A DIALOGUE.

Mrs. Smith.—Dear! Dear! dear! what shall I do. Trouble, trouble, all the time. If I could keep the children still and not excited it would not seem so hard to get along, but they are noisy all the time from early morn till late at night.

Mrs. Brown.—My children are a great deal of comfort and a great source of pleasure to me. I need to be troubled the same way till I found the key to happiness. I spend a few dollars every year in Toys and Games, and I think it is money well laid out. It amuses me, and makes them happy, and I pass a great many pleasant hours in seeing them enjoy themselves.

Mrs. Smith.—Where can I buy some toys,—who keeps the best assortment?

Mrs. Brown.—Francis Fenn & Co. have just returned from the city with the most assortment I ever saw. Their store is crowded full of every thing in the line of Christmas Goods. It is as good as a show to go through their store and look over their goods.

Mrs. Smith.—I must go right off and try the experiment. I wonder if they would like to have me take my children with me?

Mrs. Brown.—Yes, by all means take the children; they will enjoy it as well as Mr. Fenn likes to show them some.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders which were aggravated by the severity of previous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Its presence in the system and exhibit tement of the organism underneath the complexion, and invites the attack of something or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints may generally find speedy relief, and in many cases, to the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other symptoms or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Tic, Neuralgia, Neuralgia, and the various Uterine affections of the secretary and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for expelling these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the most stubborn cases. Leucorrhea or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are rapidly made to yield and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield readily to it, as also Liver Complaint, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great resource for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Dispondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions, Tremblings, or any of the miserable sensations of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

DODD'S NERVINE ONCE MORE.

The standard remedy for Debilitated with the most bad problems in the Art. Nervous Pills for Anxiety, Pain, Nervous Debility, and Nervous Weakness, well enough deserved. But it is a fact, nevertheless, and most people of sensibility feel something about as big as a mowing horse coming into their throat whenever a pill is spoken of. DODD'S NERVINE AND TONIC OLD TOUT acts efficiently on the biliary organism, it invigorates the economy, it restores to the operation and what is VERY IMPORTANT, as all good women know, it is MOST AGREEABLE TO TAKE, being as pleasant to the palate as any delicate wine. We all know how it is with Cod Liver Oil. In a pure state it is excellent for certain conditions of debility, and particularly in tendencies to Consumption; and yet many of the best physicians decline to prescribe it, because it is so decidedly distasteful to their patients. That, they say, makes it do more harm than good. With Dodd's Nervine all this bugbear vanishes.

THE SPRINGFIELD REPUBLICAN.

A NEW ENGLAND FAMILY JOURNAL OF NEWS, POLITICS, LITERATURE, AND SOCIAL LIFE.

PUBLISHED DAILY, SEMI-WEEKLY AND WEEKLY.

By SAMUEL BOWLES & COMPANY,

SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

ITS PROMINENT FEATURES.

The prominent features of THE REPUBLICAN as a Newspaper and Family Journal are, completeness and promptness, thoroughness and system in the preparation and presentation of News of every description—seeking to give adequately the fact but the meaning and moral of every event. Able, candid and popular Editorial discussions of all public questions, men and things—intelligent and independent Correspondence from Boston, New York and Washington, the far West and Europe—letters of fact, letters of travel, letters of opinion and criticism; Reviews and Extracts from New Books, impartial examinations of intelligence in the Literary, Art and Religious worlds. Studies, sketches, Lectures, Poetry, Life of Biography, Science, Agriculture, Mechanics, extracts from original contributors, or from the choicest Magazines and Literary Journals of America and Europe. No other newspaper proper gives so much space as THE REPUBLICAN to all this latter wide variety of Literary and Family Reading.

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN.

The Daily Republican is almost of the most enterprising journals of New York and Boston in all the news arrangements. Special dispatches complete the reports of the associated press, and together they sweep the world to their daily reports. In local news, its reports and compilations are especially full and reliable, and have become an equal model for near and distant contemporaries. Twice a week the Daily Republican is issued on a double sheet, which this paper was the first to introduce and is the only one to maintain in New England, with two full pages of extra reading matter. And in amount and variety, as well as in the character of its contents, the Daily Republican claims superiority to any of its provincial rivals, while the price at which it is afforded is below nearly all of them, and of its metropolitan contemporaries.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLICAN.

The Semi-Weekly Republican, printed on a double sheet, with seven of its eight pages filled with news and miscellaneous reading, has no superior as a newspaper for interior circulation in New England. It gives all the news of the daily paper, promptly and orderly, and embraces all the editorials, literary and miscellaneous contents of that sheet. To persons who have heretofore taken a weekly paper and are not in favorable locations to receive a daily, or to persons at a distance who desire, more promptly and fully than the weekly can furnish, all the local news and opinions of New England, we can especially commend the Semi-Weekly Republican.

THE WEEKLY REPUBLICAN.

The Weekly Republican is becoming more and more an Organ of New England Opinion, and a Family, Political, Social and Literary Journal—its full and intelligent Review of the Week, its page of especial New England matter, and its column of financial, commercial and market affairs furnish its readers all that is wanting in the way of news. But the great bulk of its pages are devoted to Editorial Discussions, Correspondence, Literary Reviews and Selections, Stories and Essays, and other interesting and instructive family reading. Its circulation is rapidly extending, not only throughout New England, but all over the country, first, as the best compiler of New England news; second, as the best representative of nationalized New England opinion, and third, as a generous collection of the best current literature of the day.

WITH THE NEW YEAR (1870)

The Republican will appear in new type throughout, and an otherwise improved mechanical appearance. More space will be given, than heretofore to original and selected Stories. These will become more than ever a special feature of our columns, and make the Republican still more welcome, where it has always been so great a favorite—in the homes of the people of the country.

TO ADVERTISERS.

The circulation of THE REPUBLICAN, both in character and extent, puts it among the very choicest advertising mediums in the country. Its subscribers number nearly 25,000, and its readers rising one hundred thousand, and are among the most intelligent and enterprising families, farmers and business men of New England and the West. No paper out of Boston in New England has by half so large a circulation, and only two or three papers in that city exceed it.

The Proprietors of THE REPUBLICAN also own and carry on an extensive general
