An Important and Hitherto Unpublished Letter---The Programme of Secession.

The Hartford Press prints the following letter from an original manuscript now in that office:

WARREN COUNTY, Miss., Nov 10, 1860

The Hon. R. B. RHETT, jr., Dear Sir:—I had the honor to receive, last night, yours of the 27th, ulto., and hasten to reply to the inquiries propounded. Reports of the election leave little doubt that the event you anticipated has occurred, that electors have been chosen, securing the election of Lincoln, and I will answer on that supposition.

My home is so isolated that I have had no intercourse with those who might have aided me in forming an opinion as to the effect produced on the mind of our people by the result of the recent election, and the impressions which I communicate are founded upon antecedent expressions.

1. I doubt not the Gov'r of Miss. has convoked the Legislature to assemble within the present month, to decide upon the course which the State should adopt in the present emergency. Whether the Legislature will direct the call of a convention of the State, or appoint delegates to a convention of such Southern States as may be willing to consult together for the adoption of a Southern plan of action, is doubtful.

2. If a convention of the State were assembled, the proposition to secede from the Union, independently of support from neighboring States, would probably fail.

3. If South Carolina should first secede, and she alone should take such action, the position of Miss. would not probably be changed by that fact. A powerful obstacle to the separate action of Miss. is the want of a port, from which follows the consequence that her trade being still conducted through the ports of the Union, her revenue would be diverted from her own support to that of a foreign government, and being georgraphically unconnected with South Carolina, an alliance with her would not vary that state of case. [sic.]

4. The propriety of separate secession by So. Ca. depends so much upon collateral questions that I find it difficult to respond to your last inquiry, for the want of knowledge which would enable me to estimate the value of the elements involved in the issue though exterior to your State. Georgia is necessary to connect you with Alabama, and thus to make effectual the co-operation of Miss. If Georgia would be lost by immediate action, but could be gained by delay, it seems clear to me, that you should wait. If the secession of So. Ca. should be followed by an attempt to coerce her back into the Union, that act of usurpation, folly, and wickedness would enlist every true Southern man for her defense. If it were attempted to blockade her ports and destroy her trade, a like result would be produced, and the commercial world would probably be added to her allies. It is therefore probable that neither of those measures would be adopted by any Administration, but that Federal ships would be sent to collect the duties on imports outside of the bar, that the commercial nations would feel little interest in that, and the Southern States would have little power to counteract it.

The planting States have a common interest of such magnitude that their union, sooner or later, for the protection of that interest is certain. United they will have ample power for their own protection, and their exports will make them allies of all commercial and manufacturing powers.

The new States have a heterogeneous population, and will be slower and less unanimous than those in which there is less of the Northern element in the body politic; but interest controls the policy of States, and finally all the planting communities must reach the same conclusion. My opinion is, therefore, as it has been, in favor of seeking to bring those States into co-operation, before asking for a popular decision upon a new policy and relation to the nations of the earth. If So. Ca. should resolve to secede before that co-operation can be obtained, to go out leaving Georgia and Alabama, Louisiana in the Union, and without any reason to suppose they will follow her, there appears to me to be no advantage in waiting until the Govt. has passed into hostile hands and men have become familiarized to that injurious and offensive perversion of the General Government from the ends for which it was established. I have written with the freedom and carelessness of private correspondence, and regret that I could not give more precise information. Very respectfully, yrs, etc.,

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

The Plot of the President Against the State Government of Tennessee.

A "Sick Man" Wanted.

The examination of witnesses in the important trial now in progress before the State Senate has brought to light the following letter written by Mr. Leftwich, a friend of the President, Conservative member of the last Congress, and now a candidate for re-election. The letter clearly reveals the determination of the President and his friends to defeat the constitutional amendment in our Legislature, and overthrow the State Government.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 24, 1866.

MY DEAR HOUGH: I have not enjoyed the recent pleasure of hearing from you, but am still, through the industry of our friends, able to hear of you often.

Col. Cooper, the President's private Secretary, has just told me that he had received some serious complaints against me for the interest taken in your nomination. He could not give the authors as the communications were strictly confidential, but expresses the belief that I know what I'm doing. Senator Patterson still says, however, that I am mistaken in my man, but I tell him to look after East Tennessee, and his hands will be full. I received yesterday from an unknown source an editorial from the Avalanche on the subject, which I think will do you more good than harm. But this is not what I started to write about. I want to ask you to see our friend Richards, and if he cannot be induced to oppose the ratification of the constitutional amendment let him take sick and stay at home, and he and you shall never regret it. The Northern "people" do not require of us any such ruinous legislation, but recognize, as you and I do, that, in giving the negro freedom and all the civil rights, we have done quite enough without giving him a right to interfere in our elections, and this is all the amendment means. This is the most important issue ever presented, and, if we ratify it, there is no telling what will be the next requirement. A refusal to ratify it may keep us from our seats for a while, but that is nothing when principle is at stake. Now, Hough, I have given you an easy part in so important an issue, and you must do it.

Some time ago Richards wrote me, asking a favor which it is impossible yet to do, and I so wrote him, and hope he properly understands it. I will not probably write to him on this question, but will rely exclusively on your management, as I know he will be influenced by you in anything that is not in itself wrong.

I may go to Nashville if they have a quorum, but I hope they will not. I would be pleased to hear from you at length.

Yours, truly, JNO. W. LEFTWICH.

Reparator Capilli.

Throw away your false frizzles, your switches, your wigs—
Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig;
Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair,
And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

FOR RESTORING HAIR UPON BALD heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different Preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given. BOUNTY! BOUNTY!

THE LAW GIVING ADDITIONAL Bounty to Soldiers who served their term of enlistment, and to the Widows of Soldiers who died in the army, if no widow nor children, to the parents, has passed; and we are prepared to adjust all such claims, and having the number and amount of the claim heretofore prosecuted by us, it will be most convenient for the claimant to call on us directly by calling on us. Our office is at the old place, in the basement story of the court house. Come immediately, as the sooner you make out your claim the sooner you will get the money.
