EAST MANCHESTER.

—Mark Eaton, son of John T. Eaton, was found dead in his bed yesterday morning. He retired Sunday night apparently in his usual health.

—The proprietor of the Cliff Dale House yesterday presented us with a bottle of new Cider—It was excellent. We understand that the table of the "Cliff Dale" is supplied every day with this beverage.

—Berries in the valley of East Manchester are fast becoming scarce. Pickers are obliged to climb the mountain to obtain them now.

—Says a correspondent: "My father, who long since rested from his labors, informed me during his lifetime, that there was once an Inn, so called, in those times, on the premises which are now known as the Day place, in Winhall, and that there was a public road from thence to Bennington through Stratton, and that the federal soldiers made use of that highway. But the house was long since vacated and the road has become a forest. The people of the town of Stratton, however, are considering the feasibility of reopening the road, or of building a new road leading from that town to East Manchester, which will intersect with the Boudville road at the Day Brook Bridge in Rootville, or properly, Pattenburgh, thereby making the main thoroughfare to this place.

RUPERT.

Census of 1870: Population, males 510, females 510—total 1020. Foreign born 108; number of voters 251; number of dwelling houses 221; families 209. Population in 1860, 1105.

—The south-west part of the town was visited by a very severe storm of rain and hail on the 6th inst., doing a great deal of damage to fruit, trees, corn, oats and buckwheat, also breaking a large amount of window glass. The storm was about 3-4 of a mile wide, crossing Hebron, Rupert, a part of Salem, Sandgate and onward, showing unmistakably the power of the storm and tempest. R.

Town of Rupert Progressing.—In 1850 the town supported one store, three churches with settled pastors, three post-offices, with semi-weekly mails transported by horse-power. In 1870 the town supports four general stores, two cheese factories, one tannery, one cold blast, one lodge of good Templars, all of which are in good and flourishing condition, three post offices with semi-daily mails, now is carried by steam, three saloons, none of which at the present time have a settled practice. R.

Having no absences or tardies the past two terms: Katie Flynn. Others having no absences or tardies during the past term: Ida Colvin, Emma Streeter Elias Haleth. Having no absences but tardies: Rachel Bovie, Eugene O'Heron. SANDGATE.

—Population, males 334, females 314, total 707. Foreign born 31, number of voters 154. Dwelling houses 156, families 147. Population in 1860, 862.

War Map.—Colton's European War Map is evidently the most reliable one published. It is on a sheet 19 by 32 inches the digest portion showing, on a scale of twenty miles to an inch, the French and German Frontiers. The scale is sufficiently large to show all the fortified cities and other principal points of interest, and the villages and streams that will necessarily be mentioned in the war news. On the same sheet there is a map of Central and South Western Europe, showing all of Prussia, France, Spain and Italy. It is handsomely colored, and illustrated with the flags of the combatants, etc. Sent by mail for fifty cents by the publishers, G. W. & C. B. Colton & Co., New York.

Demorest's Monthly Magazine combines the most useful, beautiful, comprehensive and comprehensive and complete Magazine now issued. It employs only first-class writers in all its numerous departments, including Music, Stories, Poetry, Household matters, Architecture, and Gardening; and its fashions are unquestionably far ahead of all others, both for beauty and Originality. Demorest's Monthly, for handsome typography, high-toned literature, and first-class illustrations, is not excelled by any other. The September number just issued, is fully up to the usual standard, and fully entitles it to the claim of being the Model Parlor Magazine of America. Yearly $3. A choice of premiums, worth from two to ten dollars, is given to each subscriber, among which is a splendid Parlor Chromo, worth $5. Address W. Jennings Demorest, 838 Broadway, New York.

Peterson's Magazine for September is already on our table. It is a wonder to us how so cheap and yet artistic a publication can be published at so low a price, and especially how it can go on improving, as it does, but the explanation, we suppose, is its vast circulation, which is the largest we believe in the United States. The principal engraving in this number is one of the most exquisite we have ever seen. It is called "Kathleen," and represents a beautiful high-spirited girl, the heroine of a fine ming novelet, begun in this number, "Kathleen's Lover-Story." But the tales and romances of this magazine are always good; in fact the very best out. The double-size colored steel fashion plate is elegant, and, to add that there are some fifty wood-cuts of dresses, bonnets, collars, &c. One of the most valuable articles is our "Every Day Dresses," illustrated with engravings, showing how stylish and fashionable dresses may be made at home, and economically. "Peterson's" is the only magazine that gives three articles, and one appears every month. Every lady might to take this magazine. Terms $2 a year, with liberal deductions to clubs. Published by Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

Demorest's Young America, the juvenile Prince of Magazines, is one of table, and we find on every, that the illustrations of the pictures of experts than for the good things they are always were to find in it. The publisher of the Baltimore Dime notes for present number especially attractive, and "Fitting Frocks" will realize the attention of the juveniles. Yearly, $1.50, with a beautiful premium, worth the cost of Young America. Address W. Jennings Demorest, 838 Broadway, New York.

Crockery. Since the introduction of the Patent Sea Moss Farina, a complete revolution has taken place in that department of cookery to which we owe the luxuries of the dessert. The so-all-delicious Blanc Mange, Jelly Corkscrew, Chocolate Moss, light Puddings, &c., are produced from this palatable nutriment, at about one-third of the former cost. A great saving of time as well as money is effected by its use. The preparations made from it are prescribed by physicians as the best possible diet for consumptives, dyspeptics, and persons suffering from debilitation and general debility. Convalescents relish them, and gain rapidly in muscular strength as well as in flesh. The Sea Moss Farina Co., 36 Park Place, New York, who are manufacturing this article from the best Irish Moss, in enormous quantities, produce an array of medical and general testimony in its favor, which is perfectly overwhelming, and must set all doubts of its superiority as a alimentary staple (if any exist) entirely at rest.

Great harm and discomfort is caused by the use of purgatives which gripe and rack the system. Parsons Purgative Pills are free from all injurious matter, and are mild and health-giving in their operation.

At this season of the year, cramps and pains in the stomach and bowels, dysentery, diarrhoea, &c., are quite common, and should be checked at once. Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is the best article that can be used in all such cases, and should be kept in every family.

To Cure a Cough, to relieve all irritation of the throat, to restore to perfect soundness and health the most delicate organization of the human frame—the Lungs,—use Dr Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which is still prepared with the same care in the selection and compounding of its various ingredients as when it was introduced to the public by Dr Wistar, over forty years since.

Reader, are you troubled with headache? Try Benne's Pain Killing Magic Oil! For all kinds of pain, and for sprains, or bruises, or for internal pains, or cramps, "It works like a charm." Call for it where you trade.

Special Notices.

Sinking Slowly.

Diseases that progress rapidly to a crisis are not the only ones to be dreaded. Canker or dry rot does not blast a tree as suddenly as a stroke of lightning, but unless arrested, it destroys it as certainly; and in like manner chronic debility, although it does not kill with the swiftness of yellow fever, is as sure to sap the the springs of life eventually as any acute disease, if not checked by invigorating medication. There is something inexpressibly touching in the spectacle of premature decay. Languor, pallor, emaciation depression of spirits, and distaste for exertion, are its ordinary symptoms, and they should be promptly met by tonic treatment. The best invigorant and exhilarant that can be administered in a case of this kind is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The stimulating principle of the preparation rouses the dormant energies of the system, and the strengthening and regulating properties give a permanent and healthful impulse to the vital forces thus brought into play. The failing appetite is re-awakened, the process of digestion and assimilation are quickened, the quality of the blood is improved, the secretions become more natural, and every organ that contributes to the nourishment of the body undergoes salutary change. By these means the repair of the physical structure is effected and its health and vigor restored. In no class of diseases has the beneficent operation of the Bitters been more marked and striking than in those characterized by general debility and nervous prostration. Ladies afflicted with these ailments find in this most wholesome of all tonic and correctives the safest and surest means of relief. It is strong to restore and powerless to injure. See to the uniform testimony of "clouds of witnesses."

BUTCHER'S MEAT.

HOW TO FACILITATE ITS DIGESTION.

Among the various dogmas that have so long engaged the attention of mankind, and endeavored to be established by their application and adaptability to the affairs of life, none are so forcibly proven as is the doctrine of total depravity, by having a most bitter of long standing. I am aware that the good book says, "Man shall not live by bread alone." Ergo he must have meat. But this necessity will no more justify the keeping of meat and never paying for it, than it will the stealing of it.

In order to have it digest well, it should be bought for a reasonable price, and paid for within a reasonable time.

The books of A. Burchell & Co., embracing the most accounts contracted with C. Graham last season, have been placed in my hands for speedy collection.

It has lately been promulgated by the Economical of some other counsel, that it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a man to die happy, and leave an old unpaid meat bill behind.—Therefore, for the benefit of that class of debtors, I kindly extend the hands of alms, that they may wisely avail themselves of this doctrine, before they go up the spout.

FARM FOR SALE.

The well known Dennis Simonds farm, containing 176 acres, about 50 acres timber land, situated one and one half miles west of Peru village, on the road leading from the Turnpike to Dorey and one-half mile from school house. On the house farm of 126 acres are a good Dwelling House, calculated for two families,—very convenient; good water; a Large Barn, with basement, nearly new; and other buildings sufficient for the farm. Land gently sloping to the east; few stones. Maple orchard west and near the house, also good apple orchard. The remaining 50 acres nearly adjoining home farm, about half timber land, the balance good pasture, meadow, and plow land, nearly level, but few stone, and easy of access. It is thought by some that enough Hemlock Bark and Lumber might be taken off to nearly or quite pay for the farm. At the time Joseph Simonds owned each farm, it produced him two tons of hay per acre, and was called one of the best farms in Peru. Said farm has been neglected for the past few years and can be bought accordingly. For further particulars enquire of
