BARNUM.

P. T. BARNUM, THE GREAT SHOWMAN.

We take great pleasure in announcing to our readers, and especially the young folks, that MR. P. T. BARNUM, the great showman and everybody's friend, has consented to contribute a story from his own pen to the columns of THE NEW YORK FAMILY STORY PAPER. Read the following letter:

Bridgeport, Nov. 18th, 1887.

MY YOUNG FRIENDS,—I am now approaching the age of four-score years, and in the order of nature cannot remain among you much longer. There are many lessons I have learned during my long life which cannot be impressed too strongly on the rising generation.

All of you like stories, so I will tell you a story in which I can most forcibly teach these lessons and inculcate the virtues which every American boy can and should possess.

You will find "MY PLUCKY BOY TOM" a lad whom you will like, and you may be sure that the story of his adventures in India in search of curiosities which I have written for THE FAMILY STORY PAPER will interest and thrill you, and make you feel, when you are through, that you would be glad to read a good deal more about him.

Ever your friend,

P. T. Barnum

LATER.—Since receiving the above letter from Mr. Barnum, his winter quarters at Bridgeport were burned to the ground, and almost all his animal curiosities destroyed. On the day following we received the following letter:

Murray Hill Hotel, Nov. 21st, 1887.

Editor NEW YORK FAMILY STORY PAPER:

Please publish at once all the chapters of my story up to the point where Tom goes to India in search of curiosities for my show. I have just sent him the following cable:

TOM BRADFORD — Lucknow, India — Every single animal, except twenty-one elephants, a rhinoceros, and a few other animals, destroyed by fire last night in Bridgeport. Employ a full band of experienced hunters, and ship the rarest and wildest beasts to be found in India as soon as captured.

P. T. BARNUM.

TOM'S ANSWER TO MR. BARNUM.

Mr. P. T. Barnum, Murray Hill Hotel, N. Y.

Cable received. Very sorry to hear of your great loss. India will be scoured, and the wildest and fiercest animals ever seen in America will be exhibited in the Greatest Show on Earth, if our lives are not sacrificed in their capture.

TOM BRADFORD.

A supplement containing thirteen chapters of MR. BARNUM'S great story is presented to all readers of THE NEW YORK FAMILY STORY PAPER. Out to-day. THE FAMILY STORY PAPER is for sale by all newsdealers, or will be sent to any address four months for one dollar.

"MY PLUCKY BOY TOM" IS PUBLISHED TO-DAY IN

Pawtucket Wins a Sunday Cock-Fight.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]

PAWTUCKET, Dec. 12.—Another important Sunday cock-fight came off just over the State line in this city at noon yesterday in the presence of seventy-five sports. The spot was selected with great caution, so that in case of police interference from either State it would be easy work to get on safe ground.

The battle was shakeweights between Attleboro and Pawtucket. Attleboro had a blue-red weighing 7 pounds and 2 ounces, and Pawtucket a black-red which weighed 7 pounds and 4 ounces. Pawtucket won, and a lot of money changed hands on the result. The other battle was between two well-known blinkers, one from Central Falls and the other from this city. Central Falls came out winner.

Brooklyn News at a Glance.

Fire broke out in the liquor store of John F. Willoughby, at 80 Hamilton street, Brooklyn, at 1 o'clock this morning, and caused a damage to stock of $500.

While stepping on an elevator in the Brooklyn Eagle office this morning Thomas McGuire, age nineteen years caught his foot between the flooring and received a severe contusion. He was taken home.

Because John Kennedy, proprietor of a liquor saloon, refused to sell him a drink, John Christie of 121 Navy street, Brooklyn, last evening, broke broke the plate-glass window in the door of Kennedy's saloon, at 384 Myrtle avenue. For this Christie will have to pay a fine.

Capt. Eason and a squad of policemen made a descent on the cigar store of Manuel Cabo, 137 Sands street, Brooklyn, last evening. In a rear room they found nine men engaged in playing cards. On the table a "pot" of money was lying. The officers placed Cabo and the men under arrest. The men are Spaniards and Cubans.

"Saving 33 per cent.; 200-light." —Norther Pacific R. R. Co., St. Paul, Minn.

Heavy gas bills are the inevitable result of excessive pressure carried by the gas company. The Governor equalizes the pressure at the meter to five-tenths—whether street pressure is ten-tenths or thirty-tenths—or whether

One or One Hundred Burners are Lighted.

The automatic action of valve also cuts off street pressure when lights are extinguished, thus preventing all wastage and bad odors from leaking pipes, insuring

Greater Brilliancy, Steadier Flame, Security Against Fire.

No blowing or smoking burners. No broken globes. Insurance risks greatly reduced.

Marvellous Sanitary Effects.

No poisonous vapors from unconsumed gases. No vitiated atmosphere. No smoked-up walls, painting or drapery.

Practical Economy.

You pay their cost to gas companies every three months—four times a year.
