Prof. Martin desires that it shall be distinctly understood that these testimonials have been given without solicitation and with the request that they be published or not at his discretion:

CHICAGO, Ill., June 21, 1904.

Prof. W. J. Martin, 2836 Washington ave., St. Louis, Mo.:

My Dear Professor: Do you remember the man who called on you Jan. 16 this year?

I am the man, who, when you told me of my past and present, and when you started in to read the future to me and told me at that moment my mind was made up to attempt suicide by jumping off the Eads bridge, I was certainly astounded by your wonderful powers.

By bad speculations I had become a pauper, was estranged from my wife, my family was scattered. I was driven to drink heavily and feeling there was nothing to live for, was about to attempt suicide.

I picked up the Sunday Republic and seeing your advertisement I thought over and over again: Maybe this man can tell me if there is any future in store for me. And, believe me, I always considered such things a humbug and a fraud.

I now believe there is a guardian angel that watches over all human beings, as there seems now that I think it over, some supernatural power that led me to you.

And when you pointed out the proper course for me to pursue I had no faith and little hope.

But many is the time in the last three months I have thanked God I followed your advice.

Just think, only six short months ago I was a ruined man, poverty and disgrace stared me in the face. To-day I am in comfortable circumstances and every indication of greater success in the future.

Again thanking you for your kindness to me, I beg to remain, your obedient servant,

ROBERT F. HODGIN,
248 Lonsdale street.

Dear Sir: After witnessing your wonderful feats I cannot help but express my astonishment at your marvelous reading of the uncertain future. Heretofore, I was prejudiced against anybody having anything to do with the occult, but through the influence of a friend I decided to consult you for curiosity's sake, but to say that I was mystified and pleased expresses it too mildly, and as your most important prediction has already been realized with wonderful accuracy, I assure you that I am ready to speak a good word in your behalf to all. I am satisfied you are without a peer in your profession, and cheerfully bear this testimony to your wonderful ability to read a human being, and wish you the success you so justly deserve. Yours truly,

GEO. M. HAMILTON,
21 Michigan ave.

One of the greatest wonders in this city is Prof. Martin, the clairvoyant. To read his advertisements, one would think he professed to do the impossible, but he claims nothing he is not able to fully demonstrate and prove to the perfect satisfaction of all who call on him. The power he possesses is remarkable. You can call it what you please, attribute it to what you please, or denounce it as much as you please, the fact still remains that he is possessed with a remarkable gift and does these wonderful things.—Indianapolis Union, June 19, 1897.

Prof. Martin, the much-talked-of clairvoyant, now in this city, is undoubtedly the leader of his profession. His success has certainly never before been equaled in Cleveland by anyone in his peculiar line of work, and his honorable methods in dealing with all have made him many warm friends, both among the believers and unbelievers of the higher forces.—Cleveland Plain Dealer, Jan. 27, 1899.

I have much pleasure in testifying to the wonderful powers of Prof. Martin. I have on previous occasions interviewed persons bordering on the supernatural, but have never witnessed anything to equal the work done by Prof. Martin. It is beyond description, and its genuineness is not doubted. Most truly yours,

DR. C. H. PFUNNER.

Prof. Martin: Dear Sir—Since the complete realization of your marvelous predictions in my behalf, I deem it nothing but proper to add my testimonial to your mysterious power of foretelling future events. When I first met you I had some doubts as to your predictions, but now I am happy to acknowledge that in every particular they were true. Your advice has saved me much time and money, and I think will be of continuous benefit to me. My sincere wishes for your future success and high appreciation of the science you possess are with you. Sincerely yours, LILLIAN RUSSELL.
Milwaukee, June 1, 1897.

Prof. Martin: Dear Sir—I cannot say what others think of the spiritual or prophetic powers possessed by you, but it is with pleasure I assure you, that I verify the truthfulness of the predictions, even to the smallest details, that you made for me two weeks ago. They were of such a nature that at the time I did not think they could possibly come true, but every event predicted for me was positively accurate, and I will cheerfully bear this testimony to your marvelous ability to forecast future events.
Sincerely yours, MORRIS WINKLER.
