TWO ROUNDS IN WATERLOO CUP

Completed Yesterday Afternoon And Several Surprises Were Sprung.

OQUIRRH'S COLONEL LOST.

Walla Walla, Rocked Asleep and the Wolf All Went Down and Out In Second Round.

Two rounds in the Waterloo cup coursing event were completed at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon, and the finish of the big event comes this afternoon. There were several surprises sprung in the events yesterday, the most notable ones being the defeat in the second round of Walla Walla, The Wolf and Rocked Asleep.

The racing yesterday afternoon was as good if not better than any since the tournament started. There was one disappointment when Oquirrh's Colonel, runner up in the Mississippi Valley futurity, went down to defeat in the first round. The Colonel was a strong favorite with Salt Lakers and it was hoped he would make a good showing. Mr. Blue, last year's winner of the cup, also lost in the first round. He was defeated by On On Dago, a California hound.

The dog that now stands the best chance of capturing the big event is Clyde, a speedy hound from Colma. Yesterday's results follow:

WESTON'S BIG TASK.

Veteran Pedestrian to Walk from Chicago to Portland.

Portland, Me., Oct. 29.—Edward Payson Weston, the veteran pedestrian, who is to walk from here to Chicago, is ready for the 1,239 mile tramp, which begins at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

"Forty years ago," Ned Wiston today said, "I performed this feat in 26 days. My schedule for this trip is practically a duplicate of the old, but I hope to improve on it a little. I purposely will do a 22 mile tramp to Kennebunk just to get limbered up, so that on Wednesday I shall be equal to a 46 mile jaunt. The third day I expect to cover 161 miles within 24 hours."

WEEKS NO MATCH FOR ABE ATTELL.

Los Angeles, Oct 29.—Abe Attell, the featherweight champion, added another victory tonight when he knocked out Freddie Weeks of Cripple Creek in the fourth round of what was to have been a 20 round bout.

Weeks was no match whatever for Attell and the champion had him at his mercy all the way through.

In the first round, before the fight had progressed as much as a minute, Attell sent a swift right across to Weeks' jaw, and the Cripple Creek boy staggered back dazed and tottering. It was evident to every spectator that Attell could have knocked him out then without effort, but he refrained from doing so. He punched his staggering opponent with light jabs with both hands and Weeks hung tightly. The referee separated them several times. Weeks clinging to Attell closely. When the round ended the Cripple Creek boy was weak and groggy.

The succeeding two rounds were tame and uninteresting.

In the fourth round Attell suddenly walked in and sent a stiff light punch straight from the shoulder to the point of the jaw. Weeks staggered and fell to the mat.

He rose to his feet slowly as the referee counted, and Attell knocked him down again with another vicious rap. Weeks rose slowly and Attell knocked him down twice more. As Weeks lay on the mat vainly endeavoring to rise again his seconds threw the sponge into the ring.

Rev. B. C. Horton, Sulphur Springs, Tex., writes, July 15th, 1902: "I have used in my family Ballard's Snow Liniment and Horehound Syrup, and they have proved certainly satisfactory. The liniment is the best we have ever used for headache and pains. The cough syrup has been our doctor for the last eight years." Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 112 and 114 South Main Street. B

SMALL CALLS OFF THE TELEGRAPHERS' STRIKE.

New York, Oct. 29.—S. J. Small, recently deposed as president of the Commercial Telegraphers' union, arrived in New York from the west today and was refused permission to address the local branch of the union at a meeting in the afternoon, and tonight sent out a statement to the public "calling off" the telegraphers' strike. After reviewing his efforts to bring about a settlement of the trouble advantageously to the strikers, and the action of the union in declaring his office vacant and electing a successor, Small says:

"I feel it my duty as the legally elected president of the aforesaid organization to issue this statement, declaring a chaotic condition to exist within our ranks, and further declaring the telegraphers' strike unquestionably the greatest and cleanest fought battle of recent years, at an end dating from Wednesday, Oct. 30, 1907, and on the following terms, to-wit:

"All strikers will be reinstated without discrimination, except those against whom serious charges can be substantiated, the accused to have the privilege of making defense in writing through me, when their cases will receive prompt and careful consideration.

"The 10 per cent increase granted March 1, 1907, will be strictly adhered to.

"Other matters mentioned in the bill of grievances to be taken up and considered upon my return to New York within 10 days; provided the strikers accept and act upon these instructions."

Small declares he is willing to "await vindication at the next regular convention, to be held in Milwaukee next June."

Late tonight Daniel L. Russell, chairman of the state committee, issued a statement to the effect that if the telegraph companies were prepared to agree to reinstate all strikers except those against whom serious charges could be proved; guarantee that the increase of last March would be given without discrimination, and promise to arbitrate all other matters contained in the bill of grievances the signers of the statement were satisfied that they could pledge the committee to call off the strike within 48 hours. The statement was signed by Russell, Percy Thomas, Joseph F. Ahearn and R. M. McLennon.

Nervous Indigestion

The action of digestion is controlled by nerves leading to the stomach. When they are weak, the stomach is deprived of its energy. It has no power to do its work. If you want permanent relief, you must restore this energy. Dr. Miles' Nervine restores nervous energy, and gives the organs power to perform their functions.

"For many years I was an acute sufferer from nervous indigestion; at times I was so despondent life seemed almost a burden. I tried all kinds of remedies and various physicians with little or no relief, until one night last summer I saw Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure advertised. I resolved to make one more trial which I did in the purchase of one bottle of Nervine and one of Heart Cure. In a few days I began to feel better, which encouraged me so much that I continued the medicine until I had taken more than a dozen bottles. I am very much improved in every way; in body, mind and spirits since. I make a special point to recommend the medicine, and I feel a sincere pleasure in knowing that several persons have been benefited through my recommendations."
A. S. MELTON, Ashville, N. C.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

DENSITY OF A DIPLOMAT

"Laugh, and the world laughs with you; snort, and you snort alone," says Aubrey Lanston, in the Bohemian. The distinction was made evident at a dinner of the Gridiron club, when Sir Mortimer Durand, utterly unable to grasp the wit, tinged as it was by political allusions, and unwilling to pretend, sat the picture of despair, while his conferes roared with laughter, either spontaneous or assumed. At each quip, M. Jusserand, von Sternburg, and Rosen burst into merriment, particularly when the president was moved to mirth, and none louder than Rosen, who has a truly American sense of humor; but Sir Mortimer remained as glum as tradition would have had him.

Now dignity is one thing, but the comity of nations is another, and the two must not be allowed to conflict. With the three, the president could be hale fellow well met when he chose. Jusserand and Rosen appearing to his intellectual nature and to his regard for the man of wide attainments, whatever their sphere; while in von Sternburg these qualities were united with a fellowship in arms, since the doughty little baron served through the Franco-Prussian war with distinction as an officer of the Second Saxon Dragoons, and now ranks as a major on the general staff. But in Sir Mortimer was always the reflection of the dignity of Great Britain, very becoming in an ambassador, no doubt, but very galling to a man such as Mr. Roosevelt, who prefers, at times, to forget the panoply of power. And from the ashes of these hopes arose Mr. Bryce, who, judging by the omens, should prove to be one of the most valuable officials ever accredited to this nation.
