GRAY HAIR RESTORED TO ITS ORIGINAL Youthful Color, Baldness Prevented.

"London" "Hair Color Restorer."
"London" "Hair Color Restorer."
"London"—No Dye. "Hair Color Restorer."
"London" "Hair Color Restorer."
"London" "Hair Color Restorer."

It is the only known restorer of color and perfect hair-dressing combined. Delicately performed.

Compounded in strict conformity with modern Vegetable Chemistry. It is not a dye, does not stain the skin, soil hat, bonnet, or the finest linen. It will restore gray hair to its original color, promote a luxuriant growth of new hair on bald heads, remove all dandruff, itching, scurf, &c., from the scalp, rendering it perfectly healthy, keeps the hair soft, moist, gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance, highly perfumed, and as a dressing it has no superior.

STILL ANOTHER CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify to the wonderful effects of the "London Hair Color Restorer and Dressing." My hair was very gray, and through its use it was soon restored to its natural color, and the hair, which was before dry and harsh, and falling off, now became soft and glossy, ceasing falling; the dandruff disappeared, and the scalp lost all the disagreeable itching, so annoying before, and at this time it is fully restored to its original dark color, and I cheerfully commend its use to all who are desirous of having a beautiful head of hair.

By Telegraph.

Afternoon Dispatches.

The Sherman Johnston Conference.

Additional Particulars.

Terms Dictated by Jeff. Davis.

Strength of Johnston's Army.

Commission from Gov. Vance to Sherman.

Booth, the Assassin, Killed.

His Accomplice Captured.

New York, April 27.—The Herald's Raleigh correspondent, of the 19th, says: Johnston first proposed to surrender his army on the terms granted Lee, and requested Sherman to send propositions to Washington. Sherman replied he was empowered to act, and it was not necessary to send to Washington, thus causing ad interview, which was held next day, when Johnston made enquiry what terms would be yielded to members of the Confederate Government. Sherman refused to recognize the authorities of any such Government, but was prepared to treat with Johnston as an officer of the insurgent forces. A second meeting was had, at which Breckinridge was recognized as a Major General and not as rebel Secretary of War, was present. It was at this conference that Sherman permitted the introduction of the objectionable propositions which it is said were dictated by Jeff. Davis. Sherman heard of the President's assassination before the negotiations and communicated the intelligence to the rebels, who appeared to have the profoundest regret at the event.

Gen. Stoneman, who was reported at Greensboro', was permitted to come through Johnston's lines to Raleigh.

Johnston's army, probably 35,000 strong, is better supplied with field guns and horses than any army the Confederacy ever had. Many of the rank and file, however, are not willing to await the formal surrender and are leaving for their homes.

The World's Raleigh correspondent says a commission, consisting of ex-Gov. Graham, ex-Gov. Swayne, Gen. Warren, and Col. Burr were sent by Gov. Vance to see what arrangements could be made with Sherman on the part of the State for a cessation of hostilities, and to ascertain what was the status of State government and officers under the new regime. The commission had the assent of Gen. Hardee to visit Sherman, Johnston not being at hand, but Wade Hampton intercepted them and sent them back. Kilpatrick being in the rear captured them, and Hampton having retreated, sent them on their mission. They had an interview with Sherman, who gave them a protection paper for the government and State officers, so long as no hostilities were shown by them.

Sherman told them he had no information as to how the status of the State Government was affected, that the question did not come within his province, that he did not consider North Carolina out of the Union, as the question of secession had not been submitted to the people, that he would respect every man that was not an original secessionist and treat them with every consideration; still he must march through the State in pursuit of Johnston, and people must necessarily suffer by that march. Johnston's army was inferior to his and every man slain in the future was an unnecessary sacrifice. Johnston and not himself would be reponsible for this sacrifice and the suffering entailed on the people of North Carolina. The civilized world would pronounce Johnston's course inhuman and illegitimate.

The Times' Washington special says the statement that President Johnson declines all precaution for his personal safety is erroneous, since he has given no special directions for guards to be placed about his person; but he approved the precaution taken by the authorities, which embrace the continuance upon duty of the late President's body guard, commanded by Lieut. J. R. Jamison, of Ohio. This company consists of one select man from each county in Ohio, and numbers nearly one hundred men. A sufficient force of this guard is upon duty at all times, and the visitor who calls upon the President at his temporary mansion is confronted at once upon approaching the door by three or four soldiers, who do not permit him to advance further until his name has been sent in, and order given by the President to admit him. In the hall adjoining the reception room are also found soldiers of genteel deportment, who quietly remain about the room within a few feet of Mr. Johnson. Sentinels continually remain in the streets and about the lot in which the building stands. In fact, every reasonable precaution is taken to prevent any violence being attempted upon the President.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 27.—The funeral train arrived here at 3:30 a. m. Minute guns were fired and Newman's regimental band performed funeral dirges, and the 5th New York National Guards, 1st Cavet's Reserves, Hospital battery attached to 25th brigade, Union Blues, independent, were drawn up in line in the depot, on the north side of the track, the Mayor and sixteen of the Common Council with other civic organizations. The bells of the city churches are tolling, and with the train leaves the city, the vast multitude shows marked signs of sorrow and respect.

BATAVIA, N. Y., April 27.—The remains of President Lincoln arrived at 8:8. Two thousand of the inhabitants were assembled at this place. During the time a choir of male and female voices sung a requiem, and the bells were tolled.

A NEW THING—THE SOLAR PHOTOGRAPH. This is a new style of Photograph, introduced for the first time in Nashville, by Mr. Hall, at his New Gallery, corner Cedar and Public Square. They represent the same person on the same card in different positions, different dresses, etc. Thus an officer can be a citizen in one, a soldier in the other; a lady can be represented with her bonnet and cloak on, and again with it off.

This style of Picture is having a great run at the East, and they are sure will be favorite very popular. Hall is also making beautiful large Imperial Photographs in India Ink, also colored in Oil.

Hall's celebrated Carte de Visites, equal to any made in the country. Call at Hall's.
