with which I have been favored, is a proof that each article may be viewed as a

FACT OF FASHION.

The Dress Coats, Frock Coats, Vests and Pants, are manufactured on the most approved models, and in workmanship they are unfashionably

FACTS OF FIRMNESS.

The Fact of Fit also claims attention—displaying as it does the most artistical and easy adaptation to the figure of the wearer. The Fact of Economy is a well known Fact—in connection with the Fact of whose Store first made an inroad into the extortionate and usurious and injurious charges of the TAILORING TRADE—none other than the establishment of JAS. McKEAND, which has since risen as the

JAMES McKEAND,

WONDER OF THE AGE!

Such are the general Facts to which the Proprietor invites attention.—Facts they indeed are—stubborn—incontrovertible—and glorious Facts, which utter a loud appeal to the judgment of every candid reader. James McKeand invites one and all to test his assertions, assured that they will be proved FACTS—not FICTION.

STATE OF VERMONT, } To the Honorable
Addison County, ss. } Supreme Court, next to be holden at Middlebury, within and for the County of Addison, on the fourth Tuesday next after the fourth Tuesday in December, A. D. 1850.

Humbly showeth, ELIZABETH ROWLEY, of Shoreham, in said County, that on the 19th day of January A. D. 1817, in Shoreham aforesaid, she was lawfully married to Hiram Rowley, then of said Shoreham, (but now supposed to be in some part of the State of Ohio,) by Samuel H. Dudley, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for the said County of Addison, and continued to live with the said Rowley in the state of marriage of all the duties required by the marriage covenant, until the year 1832, when the said Hiram Rowley, without cause deserted her and your petitioner is wholly reduced to live with her or to provide for her support, or to perform any of the duties towards her required by the marriage covenant, but that said Rowley, by intemperance and neglect, has compelled your petitioner to support herself and children by her own industry from A. D. 1830 to A. D. 1843. And your petitioner further showeth that the said Hiram Rowley, while she lived with him, did often treat your petitioner with inhuman cruelty. Your petitioner humbly prays this Hon. Court that the bonds of matrimony be dissolved, and a Divorce granted her.

ELIZABETH ROWLEY.

Dated at Shoreham, Oct. 15th, 1850.

To Hiram Rowley late of Shoreham, in said County of Addison:

Given under my hand at Middlebury, this 31st day of August, A. D. 1850.
