A Business Directory.

In conformity with a mode of advertising found advantageous, and indeed necessary in other cities, we have determined to commence a Business Directory in the Union, its wide and numerous circulation fitting it peculiarly for the purpose. The Directory will contain the names, address and business or profession, of those advertising in it, arranged under classified heads, as "Drugs," "Law," Dry Goods," etc. The subscriptions for cards to appear in the "Nashville Union Directory" will be $15 for one year, or $9 for six months, which is the shortest period for which a card will be taken.

Yesterday was very dull for Saturday. Purchasers were complaining of high prices, and merchants of low ones. There is a downward tendency in the prices of most all staples, and we hope that rates will shortly reach a standard that will be profitable to the dealer and advantageous to the consumer.

THE WEEK.—To-day is the second Sunday after Easter. Monday is the feast of St. Phillip and St. James. Wednesday is the feast of the Invention of the Holy Cross. To-night Mars and the Moon are in conjunction in Cancer; the moon sets at a quarter past eleven o'clock. To-morrow is May day, and the beginning of the observance of "the month of Mary."

PASSES.—The system of requiring passes to be obtained by those who wish to go to Washington is abolished. The Washington correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat says that the change is expected to be extended to Savannah and Charleston. Why passes should be required of those coming to Nashville, when they are abolished, or about to be abolished for the three cities above named, is a mystery of red tapism that suppresses ordinary comprehension.

TO BE REVENGED.—Thousands of hearts will be made glad with the intelligence in our telegraphic columns, that prisoners of war will be turned to liberty on taking the oath.

COZZ & TUNNELL.—This firm has received the Louisville Journal and Press, of the 29th; the Cincinnati Gazette and Commercial, of the 28th, the St. Louis Democrat and Chicago Tribune, of the 27th, the New York Times, Tribune, and Herald, of the 27th, and the New York Clipper.

ADAMS EXPRESS.—We are again under obligations to the gentlemen of the Express office for late papers.

Gentlemen in want of a perfect fitting Shirt would do well to leave their measure at Green & Green's, 42 College street. 1t

THE ASCENSION.—From primitive age, the Christian Church has observed this period set apart for commemorating the event of the Saviour's ascension, as a feast. The first proclamat on of the President having appointed a day of fasting and humiliation to be observed during the period of the feast, he has been induced to change the day, in deference to the feelings of a large portion of the religious world. In the first appointment by our loved late President, of a day of rejoicing on the very day observed, for thousands of years, by the church—Good Friday—as a day of religious solemnity commemorating the awful scene of the crucifixion, we have a striking result of the effects of the Protestant reformation. Before that event there was not a christian child that did not know of these two important ecclesiastical occasions; but in 1865 the Chief Magistrate of one of the greatest powers in the world, is ignorant of the period of their observance and prescribes a feast when the church rels for a fast! Such a fact is a striking demonstration of the decline of a religious system that still claims to be Catholic and Universal.

GOVERNOR'S IN TROUBLE.—Rebel Governors are in trouble. Our Legislature contemplates offering a reward for the capture of the rebel Governor Harris of Tennessee; and Governor Pierpont, of Viginia, contemplates a similar step for the arrest of the rebel Governor Billy Smith, of that State.

The 2nd C. P. Church which has been occupied for the past five months as a branch of post hospital, was returned a few days ago. Regular services will now be resumed by the Pastor, Dr. A. G. Goodlett. Services commence this morning at 10½ o'clock, and at the usual hour in the evening.

NASHVILLE, April 29, 1865.

Gen. John B. Rodgers: Your friends desire that you should reconsider your determination to not be a candidate for the office of United States Senator. Answer immediately. OLD FRIEND.

DR. J. R. HARWELL.—This gentlemen has resumed the practice of medicine. Dr. H. was formerly one of the physicians at the State Lunatic Asylum, and more recently one of the Surgeons hospital at No. 2, in this city. See his card.

The most agreeable gentlemen to deal with in the city is J. N. Rhodes & Co., at No. 32, Union street, all who may require any thing that they deal in, will be gratified with the result if they give them a call, their stock is well selected, and embraces most every thing in the way of stationary, besides a general assortment of very useful and desirable articles of this description. They keep constantly on hand a great variety of goods that it would be difficult to find elsewhere, for a catalogue of which we refer our readers to the advertisement of their house in to-day's paper. We would urge upon all who wish to pay a proper respect to the memory of our beloved President by wearing a suitable badge of mourning, to call at the store of Rhodes & Co., and purchase one of these neat little pictures—a correct likeness of Mr. Lincoln—about the size of a ladies Breast pin—all tastefully draped, and ready to be worn. We are so well pleased with them that we hope to see them generally adopted.

OLD THEATRE.—Among the gentlemen of the dramatic profession now in Nashville, none enjoy a higher reputation for suavity, kindness, integrity, and the qualities which constitute the gentleman, than C. C. Adams, Esq., the respected Treasurer of the Old Theatre. To-morrow night he takes a benefit, and to the impulse to attend as a mark of regard to an esteemed favorite, is added the attractions of a fine bill. The Corsican Brothers will be performed, one of the most thrilling dramas that has ever been put upon the stage. Arrangements have been made by superior stage mechanism and other adjuncts to give it with all the striking effect that made its first introduction so marked an epoch in the history of the drama. The very popular piece "Perfection," will also be performed, and Stewart and Tompkins will sing capital songs. Laura Keene is announced to appear on Tuesday.

NEW THEATRE.—At this theatre to-morrow night a bill of large dimensions and heavy attraction will afford a night's very agreeable amusement. "Wallace, the Hero of Scotland," and "Handy Andy" will both be performed, and Miss Morris will give one of her bewitching dances. The fine company at the New Theatre ensure good representations of whatever is undertaken.

Ladies' and Gentlemen's Spring Hats in endless variety at Green & Green's, 42 College street. 1t

RECORDER'S COURT.—A great deal of time was consumed yesterday in the examination of witnesses in the case of Christain Spears, charged with stealing a pocket book containing one hundred and forty dollars, from Pat. Stanton. Mr. Stanton was the first witness called, but nothing for or against the witness was elicited in his statements.

Mr. Edington was next examined, and testified that he was present, or near by, when Spears found, or pretended to find the money, and was called upon by Spears, whom he had never seen before, to examine and count the money, which he did, and also took the name and residence of the finder, that he might be called upon if the loser was discovered. Stanton, shortly after this, announced that he had lost such a wallet (which he described in Court as being a pocket book of a "dark complexion") describing the contents accurately. Whereupon Edington went down with Stanton and a guard to where Spears said he could be found, for the purpose of obtaining the money, when called for he responded, but denied all knowledge of the facts stated above, whereupon he was arrested. Edington, who is evidently an honest man, and well disposed towards the prisoner, stated positively that Spears was the man that found the money.

Mr. Pendergrass, foreman of a shop at the Chattanooga depot, stated that Edington had informed him that a pocket book had been found, and asked him to enquire among his men and ask if any of them had lost one.

Two other witnesses were introduced, who stated that they had known the defendant for years, and always regarded him as a strictly honest man, so far as they were informed, his integrity had never been questioned before. This was about all of the evidence. The Attorney for the defence, Mr. Young, made a few remarks. Mr. Childress, for the prosecution, declined to argue the case, so it was submitted to Judge Shane for decision without further ceremony. The Court said that it was clear that Spears had the money, and that if he would return it to the owner, who was an old man, and away from home, and anxious to return, and to keep him here would be a punishment and an inconvenience that he ought not to be subjected to, he might go, but if he did not, he would hold him over for trial before the June term of the Criminal Court, in the sum of one thousand dollars. The money has not yet been produced but we think it will come forth after awhile.

Three parties were up for merchanelsing without License.

One for using language calculated to provoke a breach of the peace, fined ten dollars.

One "man" for whipping his wife, was fined ten dollars.

Drunk and disorderly conduct, five offenders, who were fined, and ten were charged with being drunk, found guilty, and sentenced accordingly.

ELEGANCE AND TASTE.—Mr. W. C. Collier, of 21½ Cherry street, has shown us a piece of work, done to his order by the great house of S. S. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia, which, for elegance and taste we have scarcely seen equaled. It was an Album for Photographs, quarto size, and the object of our admiration is the binding, which is of purple Turkey morocco, embossed, and ornamented with a skill and beauty that charmed all who saw it. The edges—gold, beautifully figured, and the clasps are in keeping with the rest, and the whole is a bijou of rare excellence, most creditable to the house of Lippincott & Co.

ED. WILLARD.—Willard has received the latest numbers of the Boston Pilot, Flag of our Union, and Ledger.

J. Fagherty was arrested last night by the City Patrol for asserting vehemently that President Lincoln ought to have been killed four years ago, and that the man who killed him was better and more worthy of the gratitude of the people than his victim. Two other parties were charged with the same disgraceful conduct; one of them had been arrested when we left the office, and the other was being vigilantly searched for.

DIED:

On Saturday, the 29th inst., of congestion, Dora L., wife of Capt. E. A. Otis, aged 21 years and three months.

Funeral services will take place from the residence of Mrs. Sheppard, 22 South Cherry street, to-day at 12½ o'clock.

Scarce four weeks since, and a sunny sunbeam entered our dwelling—a wanderer from its native home, sent to give its light to a stranger hearth. How bright and transient were its rays! How deep the gloom that follows its departure!

A few days ago, and upon her knee she held her prattling babe, her laughing face telling to all around the story of a doat mother, and a happy wife. Never have we seen the simplicity of childhood and womanly dignity so beautifully blended as in our departed friend. It required not years of acquaintance to tell us her worth—her native frankness charmed you, while her native refinement spoke in every action. We never paused to ask ourselves why we loved her, we only knew that we could not, if we would have resisted her soft influence. But the idol of clay has fallen to the earth; the happy, trusting wife has given to the land husband the last kiss of love; and the lovest babe, in whom was centered every thought of hope and happiness, is smiling in her glee unconscious that she is motherless. Aye, not forever will this sweet dream last. How often in coming years will she pice for a mother's kiss! How often will she dream of that soft hand unlike any other, that ever fell with blessings on even the wayward child.

Lift up your head, sweet darling of her love, for our Heavenly Father has promised to guide the motherless to a haven of rest unknown to us on earth. No complaint, fond husband, in the knowledge that your faithfulness made smooth the passage to the grave; be comforted to know that tho' you have lain her precious dust 'neath a strange sod, she went not to her last resting place unwept or unloved by those whose sweet privilege it was to minister to her dying wants. Forever will linger in our humble household the memory of her sweet bright face; and forever will we believe that God sent us an angel in disguise to teach us a lesson of heavenly patience and submission. Gentle, meek, long-enduring, was the patient demanded at the altar. But oh, remember, beloved husband, that when you cross the stream that leads you to eternal life, forever with those cries of anguish that well nigh rent your soul apart, as the message came for her to leave you, perish from your memory. Songs of rejoicing have taken their place upon her lips, and the earthly form which you so loved to worship on earth, may well command your eternal devotion, for she is immortal. E.

MEDICAL CARD.

"NIP THE EVIL IN ITS BUD."

No. 64 NORTH CHERRY Street.

No. 64 NORTH CHERRY Street.

FOR SPECIAL DISEASES

GRATEFUL FOR THE LIBERAL PATRONAGE HE HAS RECEIVED Dr. COLEMAN respectfully informs the citizens and soldiers that he may still be found at his old Dispensary, 64 NORTH CHERRY STREET, where the afflicted may where find him engaged with the same zeal, assiduity, secrecy and attention to their maladies, which has so successfully distinguished him as a Physician in his special department of professional practice.

Dr. COLEMAN graduated at the University of Penn., of Philadelphia, in 1841. Since that time he has given his entire and undivided attention to his profession. All Chronic and Acute Diseases, Scrofula, Spinal Affections, Gravel, Hydrocele, Gongenital and Acquired Phymosis, Stricture of the Kidneys, Bladder, and Prostrate Gland, Mercurial Affections, Ringworm of the Face, Canker Itch, and all diseases of the skin, &c., meet with no resistance in his remedies.

PRIVATE OR VENEREAL DISEASES

Of all forms and stages speedily cured and effectually eradicated from the system. Recent cases cured in a few days.

It would appear needless here to add the importance of "nipping the evil in its bud," but, a word to the wise man; he sufficient, not only to save themselves from misery but to shield their offspring from shame and ruin.

How often is it the case we see gentlemen drench themselves with advertised nostrums. How much money is wasted in pocket and health they are finally forced to apply to some medical Physician to be cured, or alas can these diseases be cured properly and effectually when the feeble and nauseous nostrums are known to the doctor who prescribes. Otherwise it is a leap in the dark to expect a permanent cure. Dr. C's office is well arranged, and persons afflicted with these diseases can have the strictest privacy.

Send For a Circular Post Office Box 502.

Persons at a distance can address him by letter, describing the most prominent symptoms, but in all difficult cases, a personal examination will be necessary.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

One of the most successful physicians in Nashville is Dr. Coleman, whose office is on Cherry street, between Deaderick and Cedar. The foundation of his success is his extensive attainments, his experience, and the practical good sense which enables him to take advantage of his acquirements for the benefit of his patients. And, withal, he is an affable and agreeable gentleman.—Union.

To all of the above we most cordially subscribe.—Gazette.

The Local of the Press endorses all of the above with the classical remark that Dr. Coleman "is all right," and will do to tie to.—Press. 1m29-tf

To Strangers and Citizens.

We do not profess to be the only Physician in the city, "who may be found at his office at all hours, day or night;" nor do we, in offering our services to the invalid, desire to recommend ourself in preference to other equally well established and experienced physicians; nor do we pretend to be infallible, or the only man capable of curing the various diseases mentioned in our general advertisement. We do not claim the possession of any wonderful secret remedies, or extraordinary agreeable treatment or palliatives; as all sensible men must know, that success in the practice of medicine, does not depend so much upon the discovery of new remedies, or new modes of treatment, as upon the skillful use of those agencies necessary to a perfect cure—and this can be acquired only by experience and patient application. We respectfully refer the public to our general advertisement, in another part of the paper.

HAVING FOR SEVERAL YEARS PAST MADE THE BARGAIN OF MOST OF THE TREATMENT for PRIVATE DISEASES, by the [illegible] sections, with painful operations, etc., was convinced in the [illegible] that these diseases might be cured by some more pleasant and reliable remedies, as by the Old Course of Treatment

Physicians are constantly annoyed by patients returning with unpleasant symptoms. Dr. Jones has discovered a mode of treatment for these diseases which is equal to cases of a week or a month. He has undergone a thorough investigation, and has perfected a system that never fails to cure, and is never troubled with the complaint of patients with unpleasant symptoms, or with the many symptoms produced by the Old School Treatment.

Dr. Jones' charges are the same in all cases—and he charges the same for one month's attendance that he would for one month, and it is of course to his interest to cure a case as speedily as possible.

in all cases, which saves to the patient the extravagant prices of medicines at apothecaries, which, in many cases, cost more than the whole of his charges, including medicine, board, and exposure, in calling for the medicines at a Drug Store. The office is so arranged that none need see you while there. All business and correspondence STRICTLY PRIVATE.

To my patrons I am happy to state that I have been assisted in my practice by my Mother.

DR. A. KING,

an associate Physician, who will, in my absence, attend to any patients. Dr. KING is a graduate from the oldest Venereal surgeon in the United States, having been of the profession for 40 years. Practice since 1825, and I take pleasure in recommending him to the unfortunate diseases of the profession.

DR. KING is the only person in the country, who can truthfully say he is the inventor of any Medicines, and with his long experience no one can deny it. Consultation free. Medicines sent to any part of the country, calling at this Dispensary will therefore have the advice and treatment of one who is the inventor himself, or either, as may be desired, without extra charge.

Patients and strangers in visiting should be particular in regard to the number of the street, as there are other Dispensaries in the city which resemble those of Dr. Jones'.
