Temperance Column.

THE LOST RESTORED.

A pastor, for many years settled in one of the beautiful towns of Western New York, narrates the following:

Having on one occasion invited a worthy brother to accompany him on one of his frequent visits among his parishioners, he cheerfully consented, and turning into the street to a portion of the town a little out of my usual route, we made a call or two on persons with whom I had some acquaintance.—Not far from the house where we last stopped we saw a dilapidated dwelling, with door open, and a general appearance of poverty and unthrift. Stepping up to the threshold, I knocked with my knuckles on the door, but no one answered. I then ventured to advance to the door of the apartment, and saw a woman lying on the floor, evidently deeply intoxicated. I beckoned to Bro. B. He entered, and his looks sympathized with mine as we scanned the room. A rickety bedstead, with a tick filled with straw, a couple of broken chairs, a fragmentary table, and a few pieces of earthenware on the mantle-shelf, completed the furniture of the house. The place was the very picture of squalor, wretchedness, and want.—In the centre of the room lay the occupant—the mother of three young children, who were away, ragged and suffering, playing with some children of the neighborhood.

The scene made a deep and burdensome impression on my heart. I felt that here was a woman perishing in her sins, going down to death and ruin, unprepared to meet her judge. I felt an irresistable impulse to pray for her.—Unconscious as she was, wretched and helpless as she was, I could not resist. I said, "Let us pray," and I knelt down at her side, and prayed for that woman as I had seldom prayed before. I pleaded with God in her behalf for the sake of his dear Son, who had pardoned the wanderer, to save this woman to the glory of his grace and the honor of his Son. When I closed, we rose from our knees, and, seeing the woman still stupidly unconscious of our presence, we retired.

As soon as we had regained the street, Bro. B. remarked: "You have more grace than I have. I could never pray for a case like that!" "I could'nt help it," I said; "God will do as seems best to him."

A few months afterward I was passing along the street, when I saw a very respectably dressed lady on the same side of the way approaching. Her appearance was pleasing and prepossessing, her carriage betokened the lady, and her dress was neat and handsome, but not extravagant. She stopped me, and said. "How do you do, sir? I would like to speak to you."

"Have you not made a mistake, madam?" I inquired.

"No, sir, I have not."

"Do you remember on one afternoon, some months ago, going into a house where you found a woman lying intoxicated on the floor, and that you prayed with her?"

"Yes, I remember it," I said.

"Well, sir, I am that woman. I was respectably brought up by Christian parents. I married, but my husband died, and poverty and sorrow laid their hand on me. I thought I saw no way to support my children but by my own shame. With the loss of self-respect, I took to the intoxicating cup. I was at the very bottom of my career when you found me. I could sink no lower this side of the grave. You came to my door. You saw me and pitied me.—You thought I was unconscious—that I was too far gone to know what was passing. But it was not so. I heard and understood all. Your prayer carried me back to my early days. It made me think of a Christian home, a mother's prayers and a father's love; now both gone to heaven. I felt once more that God had not forsaken me.—I heard your prayer, and God heard it, and has answered it. Blessed be his name! He has saved me, and I could not keep from telling you that your prayer was heard."

My heart was almost to full for utterance as I listened to her earnest and impressive words. She had risen from that day's dissipation, a convicted sinner, sought pardon and found it, had removed to another town, engaged in some respectable and profitable employment, and had made profession of her faith in one of the churches. The last intelligence I had of her was of her consistent and amiable life as a Christian woman, delighting in good words and works.

WHISKEY, SO-CALLED.—If the temperance societies would publish the revelations recently made as to the way in which whiskey is manufactured in New York, it would have more effect on the cause than volumes of didactic reasoning. It is conclusively shown that men whose digestive organs are not iron-clad cannot drink the liquor of modern times with impunity. The manufacturer is not content with making a harmless imitation, but is led by avarice to reduce the strength of alchol one-half by adding water, putting in fiery substances that the deception may not be discovered.—Thus the liquid burns the throat of the drinker, who is thereby led to believe that it is strong. The receipt generally used is as follows:

To 40 gallons of common whiskey add 30 gallons water.
5 gallons tincture Guinea pepper.
1 quart tincture kellitory.
2 ounces acetic ether.
1 1-2 gallons strong tea.

To improve the flavor of this whiskey add three ounces of pulverized charcoal and four ounces of ground rice to a gallon of spirits, letting it stand for a week, and stirring it every day.—Daily Advertiser.

SYMPTOMS.

The symptoms of Catarrh are at first very slight. Persons find they have a cold, that they have frequent attacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of temperature. In this condition the nose may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and acrid, afterwards thick and adhesive, may ensue.

As the disease becomes chronic, the discharges are increased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The secretions are offensive, causing a bad breath; the voice thick and nasal; the eyes are weak; the sense of smell is lessened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place.

Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning of a slick or slimy mucous, which has fallen from the hemp during the night.—When this takes place, the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the lungs, and should loose no time in arresting it.

The above are but few of the many Catarrhal symptoms. Write to our Laboratory for our pamphlet describing fully all symptoms; it will be sent FREE to any address. Also directions where to procure the medicine.

We are receiving letters from all parts of the Union, and also numerous testimonials from those using it, bearing the evidence of its infallible merits.

☞ This remedy contains no MINERAL or POISONOUS INGREDIENTS, but is prepared from vegetable extracts EXCLUSINELY; therefore it is PERFECTLY HARMLESS, even to the most tender and delicate child. ☜

ACCIDENT INSURANCE.

The Travelers' Insurance Company of Hartford, Connecticut, is the pioneer Accident Insurance Company of this country; it has a paid-up capital of half a million, with a large and increasing surplus safely invested for the security of its policy holders, and its management is in the hands of prudent and experienced underwriters. Within the past two years it has written seventy thousand policies, and promptly PAID OVER THREE THOUSAND LOSSES—including fifty-one total losses (by death)—in which the large sum of $174,500 was realized for less than $1,000 in premiums. Its large and successful business, and promptness and liberality in paying losses, place it at the head of Accidental Insurance Companies.

Policies written by all agents for any term from one month to five years, for any sum from $1,000 to $10,000, with from $5 to $50 weekly compensation, at from $5 to $60 annual premium.

LIFE AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMBINED.

The Travelers of Hartford now issues policies insuring against LOSS OF LIFE FROM ANY CAUSE, whether disease or accident, with weekly compensation for disabling accident, thus combining LIFE and ACCIDENT insurance under one policy, at the lowest rates of premium. All approved forms of Life insurance, wither endowment, ten year, life, or term policies, either with or without weekly compensation. The Combined Life and Accident Policies are all written at the Home Office.

There is no previous instance in the History of Life Insurance where indemnity has been secured to the policy holder for loss or damage to the person, as well as absolute loss of life. Experienced actuaries express the opinion that this will prove the most valuable and popular insurance yet devised.

boldly asserts (and it cannot be contradicted, except by Quacks, who will say or do anything, even perjure themselves, to impose upon patients,) that he engaged in treatment of Special Diseases, a fact so well known to many Citizens, Publishers, Merchants, Hotel Proprietors, &c., that he is much recommended, and particularly to

STRANGERS AND TRAVELLERS,

To avoid and escape Imposition of Foreign and Native Quacks, were numerous in Boston than other large cities, gratefully refers to Professors and respectable physicians—many of whom consult him in critical cases, because of his acknowledged skill and reputation, attained through so long experience, practice and observation.

DR. L. DIX

AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE!

Be not robbed and add to your sufferings by being deceived by the lying boasts, misrepresentations, false promises and pretensions of

who know little of the nature and character of Special Diseases, and LESS as to their cure. Some exhibit forged Diplomas of Institutions or Colleges which never existed in any part of the world, others exhibit Diplomas of the Dead, how obtained, unknown; not only assuming and advertising in names of those inserted in the Diplomas, but to further their imposition assume names of other most celebrated Physicians long since dead. Neither be deceived by through false certificates and references, and commendations of their medicines by the dead, who cannot expose or contradict them; or who, besides, to further their imposition, copy from Medical books much that is written of the qualities and effects of different herbs and plants, and ascribe all the same to their Pills, Extracts, Specifics, &c., most of which if not all, contain Mercury, notwithstanding the ancient belief of its "curing everything," but now known to "kill more than is cured," and those not killed constitutionally injured for life.

IGNORANCE OF QUACK DOCTORS AND NOSTRUM MAKERS.

Through the ignorance of the Quack Doctor, knowing no other remedy, he relies upon MERCURY, and gives it to all his patients in Pills, Drops, &c., so the nostrum maker, equally ignorant, adds to his so-called Extracts, Specific, Antidote, &c., both relying upon its effects to cring a few hundred, it is trumpeted in various ways throughout the land; but, ALAS! nothing is said of the hundreds some of whom die, others grow worse, and are left to linger and suffer for months or years, until relieved or cured, if possible, by competent physicians.

BUT ALL QUACKS ARE NOT IGNORANT.

Notwithstanding the foregoing facts are known to some Quack Doctors and Nostrum Makers yet, regardless of the life and health of others there are those among them who will even perjure themselves, contradicting giving mercury to their patients or that it is contained in their Nostrums, so that the "unsuited" may be obtained for professedly curing, or "the doctor" or "direction of it" may be obtained for the nostrum. It is thus that many are deceived and needlessly spend large amounts for experiments with quackery.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PROF. DEVAUX'S
ORIENTAL FRAGRANTIE, or Perfume of Love.

This celebrated Perfume, which has of late succeeded the fashionable world around, possesses a delightful odor. It contains the volatile essence of Turkish plants known to the sensualists and sultans of the East as possessing the power to create Love, and greatly increase the affections, producing a sentiment of concord or unity in Love, even to the most feeling of minds. This virtue resides in the Fragrantie, invaluable to persons who feel the absence or loss of the affections of those whom they prize. There is produced a warmth of feeling in the breast of those whom it is intended to affect, thus promoting marriage and sensibly cementing a mutual love.

It especially disposes all persons that, awaken the slightest or distant love, sublime the exasperating threat, remove the bashfulness of the maiden, development the hesitancy, repulsive force, make the rough path of juvenile years even, and open to each breast a fillet happy. To those who fear or feel their helpmate been false. It commends itself beyond all words. To lovers, or those who would be loved, its effect is genius is lonely enjoyed with the happiest results. Its effects are irresistible. To those who mourn an absent love ones, the stirring comes like a soothing balm. No walk in life so gloomy, no nature so smooth, no heart so relentless, as not to acknowledge the sunshine of its pressure.

As a perfume the FRAGRANTIE not only surpasses all other preparations in luxurious richness, but withstands the action of the atmosphere. The aroma is delicate, and emphatic the person. Constantly bestowing its sweetness, it is inexhaustible, and generously imparts its precious for years.

With this celebrated article as a lover, no young lady or gentleman need give in single blessedness. Full and explicit directions for use will accompany each bottle. This article is well worth the price as a perfume alone. Price per bottle, $1. Four bottles sent by mail or express prepaid on receipt of $3.

The Fragrantie can be sent privately secure from observation, and all correspondence will be considered strictly confidential. All orders should be addressed to BERGER, SHUTTS & CO, Chemists, 285 River street, Troy, N. Y, the only Agents for the same in America.

LADIES, ATTENTION.
Amplificateur Fronteau!

For enlarging, beautifying and developing the breast. The preparation was originally prepared by Dr De Verieux, of Paris, and has been used during the past five years by thousands of the fashionable of Paris and London, with the most gratifying results.

It is now for the first time presented in this country. It will in all cases remove any defect in form or condition of the Female breast, as its application changes and perfects it in its peculiar beauty.

Ladies who from any cause have not been fully developed, will find it invaluable for producing a fullness of form, consisting the breasts large and firm, removing hoarseness and pain, and giving life and action to the mammary organs.

Elderly ladies by its use can renew their bosoms to the condition of their youth, while all young ladies whose development has not been thorough, can improve their forms, by producing a fullness and firmness, so typical of all earthly beauty.

Its excellent quality gives an exquisite softness to the skin, while it vitalizes and stimulates the whole vascular system, increasing the development, and beautifying the form. It gives to the breasts that perfect development which excites the admiration of the most indifferent, and which is the pride of every lady of refinement and educated taste, and should be placed among the treasures of a perfect toilet.
