This bill was taken up under the favorable report of the Committee on the Judiciary.

The bill was amended by Mr. Dupree by adding the following additional sections:

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, etc., That the said corporation shall have the right and befat liberty to explain by proof any admissions which may have been made by the same in any suits or other judicial proceedings against it, whether such admission has been made or may be inferred from the pleadings or the answer of the president of said corporation upon interrogatories on facts and articles, and if such admissions are shown to be erroneous they shall be held to be of no legal weight or value in any cause against said corporation.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, etc., That all laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

The bill as amended was taken as engrossed and under a suspension of the rules was read a third time and passed.

The title was amended by adding at the end thereof the words "and to enable said corporations to explain judicial admissions."

The title was adopted as amended.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

The following message was received from the Senate:

SENATE CHAMBER, STATE OF LOUISIANA,
New Orleans, April 7, 1877.

To the Honorable the Speaker and Members of the House of Representatives.

Gentlemen—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate has this day signed the following duly enrolled Senate bills:

No. 37, "An act to define the object of drainage assessment and to regulate the collection of same," etc.

Also, No. 132, "An act to repeal an act entitled 'an act to regulate the conduct and maintain the freedom and purity of elections; to prescribe the mode of making returns thereof,'" and respectfully request the signature of the Speaker of the House to the same.

Also, that the Senate concurs in House amendments to Senate bill No. 144, "An act for the protection of game, animals and birds in the State of Louisiana."

Also, that the Senate concurs in House amendments to Senate bill No. 108, "An act to amend act No. 125, entitled 'An act to carry into effect the purposes of the donation by the United States of public lands for the benefit of agricultural and the mechanical arts,'" etc.

Also, that the Senate concurs in the amendment to the title to House bill No. 220, entitled "An act to define and specify who are wholesale dealers and wholesale merchants, and to relieve retail dealers and retail merchants from the payment of wholesale license tax," etc.

Also, that the Senate has finally passed House bill No. 227, entitled "An act to amend and re-enact paragraph 8 of section 1 of act No. 14, approved March 5, 1872."

Also House bill No. 278, "An act supplemental to act No. 58 of 1877, entitled," etc.

Also that the Senate has finally passed and requests your concurrence in Senate bill No. 148, "An act relative to contests for judicial and other offices, and providing a tribunal to try contested election cases, when the district judge and parish judge are recused, or motion is made to recuse them."

Also, Senate bill No. 151, entitled "An act to authorize the police jury of the parish of Morehouse to levy a special tax to build a parish jail."

Also, Senate bill No. 149, entitled "An act to amend section 2 of act No. 10, entitled 'An act to authorize the Governor to appoint an Assistant Attorney General, defining his duties, and fixing his compensation; to fix the commissions which shall be paid to the Attorney General upon all sums collected by him in litigated cases, and paid into the State Treasury, and to repeal act No. 35,'" approved March 3, 1874.

Also, that the Senate has finally passed and requests your concurrence in Senate bill No. 146, entitled "An act to provide for the drawing of tales jurymen in criminal trials in the parish of Orleans, in all cases where the accused is charged with a felony and for the summoning the same."

Respectfully,
JOHN CLEGG,
Secretary of the Senate.

A further message was received from the Senate as follows:

SENATE CHAMBER, STATE OF LOUISIANA,
New Orleans, April 7, 1877.

Hon. Speaker and Members of the House of Representatives:

Gentlemen—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the Senate has concurred in House bill No. 237, entitled "An act to compel assessors to assess properties heretofore exempted from taxation belonging to church, school, benevolent or charitable institutions," with amendments as annexed to the bill.

Respectfully,
JOHN CLEGG,
Secretary of the Senate.

Said House bill No. 237 was taken up with the Senate's amendments.

The House disagreed to the first amendment.

The House agreed to the second amendment, and disagreed to the third amendment.

It was ordered that the Senate be informed of the disagreement to its amendments, and that a committee of conference be asked upon the same.

The Speaker appointed on the part of the House, Messrs. McGehee, Voorhies, Barron, Leonhard and Singleton.

House bill No. 261, "An act to fix and regulate the fees of clerks of courts in the parish of Orleans in city tax suits."

Was taken up under the favorable report of the Committee on the Judiciary, taken as engrossed, and under a suspension of the rules was read a third time and passed. The title was adopted.

House bill No. 247, "An act to incorporate the Louisiana State Fair Association, and to confer upon it certain rights and privileges enjoyed by the Mechanics' and Agricultural Fair Association of Louisiana."

Was taken up under the favorable report of the Committee on Corporations, was taken as engrossed, and under a suspension of the rules was read a third time and passed.

House bill No. 270, "An act relative to the inspection of weights and measures for that portion of the parish of Orleans known as the sixth and seventh districts."

Was taken up under the favorable report of the Committee on the Judiciary, was taken as engrossed, and under a suspension of the rules was read a third time and passed.

The title was adopted.

Senate bill No. 134, "An act to make sewing machines and pianos liable to seizure under the vendor's privilege, to regulate leasing movable property which is exempt from seizure and to repeal conflicting laws."

Substitute for House bill No. 189.

The bill underwent its several readings under a suspension of the rules and was passed.

The title was adopted.

Mr. Lamar moved that the vote on the final passage of the bill be reconsidered, and, on his own motion, the motion to reconsider was laid upon the table.

Senate bill No. 120, "An act to authorize G. R. Finlay and Henry Frellson, composing the commercial firm of G. R. Finlay & Co., to institute suit against the State of Louisiana."

Under the favorable report of the Committee on the Judiciary, the bill was read a third time under a suspension of the rules, and passed.

The title was adopted.

House bill No. 171, "An act to abolish the office of Public Administrator throughout the State, except in the parish of Orleans; to repeal section 2 and to amend and re-enact sections 3 and 7 of act No. 87 of 1870, approved March 5, 1870, was taken up with the Senate's amendments, which were agreed to, as follows:

Insert in the seventh line of the third section after the word "successions" the words "in the parish of Orleans," and strike out the "except in the parish of Orleans," in the twenty-first and twenty-second lines of the fourth section.

The bill as amended was passed and notice of concurrence sent to the Senate.

House bill No. 271, "An act for the relief of Thomas Handy, Civil Sheriff of the parish of Orleans."

Was taken up with the Senate's amendment, and was agreed to as follows:

In the sixth line of the second section strike out the words "licenses and."

The bill was passed as amended and notice of concurrence was sent to the Senate.

House bill No. 289, "An act to allow the police juries of the various parishes of this State to fix the compensation of sheriffs for keeping and maintaining prisoners in the common jail."

Was taken up with the Senate's amendment, which was agreed to as follows: Insert after the word "cents," in line 11 of section 1 the words "nor less than twenty-five cents."

The bill was passed as amended.

House bill No. 293, "Joint resolution providing for a hydrographic and topographic survey of Bayou Boeuf."

Was taken up with the Senate's amendment, which was agreed to as follows: Add at the end the words "provided no expense beyond the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars."

The bill was passed as amended.

Senate bill No. 99, "An act to amend and re-enact sections 2792, 2231 and 2708 of the Revised Statutes of 1870, making it a crime and misdemeanor for acting or attempting to act as pilot to any vessel inward or outward bound to or from the port of New Orleans, without a license, and providing for the punishment of the same."

This bill was returned from the Senate with refusal to agree to the amendments of the House thereto, and with the request that a committee of conference be appointed by the House to consult with a like committee from the Senate, consisting of Messrs. Texada, Ducros and Steven.

The conference was agreed to.

House bill No. 120, "An act to provide for the collection of city taxes and giving jurisdiction to all the Disirict Courts for the parish of Orleans for said purpose, and fixing the fees of clerks, sheriffs and recorder of mortgages in such cases."

Was taken up under the unfavorable report of the Special Committee on City Affairs and postponed indefinitely.

House bill No. 213, "An act to repeal an act entitled 'An act to admit American citizens who have studied law in the legal institutions of France, Germany or England, and who have been admitted to practice in the Superior Courts of their respective countries, to practice in the several courts of Louisiana,'" approved February 14, 1873.

Under the favorable report of the Committee on the Judiciary and under a suspension of the rules, the bill was read a third time and passed.

The title was adopted.

House bill No. 221, "An act entitled 'An act to amend and re-enact section 3369 of the Revised Statutes of 1870.'"

Under the favorable report of the Committee on Parochial Affairs, the bill was taken up on its second reading, was considered as engrossed, and under a suspension of the rules was read a third time and passed.

The title was adopted.

House bill No. 231, "An act to amend and re-enact section 2447 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Louisiana."

Under the favorable report of the Committee on the Judiciary, the bill was taken up on its second reading.

On the motion to refer the bill to the Committee on Ways and Means, a rising vote was taken resulting as follows: Yeas 12, nays 38.

No quorum voting.

On motion of Mr. Cressy the House adjourned.

PETER J. TREZEVANT,
Chief Clerk.

Said lots measure as follows, to-wit: Lots numbers one and two measure each thirty-four feet eight inches front on Baudin street, by a depth between parallel lines of one hundred and eight feet. Lot number three measures thirty-four feet seven and a half inches front on Baudin street, by a depth between parallel lines of one hundred and eight feet. Lot number four has thirty-four feet seven inches front on Baudin street, by a depth between parallel lines of one hundred and eight feet. Lot number sixteen has thirty-four feet seven inches front on D'Hemecourt street, by a depth between parallel lines of one hundred and eight feet. Lot number seventeen has thirty-four feet seven and a half inches front on D'Hemecourt street, by one hundred and eight feet deep between parallel lines. Lots numbers eighteen and nineteen measure each thirty-four feet eight inches front on D'Hemecourt street, by one hundred and eight feet deep between parallel lines. And lots numbers twenty, twenty-one and twenty-two measure each thirty-four feet six inches front on Genois street, by a depth of one hundred and eight feet six inches six lines between parallel lines. Being the same property acquired by the defendant herein by purchase from J. W. Pearce, per act passed before E. G. Gottschalk, late a notary public in this city, on the second of June, 1869.

Seized in the above suit.

Terms—This being the second and last auction, the said property will be definitely adjudicated to the highest and last bidder for what it will bring, at twelve months' credit, the purchaser furnishing bond, with good and solvent security, bearing eight per cent interest per annum from date, and special mortgage on the property sold until final payment. Said purchaser will have to deduct and pay in cash the printing, sheriff's and clerk's fees, etc., which amount to about one hundred and ten dollars; and furthermore, the State, parish and municipal taxes, the amount of which is not yet ascertained.
