FINANCIAL.

CHICAGO TIMES: The March debt statement shows a decrease of $9,344,826 during the month, against $7,630,678 in February, and $16,602,947 in March, 1882. During the nine months ending March 31 the decrease was $111,983,172, against $114,332,389 for the same months of the last fiscal year. The small difference of less than two and a half millions between the periods compared is the more remarkable from the fact that the appropriations for the current year were upward of $72,000,000 greater than they were for last year. The decrease in the interest charge, the elasticity of the revenues, and the exercise of some executive discretion in the expenditure of money appropriated conspire to explain the small difference between the expired portion of the two years in point of debt reduction. During the third quarter of last year the reduction was $37,400,000, in round figures. It will not be anything like so great during the current quarter of the present year, both because the revenues will be considerably less under the new law, and because the expenditures, especially on account of pensions, will be greater. It is possible that the total reduction of debt less cash in the treasury during the fiscal year will be $130,000,000, but it is not likely to exceed that amount. In case it does not, it will be necessary to draw some $5,000,000 from the reserve in order to meet bond calls up to and including the 120th.

The current statement shows $50,648,000 of the 3½ per cents outstanding. This includes the $15,000,000 covered by the 120th call. The amount outstanding and uncalled, therefore, is $35,648,000. It is safe to predict that such of these as may not be converted into 3's will be redeemed by next January, notwithstanding the reduction of taxes. Then the department will have to begin calling the 3's, of which the amount outstanding is $300,526,500, and of which there may perhaps be as large an amount as $320,000,000 before conversions entirely cease. By January, when calls for these bonds may be expected to begin, it will be easier than it is now to estimate the probable rate of their extinguishment. The Times will hazard the guess, however, that the bonds will be called at an average rate of not less than $80,000,000 a year, and be wiped out in four years, unless a panic should intervene, or a further and considerable reduction of taxes should be made.

Controller of the Currency Knox estimates that nearly three quarters of the $198,000,000 3 per cent. bonds held by national banks to secure circulation are among the first issued, and therefore likely to be among the last called. He says in a letter to a New York bank president: "Fully two-thirds and probably four-fifths of the circulation now outstanding is held by national banks located where the rate of interest does not exceed 7 per cent. The value of circulation to those banks is about 1 per cent., and the 4 and 4½ per cent. bonds are held largely by banks whose surplus is large and whose means are abundant. One per cent. profit is sufficient inducement for these banks to continue to hold the high-priced bonds and to replace such small amounts as may be called with others. A large number of new banks are being continually organized, sufficient, I think, to keep the circulation in the aggregate about equal to the present amount. I do not, therefore, think there will be any great reduction of national bank circulation during the year."

The director of the mint issued an order limiting the coinage of silver dollars on the Pacific coast to $400,000 a month. There are now over 30,000,000 silver dollars stored in the treasury vaults at San Francisco, and it is possible to get any considerable amount of them into circulation, for the reason that the people refuse to take them. This order limiting the coinage on the Pacific coast, will result in an increase of the coinage of silver dollars at New Orleans and Philadelphia mints, to the extent of $100,000 at each of these mints.

The importations of specie and bullion at New York during the week ending March 30 were $693,798, consisting of $450,695 in gold and $243,112 in silver, as against a total of $144,014 for the week ending March 31 last year. The importations since the 1st of January compare as follows with the movement during the corresponding period last year:

	1883.	1882.
Gold	$3,308,536	$ 426,258
Silver	1,507,931	656,998
Total	$4,816,467	$1,082,256

The figures, from official sources, show the following results in the increase in the value of property in the entire city of New York since 1832. In 1832 the assessed valuation of real estate was $203,278,384; 1862, $399,551,314; 1872, $707,148,955; 1882, $976,735,199.

FUTURES.

The future market was weak again today, and declined from 3 to 4 points in New York. The little spurt of yesterday was short lived. The low prices of futures are not favorable to an advance in spots. In Liverpool futures were from 1-64 to 2-64 better than yesterday. They generally advance there the day after they go up in this country, and they will probably be lower again to-morrow.

Chicago produce and provisions.—There was a slight falling off in quotations in Chicago futures to-day. April wheat sold at $1.02; May closed at $1.07½ to $1.07¾, a decline of ¾ since last evening. April corn was a ½ cent better, bringing 49¾. For May it was ¼ lower, selling at 54½. The receipts of grain were of wheat 32,252, corn 229,718, oats 48,259; the shipments were: wheat 17,126, corn 3,268, oats 44,351. Provisions were without material change: mess pork for April, was quoted nominally at $17.97½; and for May, at $18.17½ to $18.20. Lard was about 7½ cents higher; closing at $11.35.

In St. Louis grain was generally a shade lower. April wheat was quoted at $1.07½ bid, an advance of ½, and for May it was ½ to ¾ lower, selling at $1.09½. April corn fell off ¼, bringing 47¾. May declined ¼, closing at 45½. Oats was ¼ lower for April, selling at 43¼; May was from ½ to ¼ higher, closing at 43½ to 43¾.

COTTON.

The receipts of cotton only reached 99 bales to-day in the city, of which 67 came by rail, as follows: 1 for Schneider & Davis from Eastland; 1 for Joe Johnston, from Arlington; 2 for Blankenship & Blake, from Garza; 3 for Arch Coats, from Mesquite, and 60 for Cailler & Hill, from Ennis. The only shipment made was by Mordical & Co., 50 bales, by the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe. There was no change in prices at any of the cotton centres in this country or Europe. In the telegraph columns of the HERALD will be found the weekly statements of both this country and Europe. In this city prices are firm at quotations.

New Orleans price current: Included in our report of business transacted at the Cotton Exchange yesterday, will be noticed the sales of 100 bales of cotton for delivery to-day at fifteen cents per pound. In order to disabuse the minds of our readers of any false impression in regard to the transaction, we consider an explanation necessary. Just prior to the noon call yesterday, several operators in cotton for future delivery were discussing some question relative to the tender of "short notices," when one of the gentlemen, with a sarcastic air, called out, "bid 15 cents for March cotton, and I'll bet no one will sell it to you." The words had hardly been uttered, when another gentlemen, in a second of thoughtlessness, called aloud: "I'll give 15 cents for March," and the words had scarcely fallen from his lips before "Sold!" was shouted across the ring, and Mr. J. H. Maury claimed the sale. A number of gentlemen present endeavored to induce Mr. Maury to lease the purchase of the contract, but as the transaction involved a point of exchange law long in dispute, he refused to do so, and had the sale postponed on the boards of the institution. The reckless bid of the purchaser of this contract will cost him $2,425 over and above the market price of the staple.

RAILROADS.

THE Georgia Pacific road has been graded to Coosa river, and will cross it about twenty-five miles below Gadsden.

The earnings of the Union Pacific for the first twenty-six days of March were $1,961,000, against $1,833,000 last year, a gain of $98,000. The daily earnings are now running about even with last year.

The Woodland Democrat says: "It is now almost an assured fact that the Central Pacific railroad company will build a road from Vacaville throu h Berryessa valley into Lake county. Lakeport, the county seat is to be the terminus."

The railroads of this country are keeping 138,000,000 acres of unearned land out of the market. This is territory four times as large as New York, with enough besides to duplicate New Hampshire, Massachusetts and New Jersey.

A portion of the rolling-stock of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern railroad company has been seized at Albert Lea, Minnesota, at the suit of the Northwestern Fuel company, which claims $1,251,500 damages for violation of contract.

The jury in the suit of Dr. John H Green against the New York Central & Houston River Railroad company, brought to recover $74,000 damages for injury to the plaintiff's property at the corner of Hudson and Laight streets caused by the operation of the defendants' road through Hudson street, returned a verdict for 6 cents in favor of the plaintiff. The trial has occupied nearly two weeks.

The Kansas City, Fort Scott & Gulf railroad announces that the Memphis extension of that line is completed to Augusta, Oregon county, Missouri, 340 miles from Kansas City. The road will be completed to a connection with the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern railway at Hoxie, Arkansas, about June 1st, where the line westward from Nettleton, Arkansas, will be met, thus also making connection with the Texas & St. Louis railway at Jonesboro, Arkansa, and with the Knobel branch of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern railway at Nettleton. The line will not be completed to Memphis until about July 31st.

The following items concering operations on the Memphis, Vicksburg, Baton Rouge & New Orleans railway, are clipped from the Vicksburg Herald, of Sunday: "Mr. George S. Irving, timber agent of the New Orleans & Memphis railroad, is now at Anthony's Ferry, looking after the immense rafts of timber of the company at that point, which are now in danger of being carried away by the high water in the Yazoo river. General Manager Edwards, of the New Orleans & Memphis railroad, closed a contract yesterday with George Arnold & Co., of Memphis, for the grading of twenty miles of the road, commencing at Clarksdale, in Coahuma county. The contract includes fifteen miles of the work previously let to Burke, Foley & McMahon, this firm consenting to a transfer of that amount of the contract. This leaves a gap of only 50 miles which is not under contract. Mr. J. J. Casey, master car-builder of the New Orleans & Memphis railroad, will leave Monday for the purpose of visiting the different car manufactories, and will purchase at once a sufficient number of passenger coaches to run daily trains between New Orleans and Baton Rouge, and from this city to Port Gibson. All arrangements are completed for the laying of the steel rail between this city and Port Gibson. The work will commence tomorrow morning and will be pushed forward rapidly. Steel rails, ties and fastenings are here for 60 miles of track. The two large locomotives that have been ready at this point for weeks were tested yesterday and will be placed at work laying the new track."
