CRIMES.

On Sunday, Mrs. Kimball went to draw some water from a well at Claremont, New Hampshire, when she saw the boots of a man protruding above the surface. The alarm was given, and the body drawn out. It was found to be that of George Dunbarm, a resident near by. The face was horribly mutilated, and a deep gash cut across the forehead, and the nose and cheek bones driven in. A heavy piece of iron covered with blood and evidently used in doing the deed was picked up near by. George Calizer, a brother-in-law of Dunbarm, has been arrested on suspicion of the murder.

A man in La Crosse has been in the habit of visiting a neighboring town on Sundays to enjoy the society of a profligate woman. Last Monday he returned from his visit to find that his wife had taken all the valuables about the house and eloped with another man, leaving the children behind.

The arrest of Mr. Dorsey, State Treasurer of Ohio, was announced by telegraph. The amount of funds alleged to have been illegally used by him, is $65,000. After he had given bonds to answer he was forcibly ejected from his office by order of the Governor. He refused to surrender the key of his safe, and an arrangement was entered into, under which one half the key is to be retained by him, and other half by the Governor, until a successor is duly qualified. The position has been offered to four persons who declined it, and it is now under consideration by a fifth.

An unfortunate woman was found naked, covered with blood and bruises, and apparently in a dying state, in a gateway at Quebec, on Friday morning. She had been dreadfully beaten by her paramour, who accused her of robbing him of fifty-five dollars. She was taken to the hospital, and the ruffian arrested.

An extraordinary robbery occurred in the suburbs of St. Louis. An old gentleman named T. F. January, and his wife, were robbed by five robbers, who drove to the house in an open carriage. They went directly to Mr. January's room, woke him and his wife, and then, with threats, commanded silence. Four of the party then seated themselves and commenced a game of euchre, which lasted for two hours, at intervals of which the fashions were discussed, and conjectures hazarded upon the winner in the forthcoming Lachede race. At the conclusion, a lunch, drawn from the larder of Mr. J., was partaken of, and washed down in bumpers to the health and long life of the cooS, to whose culinary skill they were indebted for the treat, when, leaving two of their number on guard, the other three visited the different rooms, collecting the silver plate and other valuables, not forgetting to search the pockets of their host for greenbacks, nor the dressing case of his lady for the jewelry, all of which was packed up and deposited in the carriage. Then they bade their suffering hosts good bye, and soon were out of sight.

The New York Express reports a trial in that city, where four girls, sisters, between the ages of sixteen and twenty-two, were witnesses. They were all inmates of one house of ill-fame in that city. Their father is an orthodox clergyman.

A wretch named Curley, living in Williamsburg, L. I., got angry at his wife, on Monday, and attempted to kill her with a knife. He stabbed her several times in different parts of the body. It is thought her wounds will not prove mortal. The injured woman is about twenty-two years of age, and her husband twenty-four. The only excuse he gives for his conduct, is that his wife and a man named Farrel have been intimate for two years, and that he has been watching them. Mrs. Curley states that this is the second time he has attempted her life, having laid her forehead open with a knife about nine months since, when she was residing in Smith street.

A poor old man, ninety years of age, residing in New York city, in view of his approaching death, saved up fifty dollars with which to purchase a coffin and pay his funeral expenses. Some heartless thief stole the money from the old man the other day.

A Presbyterian clergyman, who had charge of a parish in Scotland, borrowed large sums of money from different members of his congregation, recently, and skedaddled for Liverpool. He wrote a letter to his congregation, dated at Liverpool, in which he expressed his extreme regret at the step which he had found it necessary to take, and assured them that the circumstances which had induced him to leave were so peculiarly distressing that, were his congregation acquainted with them, they would give him their sympathy. He trusted they would enjoy prosperity and happiness in future, and commended them to the care and protection of God.

Is Health Worth Having!

If it is, protect it. It is as hard to easily lost as virtue, and in some cases as difficult to recover—Nature, in our climate, and especially at this season, requires to be constantly reinforced. But everything depends upon the tonic used for this purpose. The medicinal tinctures, all of which are based on common alcohol, are dangerous. Quinine, as everybody finds out who takes much of it, is a slow poison. One safe preventive from all unhealthy influences exists, and only one. This great preventive is HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, a compound of the purest stimulant ever manufactured, with the most effective tonics, alteratives, regulators, and deplurators that chemistry has yet extracted from the botanical kingdom. Convalescents, invalids and people from recent sickness, will find the Bitters an incomparable Restorative, and temperance in the taste, and eminently invigorating. No other stimulant produces the same effect as the Bitters. It does not excite or flatter the nerves, or occasion any undue arterial action, but at once soothes and strengthens the nervous system and the animal spirits. 1m19

"Come then and minister to a mind diseased,
Strew the soul leaves of balmy balm,
Gather the rose leaves while yet they are
That weight upon the heart!"

Certainly; PLANTATION BITTERS will do it when nothing else will. Melancholy, depression, Hypochondria, Infirmity, all spring, more or less, from a diseased stomach, and this PLANTATION BITTERS is a sure cure for. There is no mistake about it; Dyspepsia, Headache, Dullness, Ague, and Low Spirits must yield to the health-giving and genial influence of the PLANTATION BITTERS. If you are in doubt make one trial and be convinced.

A CARD TO INVALIDS.

Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

THOMPSON'S IMPROVED TRUSS, for sale by GEORGE TUTTLE M. D., Factory Point. 49

THE ANDERSON

SPRING BED BOTTOM.

(C. E. Hamessey's Patent, granted October, 1861.)

ANOTHER TRIUMPH OF AMERICAN GENIUS!

No more vexing Bed Cords and tormenting Cross Ticks!

This desirable Bed has now been in use a sufficient length of time to show that it gives entire satisfaction, and actually is the more valued the more it is tried.

It has many advantages over the cord or slipstic spring.

1st, It is much lighter, weighing only 30 lbs.

2nd, It never gets out of order when properly put up.

3rd, Persons sleep on it more comfortably than on any other bed.

4th, It is much more durable than any other spring bed.

5th, It costs but one-half as much as coil springs.

6th, It does not wear the bedding, and can be used with or without a mattress.

Beware of Counterfeits!

This, like all other valuable inventions, has been counterfeited. Buy none but the ANDERSON SPRING BED BOTTOM, as all others are miserable swindles.

CAUTION!

This is to certify that I have purchased the exclusive right to manufacture and vend the Anderson spring bed in the County of Bennington, (except the towns of Dorset and Rupert). All persons infringing upon said right will be strictly dealt with according to law.

A. L. BOWEN.

The proprietor of the right in the County of Bennington, offers to sell the right to manufacture and vend the the Anderson Spring Bed Bottom in towns either single or combined, to clubs or single parties wishing. For terms, circulars and testimonials, address, with stamp,
