LEE'S PORT, Berks Co., Aug. 25, 1845.

Messrs. Grigg & Elliot—Gentlemen—Accept my thanks for the [illegible] of Readers you were so kind as to send me by my friend Dr. Darrah, when he was last in the city. I consider them decidedly the best School Readers I have met with, and I have introduced them into the school at this place and find them fully to answer my expectations. I have also introduced Grimshaw's History of the United States, another of your valuable school publications, I am very much pleased with Dr. Rauschenburger's works on Anatomy and Botany, which you kindly sent me. They appear to me to be just the works needed to bring the subject of Natural History within the compass of our Common Schools, and I intend during the coming winter to make an effort to introduce the subject into the school here and for this purpose, I would like to possess the whole series of eight uniform volumes, which I have requested Dr. Darrah to procure for me.

Very respectfully,
H. C. BAKER.
Principal Lee's Port Seminary.

All the above Books are for sale, wholesale and retail by Leroy Springs Charlotte, Henry P. Turner Raleigh and by the country Merchants and Booksellers generally in our state and by the Booksellers in Philadelphia and New York cities. TOO GOOD TO BE LOST.

The following is told by a corrospondent of the N. Y. Gazette and Times:

A worthy citizen of Brooklyn, with his good lady, last evening attended a religious prayer meeting at their church. During the time of prayer, the sexton came in and told our friend that some person wished to see him in a great hurry. Our friend accordingly went out on tiptoe, anxious not to disturb the audience, and was followed by his lady, who thought some of the children might be sick. When they arrrived in the hall they found their servant girl. "Well, Betsy, what's the matter?" "Plaze, sir," says Betsy, "I want a cint to buy some yaste, to make the cakes rise."

SLAVERY IN DELAWARE.

The bill which passed the House of Representatives of the Delaware Legislature, providing for the gradual abolition of slavery in that State, was indefinitely postponed in the Senate. On motion to reconsider the vote of postponement the vote was yeas 4, nays 4, and one member absent. The Speaker voted with the nays. "So the Senate," says the Delaware Gazette, "refused to reconsider the late vote, which, we suppose, seals the fate of the measure for this session at least."

Whilst Florida was a Loco Foco State, she had as her motto, "Let us alone."—Since she became a Whig State, she has repudiated that selfish and egotistical motto and adopted in place of it, "In God is our trust."—Prentice.

A company of the deserters from the American army has been organized at San Luis. They are perfectly equipped and armed, and the San Luis paper says they are "for the most part Irishmen."
