William Nash, }
vs }
Lydia H. Willard, } IN CHANCERY.
Albert A. Torrill, and }
Charles E. Torrill. }

William Nash having this day filed in the office of the County Clerk of the County of Addison, his bill of complaint against Lydia H. Willard, Albert A. Torrill, and Charles E. Torrill, now of Boston, in the State of Massachusetts, stating that on the 5th day of August, A. D. 1848, the said defendants owing indebted to him the said William, in the sum of three hundred dollars, specified in a promissory note of that date, for the same sum, and made payable in two years from date with interest annually, in order to secure the payment thereof according to the tenor of the same, did convey and confirm to the orator, his heirs and assigns, by their deed of bargain and sale, duly executed, acknowledged and recorded, a certain tract or parcel of land situated and lying in Shoreham, in said County of Addison, described and bounded as follows, to wit: beginning at a stake standing in the eastern side of the turnpike road, two chains and 12 1-2 links, south from the southwest corner of the tavern house, now or lately occupied by Edmund Hill, from thence north eighty nine degrees west six chains and fifty links to a red cedar stake, thence north thirteen degrees, east twelve chains and sixty-nine links to a heap of stones on the ledge, thence south eighty-nine degrees west six chains fifty links to a stake in the east line of the turnpike road, thence southwardly in the east line of said road twelve chains and sixty-nine links to the place of beginning, containing eight acres of land, together with the buildings thereon standing, with a condition thereto annexed that if the said Lydia H. Albert A. or Charles E. should pay to the orator the sum of money specified in said promissory note according to the tenor of the same, by the time therein limited for the payment thereof, then the said deed to be void, otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue; and alleging that the sum of money in said note specified had not been paid to the orator, nor any part thereof, and that the estate and interest in said mortgaged premises hath become absolute in the said orator and his heirs, and praying that s'd defendants, their heirs and assigns, may be decreed to pay to the orator and his heirs the said sum of money in said note specified and the interest accrued thereon, by a short day to be limited by the Court, or otherwise that they their heirs and assigns may be forever foreclosed from all right, title and interest in the said mortgaged premises, and that the orator may hold the same to him, his heirs and assigns free and discharged of all claim or equity of redemption of them, the said defendents, their heirs and assigns, and praying for a Subpœna, &c. And it being made to appear that the defendents reside out of the State, so that a subpœna cannot be served on them, It is ordered by the Court that the said Lydia H. Willard, Albert A. Torrill, and Charles E. Torrill be required to appear at the next term of the Court of Chancery, to be held at Middlebury, within and for the County of Addison, on the second Tuesday of June, A. D. 1851, to answer to said bill of complaint, and that the claimant cause this order and the substance of his said bill of complaint to be published three weeks successively in the Middlebury Register—a public newspaper printed at said Middlebury—the last of which said publication shall be at least twenty days previous to said next term.

FOR COUGHS, COLDS CONSUMPTION, AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE HEAD.

The VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM, having been tested by the experience of thousands for the last twenty years, is recommended by eminent physicians and others, of the highest respectability, as superior to any other preparation.

From the Editor of the Burlington Sentinel, May 17 1850.—The Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam prepared by Reed & Cutler, of Boston, has become the most popular medicine ever put forth for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption. That it is worthy of its high reputation is made sufficiently evident by the unanswerable testimonials, from Reed & Cutler are always speaking, depending alone upon the intrinsic virtues of their medicinal preparations for their disposal. Hamburg is so plentiful, that it gives us real pleasure to offer the trifling and gratuitous testimony of our recommendation to a medicine we know to be a real merit."

An eminent physician writes us,—"I have for some time past been in the habit of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, asthma, pleurisy, spitting of blood, and coughs, or pulmonary affections of every kind; and with confidence recommend it as superior to any other preparation used for the above complaints."

Nov. 1, 1850.—New Certificates, to almost any extent, might be added if deemed necessary; that the proprietors feel that the article has become so universally well known, and its virtues so generally acknowledged by physicians and others, as to make it unnecessary to offer, at this time, further proof of the merits of this highly popular article.

☞ BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS AND IMITATIONS, such as Carter's Compound Pulmonary Balsam and others, in part bearing the name! Enquire for the article by its whole name, the

and see that it has the written signature of Wm. Jos's CUTLER upon a yellow label, on the blue wrapper. Each bottle and seal is stamped "Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam."

Prepared by REED & CUTLER, Importers and Wholesale Dealers in Medicines, Paints, Chemicals and Dye Stuffs 33 India Street, Boston, and sold by Druggists, Apothecaries, and Country Merchants generally. For particulars and recommendations, see a complete companying each bottle.—Price 50 cents. For sale in Middlebury, by

FACTS FACTS

A JENNY LIND SONG.—By James McKeand.

TUNE—"She Has Come."

I.—An appeal to the judgment,
A candid appeal;
With facts on my side
An assurance I feel.
Fact, Fact, is my maxim,
On Facts I rely;
And to facts I appeal
In the Goods I supply.

II.—In this town, my Store
Is seen to attract
A triumph in trade—
And in truth a great Fact!
And still it shall stand
As it ever has done,
A glorious fact
For the name it has won.

READER, I am not about to carry you away with any false or unfounded assertions. I intend, in appealing to your judgment, to state Facts, and Facts only, without the slightest hesitation or fear of contradiction. One prominent Fact is, that the articles of attire are distinguished by unequalled style—in proof of which, the Proprietor would call attention to his

JAMES Mc KEAND'S

FALL & WINTER STOCK,

which he has just received.

The Over Coats are admirably adapted to the Fall and Winter season, and the extensive patronage with which I have been favored, is a proof that each article may be viewed as a

FACT OF FASHION.

The Dress Coats, Frock Coats, Vests and Pants, are manufactured on the most approved moulds, and in workmanship they are undoubtedly

FACTS OF FIRMNESS.

The Fact of Fit also claims attention—displaying as it does the most artistical and easy adaptation to the figure of the wearer. The Fact of Economy is a well-known Fact—in connection with the Fact of whose Store first made an inroad into the exhorbitante and usurious and injurious charges of the TAILORING TRADE—none other than the establishment of JAS. McKEAND, which has since risen as the

JAMES McKEAN, D

WONDER OF THE AGE!

Such are the general Facts to which the Proprietor invites attention.—Facts they indeed are—stubborn—insurmountable—and glorious Facts, which utter a loud appeal to the judgment of every candid reader. James McKeand invites one and all to test his assertions assured that they will be proved FACTS—not FICTION.

THIS preparation has now borne the test of over 11 years experience, since its first introduction to public view, during which time, numerous imitations have sprung into existence, bearing their channels the confidence of the community on the curative powers contained in Sarsaparilla Root. Its great reputation and extended use of which has been mainly attributable to the many wonderful cures effected by the use of this preparation. Sands Sarsaparilla Root forms an important part of its combination, it is, at the same time, compounded with other powerful remedies of great power, and it is in the peculiar combination and scientific manner of its preparation, that its remarkable success in the cure of disease depends. Other preparations imitate it in the style of putting up, and in stating the name of its ingredients, and here ends their resemblance to it. Those needing a remedy and prefer like this, are requested to note where this difference exists, and to make a choice of what they will use, not to take any other but that established by their confidence, from the long list of cures it has effected on living witnesses, whose testimonials and residences have been published, and which will bear any testimony to its worth. The whole history of medicine has scarcely furnished a parallel to the numerous and remarkable cures effected by its use, and which daily offer proofs of its efficacy.

FROM KENTUCKY

INFL MATORY RHEUMATISM CURED.

BARDSTOWN, Ky., July 10, 1849.

MESSRS. SANDS—Gentlemen: It is my duty to communicate facts in relation to the beneficial effects of your Sarsaparilla. My wife was afflicted with inflammation and soreness of the stomach of the worst character; her limbs and chest were much swollen; she had constant headache, and last spring was attacked severely with inflammatory rheumatism. The best medical aid we could obtain afforded only momentary relief; and while in this situation, she heard of the many remarkable cures effected by the use of Sand's Sarsaparilla, and concluded its use, which produced instant relief, and less than six bottles entirely removed all the dropsical swelling and every other inflammatory symptom, restoring her to perfect health. I send this statement as an act of justice, believing it to be my duty to encourage the suffering portion of the human family to use Sand's Sarsaparilla, which I believe has no parallel in the catalogue of medicine. With feelings of lasting gratitude, I remain your friend,

SAMUEL P. HARPER.

Messrs. Sands,—Gentlemen,—I take the liberty of sending you a letter which may be of use to those who are suffering as I have done. I received great benefit from your Sarsaparilla, having been cured of a malady after suffering six years. I hereby cheerfully certify to the good effect of your medicine, and I hope God will reward you for all the good you have done. A chronic cough had tormented me day and night, and repeated attacks of fever induced me to believe that I should die of consumption. One day, while suffering a violent attack of burning fever, a friend persuaded me to try your accountable medicine, but to tell the truth I had no confidence in it. I finally purchased a bottle, and by its use and by the help of God, I w restored to better heal h than I had enjoyed for six years. I can but bless the author of this admirable medicine.

With great respect, I am, gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

BERMIN GROUPAN.

"TRUTH IS STRANGER THEN FICTION."

New Durham, N. J., June 30, 1849.

Messrs. Sands—Gentlemen,—My wife suffers with a distress and burning in her chest for man years, and my daughter was afflicted from her birth with a humor in her blood We consulted various physicians, and tried numerous remedies without much benefit, until we heard, through Rev. Thomas Davis, of the great medical value of Sand's Sarsaparilla. On his recommendation my wife and daughter decided on trying it, and soon experienced permanent benefit. My daughter's skin assumed a new appearance entirely; from being rough, hard, and scaly, it became smooth and soft. My wife's sufferings are almost gone, and its use a short time longer, it is my firm belief, will produce a perfect cure.

Yours, with respect,

G. S. HENDRIKSON,

Pastor of the Baptist Church, at the English Neighborhood.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

The Hon Charles D. Ritchie, Editor of the "CAMDEN DEMOCRAT," the best paper in West Jersey, says, July 21—

"HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

"We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came, induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration is really surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

"If this medicine were more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver and nervous system the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition, and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give a trial—it will then recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit."

[From the "Boston Bee."]

The editor said, Dec. 22d—

"DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS for the cure of Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he himself received an efficacious and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience and to the afflicted we advise their use."

☞ Keene's Weekly Courier of the best Literary papers published, said, Aug. 25—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the medical profession as possessing much efficacy in cases of dyspeptic complaints. As such in the case, we would advise all members of Mammon's hostile, and thus save themselves much sickness. Testimony of distinguished men, and those who have had the advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."
