THISTLES.

—Two hearts that beat as one are singularly obvious to mind. We never know a man in love to circulate a petition for a new sidewalk or an additional lamp post.

—A Church Court—The longest way home from singing-school.

—Hood called the slamming of a door by a person in a passion "a wooden oath."

—Adam had one consolation when he fell. Fifteen or twenty acquaintances did not stand on the opposite corner and laugh at his mishap.

—A little girl asked a minister, Do you think my papa will go to heaven? Why, yes my child. Why do you ask? Well, if he does have his own way there, he won't stay long, I was thinking.

—A hoboken recently found a squirrel in his cow, he was cutting up into steaks. It is supposed the animal had swallowed a milk maid.

—Broker.—How are you off for money this morning? Cashier.—I am off with what little there was in the bank. Good bye.

—A superannuated minister says, I have been guilty of doing one thing for which the church will not forgive me! I have been growing old.

An Iowa school-teacher has been discharged for the offence of kissing a female assistant. Whereupon a local paper inquires, what inducement there is for any person to qualify himself to the pomegranate distinct of Iowa to direct the young idea to shoot, provided it is to be denied the ordinary amenities of everyday life?

—An ox which had been eating fermented grain, which was in preparation for making ale, became intoxicated, and was offered for sale by its owner as 'corned' beef.

—One editor says; This paper has one subscriber who would lie awake nights if he were in any way prevented from paying his subscription for a year in advance on the 29th of January. We don't want our friends to lose any sleep, but—you know how it is yourself.

—A Peoria naturalist, in attempting to warm the ears of a frozen wasp over a gas jet, discovered that the tail of the insect thawed out first, and worked with a rapidity that was astonishing as the profanity of the naturalist, who held the insect by the tail while thus experimenting.

—Even Butler excites sympathy; for a Boston correspondent of an Interior journal writes; General Butler has been called a man of brass, but he is a good deal more like a man of iron, or as a follower of his said the other day, he is like oxide of iron. Why not be done with it and say he is squint-eyed of iron.

—A country paper says, that in reply to a question from the lecture committee of the chief town of the district as to the subject of a lecture to be given at the invitation, the lecturer telegraphed, A Taste of Naples and Rome. The telegraph made it read, A Taste of Apples and Rum.

—An impertinent fellow wants to know if you ever sat down to tea where skim milk was on the table, without being asked, Do you take cream?

—Don't a Quaker ever take off his hat to any one, mamma? No, my dear. If he don't take off his hat to a barber how does he have his hair cut?

—A tall Yankee standing six feet in his stockings, was suddenly attacked with symptoms of typhoid fever. Having a violent pain in his head, his wife to afford him relief, was about to apply draughts to his feet, when he asked: What are you putting them on my feet for? Why, said she, to draw the pain out of your head. The ——! says he, I would rather it would stay where it is, than be drawn the whole length of me.

—Dr. Robert Chambers tells a good story in his 'scrap-book' of a Mr. Erskine, of Dun, who had an old man-servant who took great liberties, in virtue of his long and faithful service. He had grown quite gray in the family, and no one thought of taking notice of anything he said. Being, however, said to be "silver crazy," it was his great business to collect silver wherever he could, by fair or foul means. Mr. Erskine's favorite Will, if he saw him approach, he put up with pun long as he could, but at last he cried out, Hoot, man, Will, wouldna ye rather be better than to be known a horse?

—A sweet little boy, only eight years old—bless his little heart—walked into the scene of a teacher's examination at Oswego, last week, and bawled out, Annie, your father is down to the house!

—A correspondent of the Burlington Free Press suggests the name of Horatio N. Bain of Hancock in Addison County as worthy one as a gentleman favoring retrenchment and reform and living on the Green Mountain range, midway between the east and west line of the state remote from and above all railroads and railroad influences.

—A celebrated Scotch divine had just risen up in the pulpit to lead the congregation in prayer, when a gentleman in the front of the gallery took out his handkerchief to wipe the dust from his brow, forgetting that a pack of cards was wrapped up in it. The whole pack was scattered over the floor of the gallery. The minister could not resist a sarcasm, solemn as the act was in which he was to engage. O man, man! surely your psalm-book has been ill-bound.

—Early financial transactions multiply. The statement which has been going the rounds that the check on the bank of the Red Sea crossed by Moses & Co., received by Pharaoh, was the earliest on record, is disputed by a correspondent who calls attention to the fact it was still earlier that Pharaoh's daughter drew a little prophet from the rushes on the banks. That, we believe has never been disputed. But both these statements must cave in point of priority to the financial transaction of Abraham in the purchase of the cave of Machpelah, in payment for which he weighed to Ephron "four hundred shekels of silver, current money, with the merchant."

—No matter how amiable a young lady may be, fashion now demands that she shall appear ruffled in public.

VINEGAR BITTERS.

PURELY VEGETABLE.

FREE FROM ALCOHOL.

DR. J. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS are purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable properties of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS act on all these cases in a similar manner. By purifying the Blood they remove the cause, and by resolving away the effects of the inflammation (the tubercular deposits) the affected parts receive health, and a permanent cure is effected.

If men will enjoy good health, let them use VINEGAR BITTERS as a medicine, and avoid the use of alcoholic stimulants in every form.
